Notice is hereby given that, on September 4, 1996, pursuant to Section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. ("the Act"), the Ohio Aerospace Institute Computer Assisted Minimally Invasive Surgery Project ("CAMIS") has filed written notification simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing (1) the identities of the parties and (2) the nature and objectives of the venture. The notifications were filed for the purpose of invoking the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, the identities of the parties are Ohio Aerospace Institute, Brook Park, OH; Cleveland Clinic Foundation, Cleveland, OH; Picker International, Highland Heights, OH; Wright State University, Dayton, OH; and Washington University, St. Louis, MO. The project's general area of planned activity is a non-profit joint venture dedicated to research and developing "vision technologies" that can aid doctors in various surgical procedures. CAMIS will provide for the enhancement of existing CAMIS prototype systems with aerospace avionics technologies, and its clinical trials will concentrate on the early treatment of several forms of cancer (brain tumors, prostate and breast) to demonstrate the significant improvements to patient care and cost that this technology provides.

Membership in this project remains open, and CAMIS intends to file additional written notification disclosing all changes in membership. Information regarding participation in CAMIS may be obtained from Eileen Pickett, Ohio Aerospace Institute, Cleveland, OH.
