EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMISSION

29 CFR Part 1603

RIN 3046-AA45

Procedures for Previously Exempt State and Local Government Employee Complaints of Employment Discrimination Under the Government Employee Rights Act of 1991

AGENCY: Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. ACTION: Interim rule.

SUMMARY: Title III of the Civil Rights Act of 1991, entitled the Government Employee Rights Act of 1991, extends the protections against employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age and disability to previously exempt state and local government employees. This interim rule establishes EEOC procedures for resolving employment discrimination complaints filed by those individuals.

DATES: This rule will become effective on April 10, 1997. Written comments on the interim rule must be received on or before June 9, 1997.

ADDRESSES: Comments should be submitted to the Office of the Executive Secretariat, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 1801 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20507. Copies of comments submitted by the public will be available for review at the Commission's library, room 6502, 1801 L Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Nicholas M. Inzeo, Deputy Legal Counsel, Thomas J. Schlageter, Assistant Legal Counsel or Stephanie D. Garner, Senior Attorney, at (202) 663–4669 or TDD (202) 663–7026. This notice is also available in the following formats: Large print, braille, audio tape and electronic file on computer disk. Requests for this notice in an alternative format should be made to the Publications Center at 1–800–669–3362.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Title III of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 contains the Government Employee Rights Act of 1991. 2 U.S.C. 1201 et seq. Section 321 of the Government Employee Rights Act of 1991 (the Act) provides new equal employment opportunity protections for previously exempt state and local government employees. The Act designates the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission as the enforcement agency for previously exempt state and local government employees covered by section 321. 2 U.S.C. 1220.

Section 321 of the Act provides for an administrative enforcement mechanism that is different from EEOC's normal charge resolution procedures contained in 29 C.F.R. Part 1601. Under section 321, a covered individual who believes he or she was discriminated against has 180 days to file a complaint. Thereafter, the Act provides that the matter be processed in accordance with the formal adjudication principles and procedures set forth in sections 554 through 557 of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 554-557. Section 321 provides for judicial review of a Commission final order under chapter 158 of title 28 of the United States Code.

This interim rule sets out the Commission's procedures for handling complaints brought by individuals covered by section 321 of the Act. The filing procedures for complaints follow established Commission procedures for charges published at 29 CFR Part 1601. Previously exempt state and local government employees may file a complaint with the Commission at its offices in Washington, D.C. or any of its field offices. The Commission will review each complaint for jurisdiction under section 321 and dismiss those complaints that fail to state a claim. EEOC may refer a complaint from a previously exempt state or local government employee to a neutral mediator or to any other alternative dispute resolution process. EEOC may investigate a 321 complaint using a variety of fact-finding methods. In an investigation, EEOC can issue subpoenas for the production of evidence or witnesses. EEOC's existing subpoena procedures, found at 29 CFR 1601.16, will apply to subpoenas issued under this part. The investigative procedures of this rule are modeled after those in Part 1601 of this Chapter. It is the Commission's intention to apply these procedures consistently with its application of the Part 1601 procedures.

If the complaint is not dismissed or resolved during mediation or investigation, the Commission will send the complaint to an administrative law judge for formal adjudication in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. Discovery under this part will be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the administrative law judge will accept evidence in accordance with the Federal Rules of Evidence, except that the rules on hearsay will not be strictly applied. The administrative law judge will issue a decision within 270 days after referral of a complaint for hearing.

Within 30 days of issuance, any party may appeal the dismissal of a complaint, a matter certified for interlocutory review, an administrative law judge's denial of a motion for withdrawal or a decision of an administrative law judge to the Commission. After the parties have briefed the issues, the Commission will issue a final order. In the absence of a timely appeal, the final decision of the administrative law judge will become the final order of the Commission. Previously exempt state and local government employees may seek judicial review of an EEOC final order within 60 days after its issuance in the judicial circuit in which the petitioner resides, or has its principle office, or in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

The Commission is publishing part 1603 as an interim rule to provide for immediate processing of complaints already filed under section 321 of the Act. The Commission will consider all comments received on part 1603 and, if necessary, will publish a revised final rule.

Executive Order 12866

In promulgating the interim rule implementing section 321 of the Act, the Commission has adhered to the regulatory philosophy and the applicable principles of regulation set forth in section 1 of Executive Order 12866, Regulatory Planning and Review. In addition, it has been determined that this regulation is not a significant regulatory action within the meaning of section 3(f).

Regulatory Flexibility Act

As Chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, I certify under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. chapter 6) that this interim rule will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities because it establishes procedures for complaints of discrimination by formerly exempt state and local government employees.

Paperwork Reduction Act

The Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35) does not apply to this interim rule because it does not contain information collection requirements that require the approval of the Office of Management and Budget.

Such amendments, and amendments alleging additional acts that constitute discriminatory employment practices related to or growing out of the subject matter of the original complaint, will relate back to the date the complaint was first received. If the administrative law judge concludes that the motion is timely and has merit, the administrative law judge shall immediately withdraw from the adjudication. If the administrative law judge does not withdraw, the adjudication shall proceed.

§ 1603.204 Ex parte communications.

- (a) Oral or written communications concerning the merits of an adjudication between the administrative law judge or decision-making personnel of the Commission and an interested party to the adjudication without providing the other party a chance to participate are prohibited from the time the matter is assigned to an administrative law judge until the Commission has rendered a final decision. Communications concerning the status of the case, the date of a hearing, the method of transmitting evidence to the Commission and other purely procedural questions are permitted.

§ 1603.205 Separation of functions.

(a) The administrative law judge may not be responsible to or subject to the supervision or direction of a Commission employee engaged in investigating complaints under this part.

(b) No Commission employee engaged in investigating complaints under this part shall participate or advise in the decision of the administrative law judge, except as a witness or counsel in the adjudication, or its appellate review.

§ 1603.206 Consolidation and severance of hearings.

- (a) The administrative law judge may, upon motion by a party or upon his or her own motion, after providing reasonable notice and opportunity to object to all parties affected, consolidate any or all matters at issue in two or more adjudications docketed under this part where common parties, or factual or legal questions exist; where such consolidation would expedite or simplify consideration of the issues; or where the interests of justice would be served. After providing an opportunity for response, the administrative law judge may rule on an oral motion immediately or may require that it be submitted in writing.

(b) Unless otherwise directed by the administrative law judge, any other party may file a response in support of or in opposition to any written motion within ten (10) business days after service of the motion. If no response is filed within the response period, the party failing to respond shall be deemed to have waived any objection to the granting of the motion. The moving party shall have no right to reply to a response, unless the administrative law judge, in his or her discretion, orders that a reply be filed.

(c) Except for procedural matters, the administrative law judge may not grant a written motion prior to the expiration of the time for filing responses. The administrative law judge may deny a written motion without awaiting a response. The administrative law judge may allow oral argument (including that made by telephone) on written motions. Discovery shall be completed as expeditiously as possible within such time as the administrative law judge directs.

(b) Unless otherwise ordered by the administrative law judge, parties may obtain discovery by written interrogatories (not to exceed 20 interrogatories including subparts), depositions upon oral examination or written questions, requests for production of documents or things for inspection or other purposes, requests for admission or any other method found reasonable and appropriate by the administrative law judge.

(c) Except as otherwise specified, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern discovery in proceedings under

(d) Neutral mediators who have participated in the alternative dispute resolution process in accordance with § 1603.108 shall not be called as witnesses or be subject to discovery in any adjudication under this part.

§1603.211 Subpoenas.

- (a) Upon written application of any party, the administrative law judge may on behalf of the Commission issue a subpoena requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of any evidence, including, but not limited to, books, records, correspondence, or documents, in their possession or under their control. The subpoena shall state the name and address of the party at whose request the subpoena was issued, identify the person and evidence subpoenaed, and the date and time the subpoena is returnable.
- (b) Any person served with a subpoena who intends not to comply shall, within 5 days after service of the subpoena, petition the administrative law judge in writing to revoke or modify the subpoena. All petitions to revoke or modify shall be served upon the party at whose request the subpoena was issued. The requestor may file with the administrative law judge a response to the petition to revoke or modify within 5 days after service of the petition.

(c) Upon the failure of any person to comply with a subpoena issued under this section, the administrative law judge may refer the matter to the Commission for enforcement in accordance with 29 CFR 1601.16(c).

§ 1603.212 Witness fees.

Witnesses summoned under this part shall receive the same fees and mileage as witnesses in the courts of the United States. Those fees must be paid or offered to the witness by the party requesting the subpoena at the time the subpoena is served, or, if the witness appears voluntarily, at the time of appearance. A federal agency or corporation is not required to pay or offer witness fees and mileage allowances in advance.

§ 1603.213 Interlocutory review.

- (a) Interlocutory review may not be sought except when the administrative law judge determines upon motion of a party or upon his or her own motion that:
- (1) The ruling involves a controlling question of law or policy about which there is substantial ground for difference of opinion;
- (2) An immediate ruling will materially advance the completion of the proceeding; or
- (3) The denial of an immediate ruling will cause irreparable harm to the party or the public.
- (b) Application for interlocutory review shall be filed within ten (10) days after notice of the administrative law judge's ruling. Any application for review shall:
- (1) Designate the ruling or part thereof from which appeal is being taken; and
- (2) Contain arguments or evidence that tend to establish one or more of the grounds for interlocutory review contained in paragraph (a) of this section.
- (c) Any party opposing the application for interlocutory review shall file a response to the application within 10 days after service of the application. The applicant shall have no right to reply to a response unless the administrative law judge, within his or her discretion, orders that a reply be filed.
- (d) The administrative law judge shall promptly certify in writing any ruling that qualifies for interlocutory review under paragraph (a) of this section.
- (e) The filing of an application for interlocutory review and the grant of an application shall not stay proceedings before the administrative law judge unless the administrative law judge or the Commission so orders. The Commission shall not consider a motion for a stay unless the motion was first made to the administrative law judge.

§ 1603.214 Evidence.

The administrative law judge shall accept relevant non-privileged evidence in accordance with the Federal Rules of Evidence (28 U.S.C. appendix), except the rules on hearsay will not be strictly applied.

§1603.215 Record of hearings.

- (a) All hearings shall be mechanically or stenographically reported. All evidence relied upon by the administrative law judge for decision shall be contained in the transcript of testimony, either directly or by appropriate reference. All exhibits introduced as evidence shall be marked for identification, with a copy provided for all parties, if not previously provided, and incorporated into the record. Transcripts may be obtained by the parties and the public from the official reporter at rates fixed by the contract with the reporter.
- (b) Corrections to the official transcript will be permitted upon motion, only when errors of substance are involved and upon approval of the administrative law judge. Motions for correction must be submitted within ten (10) days of the receipt of the transcript unless additional time is permitted by the administrative law judge.

§ 1603.216 Summary decision.

Upon motion of a party or after notice to the parties, the administrative law judge may issue a summary decision without a hearing if the administrative law judge finds that there is no genuine issue of material fact or that the complaint may be dismissed pursuant to § 1603.107 or any other grounds authorized by this part. A summary decision shall otherwise conform to the requirements of § 1603.217.

§ 1603.217 Decision of the administrative law judge.

- (a) The administrative law judge shall issue a decision on the merits of the complaint within 270 days after referral of a complaint for hearing, unless the administrative law judge makes a written determination that good cause exists for extending the time for issuing a decision. The decision shall contain findings of fact and conclusions of law, shall order appropriate relief where discrimination is found, and shall provide notice of appeal rights consistent with subpart C of this part.
- (b) The administrative law judge shall serve the decision promptly on all parties to the proceeding and their counsel. Thereafter, the administrative law judge shall transmit the case file to the Office of Federal Operations including the decision and the record. The record shall include the complaint; the investigative file, if any; referral notice; motions; briefs; rulings; orders; official transcript of the hearing; all discovery and any other documents submitted by the parties.

Subpart C—Appeals

§ 1603.301 Appeal to the Commission.

Any party may appeal to the Commission the dismissal of a complaint under § 1603.107, any matter certified for interlocutory review under § 1613.213, or the administrative law judge's decision under § 1603.216 or § 1603.217.

§ 1603.302 Filing an appeal.

- (a) An appeal shall be filed within 30 days after the date of the appealable decision or certification for interlocutory review, unless the Commission, upon a showing of good cause, extends the time for filing an appeal for a period not to exceed an additional 30 days.
- (b) An appeal shall be filed with the Director, Office of Federal Operations, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, P.O. Box 19848, Washington, D.C. 20036, by mail or personal delivery or facsimile.

§ 1603.303 Briefs on appeal.

- (a) The appellant shall file a brief or other written statement within 30 days after the appeal is filed, unless the Commission otherwise directs.
- (b) All other parties may file briefs or other written statements within 30 days of service of the appellant's brief or statement.
- (c) Every brief or statement shall contain a statement of facts and a section setting forth the party's legal arguments. Any brief or statement in support of the appeal shall contain arguments or evidence that tend to establish that the dismissal, order or decision:
- (1) Is not supported by substantial evidence;
- (2) Contains an erroneous interpretation of law, regulation or material fact, or misapplication of established policy;
- (3) Contains a prejudicial error of procedure; or
- (4) Involves a substantial question of law or policy.
- (d) Appellate briefs shall not exceed 50 pages in length.
- (e) Filing and service of the appeal and appellate briefs shall be made in accordance with § 1603.209.

§ 1603.304 Commission decision.

(a) On behalf of the Commission, the Office of Federal Operations shall review the record and the appellate briefs submitted by all the parties. The Office of Federal Operations shall prepare a recommended decision for consideration by the Commission.

(b) When an administrative law judge certifies a matter for interlocutory review under § 1603.213, the Commission may, in its discretion, issue a decision on the matter or send the matter back to the administrative law judge without decision.

(c) The Commission will not accept or consider new evidence on appeal unless the Commission, in its discretion, reopens the record on appeal.

(d) The decision of the Commission on appeal shall be its final order and shall be served on all parties.

(e) In the absence of a timely appeal under § 1603.302, the decision of the administrative law judge under § 1603.217 or a dismissal under § 1603.107 shall become the final order of the Commission. A final order under this paragraph shall not have precedential significance.

§ 1603.305 Modification or withdrawal of Commission decision.

At any time, the Commission may modify or withdraw a decision for any reason provided that no petition for review in a United States Court of Appeals has been filed.

§ 1603.306 Judicial review.

Any party to a complaint who is aggrieved by a final decision under § 1603.304 may obtain a review of such final decision under chapter 158 of title 28 of the United States Code by filing a petition for review with a United States Court of Appeals within 60 days after issuance of the final decision. Such petition for review should be filed in the judicial circuit in which the petitioner resides, or has its principal office, or in the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

Background

As part of the October 21, 1994 United States–Democratic People's Republic of Korea Agreed Framework, the United States undertook to ease economic sanctions against North Korea. As a measure consistent with this foreign policy, the Treasury Department is amending the Foreign Assets Control Regulations, 31 CFR part 500 (the "Regulations"), by adding § 500.585 to authorize, by general license, the payment of fees with respect to the provision of services by North Korea in connection with the overflight of North Korea or emergency landings in North Korea by aircraft owned or controlled by a person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States or registered in the United States.

Because the Regulations involve a foreign affairs function, Executive Order 12866 and the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 553, requiring notice of proposed rulemaking, opportunity for public participation, and delay in effective date are inapplicable. Because no notice of proposed rulemaking is required for this rule, the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601–612, does not apply.
