[GSA Bulletin FTR 21]

July 9, 1996.

To: Heads of Federal agencies

Subject: Reimbursement of higher actual subsistence expenses for official travel to the Cheyenne, Wyoming area

1. Purpose. This bulletin informs agencies of the establishment of special actual subsistence expense ceiling for official travel to Cheyenne (Laramie County), Wyoming, Laramie (Albany County), Wyoming, and Fort Collins (Larimer County), Colorado, due to the escalation of lodging rates during the annual Frontier Days special event held there. These special rates apply to claims for reimbursement covering travel during the period July 15 through 31, 1996.

2. Background. The Federal Travel Regulation (FTR) (41 CFR chapters 301-304 part 301-8 permits the Administrator of General Services to establish a higher maximum daily rate for the reimbursement of actual subsistence expenses of Federal employees on official travel to an area within the continental United States. The head of an agency may request establishment of such a rate when special or unusual circumstances result in an extreme increase in subsistence costs for a temporary period.

The Department of the Air Force requested establishment of such rates for the Cheyenne, Wyoming area to accommodate employees who perform temporary duty there and experience a temporary but significant increase in lodging costs due to the escalation of lodging rates during the annual Frontier Days special event. These circumstances justify the need for higher subsistence expenses reimbursement in or near Cheyenne during the designated period.

3. Maximum rates, effective dates, and locations. The Administrator of General Services, pursuant to 41 CFR 301-8.3(c), has increased the maximum daily amount of reimbursement that may be approved for actual and necessary subsistence expenses for official travel to Cheyenne (Laramie County), Wyoming, a higher actual subsistence expense reimbursement rate not to exceed $132 maximum for lodging with a $30 allowance for meals and incidental expenses (M&IE), to Laramie (Albany County), Wyoming, a higher actual subsistence expense reimbursement rate not to exceed $77 maximum for lodging with a $26 M&IE allowance, and to Fort Collins (Larimer County), Colorado, a higher actual subsistence expense reimbursement rate not to exceed $103 maximum for lodging with a $26 M&IE allowance. These special reimbursement rates apply for travel during the period July 15 through 31, 1996.

4. Expiration date. This bulletin expires for administrative tracking purposes on December 31, 1996.

Chapter 35). To request more information on these projects or to obtain a copy of the data collection plans and instruments, call the CDC Reports Clearance Officer at (404) 639-7090. The following requests have been submitted for review since the last publication date on July 3, 1996.

Proposed Projects

1. Cost and Impact of Illnesses and Injuries Associated with Child Care Attendance—New—This is a longitudinal follow-up telephone survey of parents of children attending large (15 children/center) day care centers and family day care homes (7 children) in order to (1) determine the extent to which the size of day care centers are associated with the rates of illnesses and injuries for children attending day care; (2) to estimate the costs of illnesses and injuries for children attending small and large day care centers; (3) to compare the health of the family members of children attending small versus large day care centers; and (4) to estimate the costs of illnesses for the family members of children attending small versus large day care centers. The analyses of the proposed survey data will allow CDC to evaluate the relative costs and benefits of attending small as opposed to large day care centers. The information will provide timely and valuable data to policy makers, medical professionals and scientists.
