Pads for Woodwind Instrument Keys from Italy, Revocation of the Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of revocation of antidumping duty order.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is notifying the public of its revocation of the antidumping duty order on pads for woodwind instrument keys from Italy because it is no longer of any interest to domestic interested parties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: November 4, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Lyn Johnson or Michael Panfeld, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street & Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20230, telephone (202) 482-5287.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Department may revoke an antidumping duty order if the Secretary concludes that the duty order is no longer of any interest to domestic interested parties. We conclude that there is no interest in an antidumping duty order when no interested party has requested an administrative review for five consecutive review periods and when no domestic interested party objects to revocation (19 CFR § 353.25(d)(4)(iii)).

On September 3, 1996, the Department published in the Federal Register (61 FR 46437) its notice of intent to revoke the antidumping duty order on pads for woodwind instrument keys from Italy (September 21, 1984). Additionally, as required by 19 CFR § 353.25(d)(4)(ii), the Department served written notice of its intent to revoke this antidumping duty order on each domestic interested party on the service list. Domestic interested parties who might object to the revocation were provided the opportunity to submit their comments not later than the last day of the anniversary month.

In this case, we received no requests for review for five consecutive review periods. Furthermore, no domestic interested party, as defined under § 353.2 (k)(3), (k)(4), (k)(5), or (k)(6) of the Department's regulations, has expressed opposition to revocation. Based on these facts, we have concluded that the antidumping duty order on pads for woodwind instrument keys from Italy is no longer of any interest to interested parties. Accordingly, we are revoking this antidumping duty order in accordance with 19 CFR § 353.25(d)(4)(iii).

Scope of the Order

Imports covered by the revocation are shipments of pads for woodwind instrument keys from Italy. This merchandise is currently classifiable under Harmonized Tariff Schedules

(HTS) item number 9209.99.40. The HTS number is provided for convenience and customs purposes. The written description remains dispositive.

This revocation applies to all unliquidated entries of pads for woodwind instrument keys from Italy entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after September 1, 1996. Entries made during the period September 1, 1995, through August 31, 1996, will be subject to automatic assessment in accordance with 19 CFR § 353.22(e). The Department will instruct the Customs Service to proceed with liquidation of all unliquidated entries of this merchandise entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after September 1, 1996, without regard to antidumping duties, and to refund any estimated antidumping duties collected with respect to those entries. This notice is in accordance with 19 CFR § 353.25(d).

Dated: October 23, 1996.

Deputy Assistant Secretary for AD/CVD Enforcement.

Amendments to the Agreement Suspending the Antidumping Investigation on Uranium From the Russian Federation

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of amendments to the agreement suspending the antidumping investigation on uranium from the Russian Federation.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) and the Ministry of Atomic Energy of the Russian Federation (MINATOM) have signed two amendments to the Agreement Suspending the Antidumping Investigation on Uranium from the Russian Federation, as amended (the Suspension Agreement). One amendment provides for the sale in the United States of feed associated with imports of low-enriched uranium (LEU) derived from high-enriched uranium (HEU) which makes the Suspension Agreement consistent with the USEC Privatization Act. The second amendment restores previously unused quota for separative work units, and covers Russian uranium which has been enriched in a third country within the terms of the Suspension Agreement, for a period of two years from the effective date of the amendments.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 3, 1996.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: James Doyle, Sally C. Gannon, or Karla Whalen, Office of Antidumping Countervailing Duty Enforcement, Group 3, Office 7, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482-0172, (202) 482-1391, or (202) 482-0408, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On October 16, 1992, the Department and the GRF signed the Suspension Agreement on uranium and, on October 30, 1992, the Agreement was published in the Federal Register (57 FR 49220, 49235). On March 11, 1994, the Department and the GRF signed an amendment to the Suspension Agreement on uranium and, on April 1, 1994, this amendment was published in the Federal Register (59 FR 15373). This amendment provided for entry of Russian uranium into the United States based on a concept of matched sales between the United States and Russian producers. Although this amendment has operated to the benefit of all parties concerned, substantial qualities of uranium products not subject to the Suspension Agreement which were produced from Russian ore began to undermine the Suspension Agreement. Thus, pursuant to Section X.B. of the Suspension Agreement, the Department and the GRF entered into consultations. A proposed amendment providing for coverage of Russian ore which has been enriched in a third country was initialled on August 16, 1996. In addition, on August 16, 1996, the Department and the GRF initialled an amendment in order to allow HEU feed¹ to be used in matched sales.² The Department subsequently released the proposed amendments to interested parties for comment. After careful consideration by the Department of the comments submitted and further consultations between the two parties, the Department and the GRF signed the final amendments on October 3, 1996.

¹ HEU feed refers to the natural uranium feed associated with the LEU (derived from HEU), which is imported pursuant to the Agreement Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Russian Federation Concerning the Disposition of Highly Enriched Uranium Extracted from Nuclear Weapons (The HEU Agreement), signed February 18, 1993.

² A third amendment dealing with the re-export provision was initialled on August 16, 1996 as well, but this amendment has not yet been finalized.
