

program. In 1992, the C.H. Schnoor site was designated for remediation as part of FUSRAP.

During the 1940s, the property was owned by C.H. Schnoor and Company and was used to machine extruded uranium for the Hanford Pile Project, a project with the objective of producing an alternate charge for the Hanford Reactor in the State of Washington. The uranium operation may have continued until the spring of 1951, when the building was sold to a manufacturer of toys and coat hangers. In 1967, the property was acquired by the Unity Railway Supply Company, which founded the Premier Manufacturing Company and used the site to manufacture journal lubricators for railroad cars. The current occupant, Conviber, Inc., uses the site for the fabrication of industrial drive and conveyor belts. In October 1980, a radiological scanning survey was conducted by DOE and Argonne National Laboratory. Because much of the floor was inaccessible for surveying and because of the lack of definitive records documenting the use of the site, DOE directed that an additional more comprehensive survey be performed. This survey was conducted by Oak Ridge National Laboratory in 1989 and 1990. From October through December 1993, Oak Ridge National Laboratory and Bechtel National Inc. performed additional radiological surveys of the interior of the concrete building to thoroughly characterize the building before remediation efforts began. Most of the contamination was in the soil beneath the concrete slab, and isolated areas of surface contamination were detected on a portion of the concrete floors. Based on these characterization data, DOE conducted remedial action at the C.H. Schnoor site from August to October 1994.

Post-remedial action surveys have demonstrated and DOE has certified that radiological conditions at the subject property comply with DOE radiological decontamination criteria and standards. The standards are established to protect members of the public and occupants of the property and to ensure that future use of the property will result in no radiological exposure above applicable guidelines. Accordingly, this property is released from FUSRAP.

The certification docket will be available for review between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday (except Federal holidays) in the DOE Public Reading Room, located in Room 1E-190 of the Forrestal Building, 1000 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20585. Copies of the certification docket will also be available in the DOE Public Document Room, U.S. Department of Energy, Oak Ridge Operations Office, Oak Ridge, Tennessee 37831 and at the Springdale Free Public Library, 331 School Street, Springdale, Pennsylvania 15144.

The Department, through the Oak Ridge Operations Office, Former Sites Restoration Division, has issued the following statement:

Statement of Certification: C.H. Schnoor Site in Springdale, Pennsylvania

DOE, Oak Ridge Operations Office, Former Sites Restoration Division, has reviewed and analyzed the radiological data obtained following remedial action at the C.H. Schnoor Site, 644 Garfield Street [Parcel 733-A-182, filed in Deed/Plat Book (Colfax Plan 117), Page 281 in the records of Allegheny County, Pennsylvania]. Based on analysis of all data collected, including post-remedial action surveys, DOE certifies that any residual contamination which remains onsite falls within current guidelines for use without radiological restrictions. This certification of compliance provides assurance that reasonably foreseeable future use of the property will result in no radiological exposure above current radiological guidelines established to protect members of the general public as well as occupants of the site.

Property owned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pucciarelli, 644 Garfield Street, Springdale, Pennsylvania 15144.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on September 4, 1996.
