Compliance Assurance Monitoring

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notification Not to Extend Comment Period.

SUMMARY: On August 13, 1996, EPA published a notice of availability of a draft regulatory package on the Compliance Assurance Monitoring (CAM) rulemaking. In that notice, EPA stated that it would make required impact analyses available for review and comment no later than August 30, 1996. 61 FR 41991. On September 3, 1996, EPA published a correction notice stating that no required impact analyses would be made public until the CAM rule is promulgated. 61 FR 46418.

EPA has reconsidered the release of regulatory impact analyses and decided to make public for comment the required analyses under the Regulatory Flexibility Act concerning the potential impact on small entities. That analyses should be available by early November 1996 and EPA will at that time make it available and announce through a Federal Register notice a 30-day comment period. During that comment period EPA will accept comments only on the impact of the draft CAM approach on small entities.

The general public comment period on the latest draft of the CAM approach will close on October 15, 1996 as originally specified in the August 13, 1996 notice.

Petition by Guam for Exemption From Anti-Dumping and Detergent Additization Requirements for Conventional Gasoline

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency.

ACTION: Proposed notice of decision.

SUMMARY: The Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA" or "the Agency") is proposing to grant a petition by the Territory of Guam for exemption from the anti-dumping requirements for gasoline sold in the United States after January 1, 1995. This action is proposed because of Guam's unique geographic location and economic factors. EPA is not granting Guam's petition for exemption from the fuel detergent additization requirements that all gasoline sold in the United States after January 1, 1995 contain fuel detergents. If the gasoline anti-dumping exemption were not granted, Guam would be required to import gasoline from a supplier meeting the anti-dumping requirements adding a considerable expense to gasoline purchased by the Guam consumer. Guam is in full attainment with the national ambient air quality standard for ozone. This proposed action is not expected to cause harmful environmental effects to the citizens of Guam.

DATES: Comments on this proposed final decision must be received in writing by November 15, 1996.

ADDRESSES: Materials relevant to this petition are available for inspection in public docket A-95-19 at the Air Docket Office of the EPA, room M-1500, 401 M Street, SW., Washington, DC 20460, (202) 260-7548, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. A duplicate public docket, A-GU-95, has been established at U.S. EPA Region IX, 75 Hawthorne Street (Mail Code: A-2-1), 17th Floor, San Francisco, CA 94105, (415) 744-1225, and is available between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to noon, and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. As provided in 40 CFR part 2, a reasonable fee may be charged for copying services.

Comments should be submitted (in duplicate if possible) to the two dockets listed above, with a copy forwarded to Marilyn Winstead McCall, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Fuels and Energy Division, 401 M Street, SW. (Mail Code: 6406J), Washington, DC 20460.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Marilyn Winstead McCall at (202) 233-9029.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: For more detailed information on this proposal, please see EPA's Notice of Direct Final Decision published in the Final Rules section of this Federal Register which approves Guam's petition for exemption from the gasoline anti-dumping regulations, but does not approve Guam's petition for exemption from the fuel detergent additization regulations. The Agency views this final decision as a noncontroversial action for the reasons discussed in the Notice of Direct Final Decision published in today's Federal Register, and because it believes the effects of this decision are limited to the Territory of Guam. If no adverse or critical comments are received in response to this proposed decision, no further action is contemplated in relation to this decision. If EPA receives adverse or critical comments, EPA will withdraw the Notice of Direct Final Decision by publishing an appropriate notice in the Federal Register, and all public comments received will be addressed in a subsequent notice. The EPA will not institute a second comment period on this document. Any parties interested in commenting on this action should do so at this time.

Dated: October 8, 1996.

Administrator.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

- I. Public Comment Procedures
- II. Background
- III. Discussion of Proposed Rule
- IV. Procedural Matters

I. Public Comment Procedures

Written comments on the proposed rule should be specific, should be confined to issues pertinent to the proposed rule, and should explain the reason for any recommended change. Where possible, comments should reference the specific section or paragraph of the proposal which the commented is addressing.

BLM may not necessarily consider or include in the Administrative Record for the final rule, comments which BLM receives after the close of the comment period (see DATES) or comments delivered to an address other than those listed above (see ADDRESSES).

II. Background:

The Secretary is authorized by section 310 of the Federal Land Policy and Management Act (FLPMA), (43 U.S.C. 1740) to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of FLPMA and other laws applicable to the public lands.

Section 4 of the Indian General Allotment Act of February 8, 1887 (25 U.S.C. 334 and 336), (Act) as amended, provides that if you are an Indian eligible for an allotment, you may apply for an allotment to the BLM office having jurisdiction over the lands covered by your application. The Act provides for the following allotment types and maximum allowable acreage:

- Irrigable land-not more than 40 acres,
- Nonirrigable agricultural land-not more than 80 acres, and
- Nonirrigable grazing land-not more than 160 acres.

Your eligibility depends upon your being able to furnish documentation from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) that show you are an Indian who meets the requirements for filing under this Act. If you are eligible, your minor children are also qualified to file for an allotment under the Act.

III. Discussion of Proposed Rule

This proposed rule, which would revise 43 CFR Part 2530—Indian Allotments, identifies the qualification requirements as well as the steps a person must take to file an application for an Indian allotment on BLM administered public lands and public lands on national forests and the requirements for a trust patent. This revision is needed because the existing regulations have become outdated since being modified in 1972. Specifically, National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA) requirements as well as applicable FLPMA requirements and provisions of laws relating to hazardous substances need to be added. FLPMA requirements include meeting planning requirements and meeting the 2-year notification to grazing permittees and lessees. The revision will make the regulations easier to read and understand, thereby making it easier for the affected public to determine the applicability of the regulations. This revision is part of BLM's efforts to simplify and clarify its existing regulations.

BLM is considering requiring a $100 filing fee for requesting an Indian allotment, as authorized by the Act. A fee has not implemented since the enactment of these regulations in the early part of this century. This fee, if authorized would require the applicant to pay a portion of the costs of processing an allotment application and is more consistent with today's costs of doing business.

The proposed revision sets forth application procedures for applying for Indian allotments on the public lands. Public lands, as defined in this rulemaking, would include any lands administered by BLM, or lands within a national forest that are part of the original public domain and are otherwise not available for application under this Act. This definition is being added to clarify the type of lands that
