FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM

Notice of Proposals to Engage in Permissible Nonbanking Activities or to Acquire Companies that are Engaged in Permissible Nonbanking Activities

The companies listed in this notice have given notice under section 4 of the Bank Holding Company Act (12 U.S.C. 1843) (BHC Act) and Regulation Y, (12 CFR part 225) to engage de novo, or to acquire or control voting securities or assets of a company that engages either directly or through a subsidiary or other company, in a nonbanking activity that is listed in § 225.25 of Regulation Y (12 CFR 225.25) or that the Board has determined by Order to be closely related to banking and permissible for bank holding companies. Unless otherwise noted, these activities will be conducted throughout the United States.

Each notice is available for inspection at the Federal Reserve Bank indicated. Once the notice has been accepted for processing, it will also be available for inspection at the offices of the Board of Governors. Interested persons may express their views in writing on the question whether the proposal complies with the standards of section 4 of the BHC Act, including whether consummation of the proposal can "reasonably be expected to produce benefits to the public, such as greater convenience, increased competition, or gains in efficiency, that outweigh possible adverse effects, such as undue concentration of resources, decreased or unfair competition, conflicts of interests, or unsound banking practices" (12 U.S.C. 1843). Any request for a hearing on this question must be accompanied by a statement of the reasons a written presentation would not suffice in lieu of a hearing, identifying specifically any questions of fact that are in dispute, summarizing the evidence that would be presented at a hearing, and indicating how the party commenting would be aggrieved by approval of the proposal.

Unless otherwise noted, comments regarding the applications must be received at the Reserve Bank indicated or the offices of the Board of Governors not later than May 29, 1996.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Public Workshop on Consumer Privacy on the Global Information Infrastructure

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Announcement of public workshop.

SUMMARY: The Bureau of Consumer Protection of the Federal Trade Commission announces it will host a one and one-half day public workshop on consumer privacy on the Global Information Infrastructure (GII). Online transactions, such as the purchase of goods, generated electronic data that are easily duplicated, stored, retrieved, analyzed and re-used. Advances in hardware, software, and communications technologies additionally allow previously impossible or impractical manipulation of information. The Bureau's purposes for conducting this workshop are to gather information on consumers' and industry's understanding of the privacy issues posed by the emerging online marketplace, and also to gather information on online protections for consumer privacy.

DATES: The workshop will be held on June 4, 1996 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm (Room 432) and on June 5, 1996 from 9:00 am to 12:30 pm (Room 332), at the Federal Trade Commission, Sixth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. All interested parties are welcome to attend.

ADDRESSES: Requests to participate in the workshop should be mailed, on or before May 24, 1996, to Martha Landesberg, Division of Credit Practices, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, Washington, DC 20580. Written comments should be directed to: Secretary, Federal Trade Commission, Room H-159, Sixth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, NW Washington, DC 20580. Comments should be identified as "Consumer Privacy—Comment."

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Martha Landesberg, Division of Credit Practices, Bureau of Consumer Protection, Federal Trade Commission, Washington DC 20850. Telephone: (202) 326-2825; electronic mail address: mlandesberg@ftc.gov.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Public Workshop on Consumer Privacy on the Global Information Infrastructure

Agenda

June 4, 1996

Session 1—The Use of Consumer Information

Issues

How is personal information currently used by online businesses? What do consumers know about the use of consumer information in online marketing and commercial transactions? What kinds of disclosure and notice might be provided to consumers? What choices can or should consumers have in exercising control over uses of personal information? How can the security and accuracy of personal information used online be assured? Are voluntary standards useful in this area?

Session 2—Electronic Regimes for Protecting Consumer Privacy Online

Issues

Can technological standards such as the Platform for Internet Content Selection (PICS) system be used as models to facilitate automatic disclosure of privacy policies and the availability of consumer choice regarding the use of personal information?

Session 3—Consumer and Business Education in Online Privacy Issues

Issues

What are the various means of educating consumers and industry about the use of personal information in online transactions?

Session 4—The Use of Medical and Financial Information Online

Issues

What kinds of heightened protections might be afforded medical and financial information? What role, if any should such information play in online transactions?

Session 5—The Impact of the European Commission's Council Directive on the Protection of Personal Data

Issues

What does the Directive require of government and industry with respect to the free flow of personal information? Can industry satisfy the Directive's "adequacy" requirement through the use of interactive privacy regimes?

June 5, 1996

Session 6—The Collection and Use of Information about Children

Issues

What information is currently collected about children online and how is it being used? Is it appropriate to place limits on the online collection and/or use of information from and about children? What limits could be recommended? Who may consent and exercise choice in this context?

By direction of the Commission.

Donald S. Clark,

Secretary.
