[Investigation No. 337-TA-380]

Certain Agricultural Tractors Under 50 Power Take-Off Horsepower; Notice of Commission Determination Not To Review an Initial Determination Finding Three Respondents To Be in Default

AGENCY: U.S. International Trade Commission.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Notice is hereby given that the U.S. International Trade Commission had determined not to review the initial determination (ID) of the presiding administrative law judge (ALJ) in the above-captioned investigation finding respondents Tractor Company, Sonica Trading, Inc. (Sonica Trading), and Toyo Service Co., Ltd. (Toyo Service) in default, and to have waived their respective rights to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations at issue in the investigation.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Shara L. Aranoff, Esq., Office of the General Counsel, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-3090.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Neither Tractor Company, Sonica Trading, nor Toyo Service filed a response to the notice of investigation or the complaint, a discovery statement, a target date statement, or responses to complainants' discovery requests. On April 8, 1996, complainants Kubota Tractor Corporation, Kubota Manufacturing of America Corporation, and Kubota Corporation moved that Tractor Company, Sonica Trading, and Toyo Service be ordered to show cause why they should not be found in default, and if they failed to make such a showing, that an ID be issued finding them to be in default. On April 17, 1996, the ALJ ordered the subject respondents to show cause no later than May 3, 1996, why each should not be found in default (Order No. 8). None of the three respondents filed a response to the order. Accordingly, on May 8, 1996, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 13) finding Tractor Company, Sonica Trading, and Toyo Service in default pursuant to Commission final rule 210.16, and ruling that they had waived their respective rights to appear, to be served with documents, and to contest the allegations at issue in the investigation. No petitions for review of the ID were received.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. § 1337), and section 210.42 of the Commission's final Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR § 210.42).

Copies of the ID and all other nonconfidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000. Hearing impaired persons are advised that information on the matter can be obtained by contacting the Commission's TDD terminal at 202-205-1810.

Issued: June 10, 1996.

By order of the Commission.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
