

(1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency/component, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies/components estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection: Revision of a currently approved collection.

(2) The title of the form/collection: Application for Employment/Federal Bureau of Investigation.

(3) The agency form number, if any, and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: Form: FD-140. Federal Bureau of Investigation, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked or required to respond, as well as a brief abstract. Individuals seeking employment with the FBI will be required to complete the FD-140. The information collected is used to address suitability, trustworthiness, and other security issues beyond the seven year scope of Standard Form 86.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 50,000 annual respondents; 1.5 hours per response.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 75,000 hours.

Public comment on this proposed information collection is strongly encouraged.

Dated: July 3, 1996.

Robert B. Briggs,

Department Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice.
