

(Pub. L. 104-13, 44 U.S.C. Chapter 35). OMB approval has been requested by November 8, 1996. A copy of this ICR, with applicable supporting documentation, may be obtained by calling the Department of Labor Acting Departmental Clearance Officer, Theresa M. O'Malley ((202) 219-5095).

Comments and questions about the ICR listed below should be forwarded to Office Information and Regulatory Affairs, Attn: OMB Desk Officer for the U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration, Office of Management and Budget, Room 10235, Washington, DC 20503 ((202) 395-7316).

The Office of Management and Budget is particularly interested in comments which:

- * Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

- * Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

- * Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

- * Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submissions of response.

Agency: Employment and Training Administration, Labor.

Title: Reporting requirements pursuant to Baker v. Reich.

OMB Number: Not available.

Frequency: A one-time interim report and a quarterly report for six quarters.

Affected Public: State or local government.

Number of Respondents: 40.

Estimated Time Per Respondent: One-time report=1 hour; quarterly report=2 minutes per NAFTA-TAA petition.

Total Burden Hours: 208.

Total Burden Cost (Capital/Startup): None.

Total Burden Cost (Operating/Maintaining): None.

Description: This emergency clearance is needed in order to comply with a Federal Court Order issued on September 9, 1996, regarding individual eligibility determinations for Trade Readjustment Allowance (TRA) benefits under the North American Free Trade Agreement—Transitional Adjustment

Assistance (NAFTA-TAA) program. The data to be collected comply with the United States District Court for the District of Columbia's preliminary approval of, pending a final hearing, a settlement of Baker v. Reich between the Department of Labor and the United Auto Workers Union (UAW).

The Court Order requires the Department to report to the UAW on the States' implementation of the settlement. To comply with the Order, States must provide to the Department by January 3, 1997, either by phone, E-mail, or in writing, a one-time, interim summary by NAFTA-TAA petition number, of the number of workers notified of the proposed settlement and the number of workers who have contacted the State agency for eligibility determinations.

The Court Order also requires that beginning with the quarterly reporting period ending December 31, 1996, the States will provide the Department with quarterly written reports by petition number on: the number of people requesting determination of entitlement; the number of people determined entitled to benefits; and the number of people receiving TRA first payments under this settlement. The States are required to continue to report the data on a quarterly basis for five more quarters.

Theresa M. O'Malley,

Acting Departmental Clearance Officer.
