Pacific Power Marketing, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

February 23, 1996.

On May 25, 1995, Pacific Power Marketing, Inc. (Pacific Marketing) filed an application for authorization to sell power at market-based rates, and for certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, Pacific Marketing requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by Pacific Marketing. On February 14, 1996, the Commission issued an Order Modifying Earlier Order, Conditionally Accepting For Filing Market-Based Rates, And Granting And Denying Requests for Waivers and Authorizations (Order), in the above-docketed proceeding.

The Commission's February 14, 1996 Order granted the request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (G), (H), and (J):

(G) Within 30 days of the date of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by Pacific Marketing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214 (1995).

(H) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (G) above, Pacific Marketing is hereby authorized to issue securities and to assume obligations or liabilities as guarantor, endorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issues or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(J) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of Pacific Marketing's issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities.

Seagull Power Services, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

February 23, 1996.

On November 13, 1995, as amended January 5, 1996, Seagull Power Services, Inc. (Seagull) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which Seagull will engage in wholesale electric power and energy transactions as a marketer. Seagull also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, Seagull requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR Part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by Seagull.

On February 15, 1996, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Division of Applications, Office of Electric Power Regulation, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Within thirty days of the date of the order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by Seagull should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request for hearing within this period, Seagull is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, endorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of the applicant, and compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of Seagull's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is March 18, 1996.

Copies of the full text of the order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.
