SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[Investment Company Act Release No. 22733; 812-10654]

Qualivest Funds, et al.; Notice of Application

July 2, 1997.

AGENCY: Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC").

ACTION: Notice of application for exemption under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the "Act").

APPLICANTS: Qualivest Funds on behalf of each of its investment portfolios (each portfolio, a "Fund"), Qualivest Capital Management, Inc. ("Adviser"), and First Bank National Association ("New Adviser").

RELEVANT ACT SECTIONS: Order requested under section 6(c) granting an exemption from section 15(a).

SUMMARY OF APPLICATION: Adviser's parent, U.S. Bancorp, will merge with and into New Adviser's parent, First Bank System, Inc. ("FBS"), which will result in the assignment, and thus the termination, of the Funds' existing advisory agreements with Adviser. Applicants request an order to permit the implementation, without shareholder approval, of interim advisory agreements between the Funds and New Adviser ("Interim Advisory Agreements") for a period commencing on the date the merger is consummated (but in no event later than September 30, 1997) and continuing for a period of up to the earlier of 120 days or the date the Interim Advisory Agreements are approved or disapproved by shareholders of the Funds ("Interim Period"). The order also would permit New Adviser to receive, following shareholder approval of the related Interim Advisory Agreement, all fees earned during the Interim Period.

FILING DATES: The application was filed on May 12, 1997 and amended on June 12, 1997.

HEARING OR NOTIFICATION OF HEARING: An order granting the application will be issued unless the SEC orders a hearing. Interested persons may request a hearing by writing to the SEC's Secretary and serving applicants with a copy of the request, personally or by mail. Hearing requests should be received by the SEC by 5:30 p.m. on July 28, 1997 and should be accompanied by proof of service on applicants, in the form of an affidavit, or, for lawyers, a certificate of service. Hearing requests should state the nature of the writer's interest, the reason for the request, and the issues contested. Persons may request notification of a hearing by writing to the SEC's Secretary.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The following is a summary of the application. The complete application may be obtained for a fee from the SEC's Public Reference Branch.

Applicant's Representations

1. Qualivest Funds, a business trust organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, is registered as an open-end management investment company under the Act. It is organized as a series investment company and currently offers 15 separate Funds, of which 13 are currently offered for sale to the public. Adviser, a registered investment adviser under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, currently serves as investment adviser to the Funds. Adviser is a wholly-owned subsidiary of United States National Bank of Oregon, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of U.S. Bancorp. New Adviser serves as the investment adviser and manager of the First American Family of Funds through its First Asset Management Group. New Adviser is a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of FBS.

2. On March 20, 1997, FBS and U.S. Bancorp jointly announced the signing of a definitive agreement for FBS to acquire U.S. Bancorp (the "Merger"). Under the merger agreement, U.S. Bancorp shareholders will receive 0.755 shares of FBS common stock for each share of U.S. Bancorp common stock. FBS will be the surviving corporation and will use the name U.S. Bancorp. Applicants expect the Merger to be consummated sometime before September 30, 1997, subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including receipt of certain regulatory approvals.

3. At a meeting on May 8, 1997, the board of trustees of Qualivest Funds ("Board") voted in the manner prescribed by section 15(c) of the Act to approve Interim Advisory Agreements and to recommend that shareholders of each Fund approve the related Interim Advisory Agreement during the 120-day period commencing on the earlier of the consummation of the Merger ("Effective Date") or September 30, 1997. The Board determined to retain New Adviser rather than the current Adviser after considering the capabilities of New Adviser and determining that it was indeed well-qualified to manage each of the Funds, and the exigent circumstances with which the Board was faced. Applicants expect that at least six of the eleven Fund portfolio managers now employed by Adviser will leave the employ of the Adviser by or shortly after the Effective Date. As a result of these departures, at least four Funds will lose both their portfolio co-managers; at least another three Funds will lose one of their two portfolio co-managers; and the committee which manages another four Funds will lose more than half its members. In light of these facts, the Board determined that doubt exists whether the remaining personnel of Adviser, acting alone, would be able to provide an appropriate scope and quality of advisory services to the Funds during the Interim Period.

4. In order to provide continuity of Fund management and to avoid harm to the Funds, applicants propose that the remaining Fund portfolio managers now employed by the Adviser become employees of the New Adviser on the Effective Date of the parent company Merger. These individuals, together with the investment professionals already employed by the New Adviser, then would assume management of the Funds on the Effective Date pursuant to a new advisory agreement between the New Adviser and the Funds.

5. All investment advisory fees paid by the Funds to New Adviser during the Interim Period will be paid to an escrow agent (which will be an unaffiliated third party institution), and, with respect to each Fund, none of such fees held in escrow will be paid to New Adviser until the related shareholder approval has been obtained. If shareholders of any Fund fail to approve the Interim Advisory Agreement, the escrow agent will pay to the Fund the applicable escrow amounts (including interest earned). The escrow agent will release the escrow funds only upon receipt of a certificate from the officers of Qualivest Funds stating, if the escrow funds are to be delivered to New Adviser, that the Interim Advisory Agreement has received the requisite shareholder vote, or, if the escrow funds are to be delivered to any Fund, that the Interim Period has ended and the Interim Advisory Agreement has not received the requisite shareholder vote. Before any such certificate is sent, the members of the Board that are not interested persons as defined in section 2(a)(19) of the Act ("Independent Trustees") of Qualivest Funds will be notified.

6. Applicants request relief from section 15(a) to permit the Funds to implement Interim Advisory Agreements during the Interim Period. In the event the Effective Date is later than September 30, 1997, the Interim Period will commence on September 30, 1997. Each Interim Advisory Agreement will contain the same terms and conditions as the existing advisory agreement between the related Fund and Adviser (each, an "Existing Advisory Agreement"), except for the effective and termination dates, escrow provisions, and the substitution of New Adviser in place of Adviser. Applicants also request an exemption to permit New Adviser to receive from each Fund, subject to shareholder approval of the related Interim Advisory Agreement and to the escrow arrangement described in the application, any and all fees earned during the Interim Period under such Interim Advisory Agreement. The fees to be paid during the Interim Period will be unchanged from the fees to be paid under the respective Existing Advisory Agreements.

Applicants' Legal Analysis

1. Section 15(a) of the Act provides that it shall be unlawful for any person to serve as an investment adviser of a registered investment company except pursuant to a written contract that has been approved by the vote of a majority of the outstanding voting securities of such company. Section 15(a) further requires that such written contract provide for automatic termination in the event of its assignment. Section 2(a)(4) of the Act defines "assignment" to include any direct or indirect transfer of a contract by the assignor. Applicants state that, on the Effective Date, Adviser will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the surviving corporation. Applicants therefore believe that the Merger will result in the "assignment" of the Existing Advisory Agreements.

2. Rule 15a-4 under the Act provides that, if an investment advisory contract with an investment company is terminated by assignment, an investment adviser may act as such for the company during the 120 day period following such termination pursuant to a written contract that has not been approved by the company's shareholders, provided that (a) the new contract is approved by the company's board of directors, including a majority of the non-interested directors, (b) the compensation to be paid under the new contract does not exceed the compensation that would have been paid under the contract most recently approved by company's shareholders, and (c) neither the adviser nor any controlling person of the adviser directly or indirectly receives money or other benefit in connection with the assignment. Applicants state that they may not be able to rely on rule 15a-4 because of the benefits U.S. Bancorp's shareholders will receive from the Merger.

3. Applicants contend that, because the Funds did not have sufficient advance notice of the Merger, it will not be possible for them to obtain shareholder approval of the Interim Advisory Agreements in accordance with section 15(a) prior to the closing of the Merger. Applicants state that the terms and timing of the Merger were determined by FBS and U.S. Bancorp in response to a number of factors relating principally to their commercial banking and other similar business concerns.

4. Applicants state that the Board determined that retention of New Adviser to provide advisory services to the Funds during the Interim Period and employment of the remaining Fund portfolio managers of Adviser by New Adviser would serve Fund shareholders better than any alternative, in that it would (a) provide that the Funds will, to the extent possible under the circumstances, continue to be managed by the same individuals; (b) ensure that, to the extent current Fund portfolio managers depart Adviser, the affected Funds will be managed during the Interim Period by a group of investment professionals which the Board has determined can provide the appropriate scope and quality of advisory services; and (c) avoid the need for the Board to consider on an emergency, ad hoc basis how to proceed if and to the extent additional current Fund portfolio managers decide to leave Adviser. With respect to the third point, the Board noted that if additional portfolio managers were to leave Adviser, the affected Funds could be left essentially unmanaged until the Board could be convened to terminate the Existing Advisory Agreements and select and retain a new investment adviser. The Board also noted that, following the Effective Date, both Adviser and New Adviser will be subsidiaries of the same corporate parent. Thus, applicants note, ultimate control over the entity which advised the Funds during the Interim Period will rest in the same place regardless of whether that entity is the current Adviser or New Adviser.

5. Applicants anticipate that all but three of the Funds will be merged into corresponding funds of the First American Family of funds during or by the close of the Interim Period. Applicants maintain that the 120 day period will give the Funds sufficient time to allow a single proxy solicitation to be conducted for shareholder consideration of an overall, comprehensive plan for reorganizing the Funds, as well as for shareholder consideration of the Interim Advisory Agreements. Applicants contend that proceeding in this manner will allow shareholder approval to be obtained in a cost effective manner and will minimize any shareholder confusion that might arise in the circumstances.

6. Applicants submit that each Fund will receive during the Interim Period substantially comparable investment advisory services, provided in substantially the same manner, as it received prior to the Effective Date. Applicants anticipate that New Adviser will employ certain of Adviser's key portfolio managers and advisory personnel that managed the Funds prior to the announcement of the Merger. In the event there is any material change in personnel providing advisory services under the Interim Advisory Agreements during the Interim Period, applicants state that New Adviser will apprise and consult the Board to ensure that such Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, is satisfied that the services provided by New Adviser will not be diminished in scope and quality. Applicants state that the Board's approval of the Interim Advisory Agreements signifies its independent determination that implementing the Agreements prior to shareholder approval was necessary to protect the Funds and their shareholders.

7. Applicants submit that to deprive New Adviser of its customary fees during the Interim Period for no reason, other than the fact that the Merger may be deemed to result in an assignment of the Existing Advisory Agreements, would be unduly harsh and unreasonable penalty to impose upon an investment adviser. New Adviser submits that, in good faith and consistent with the Act and the spirit of rule 15a-4, it seeks to promote the interests of the Funds and their shareholders by undertaking the fee and other arrangements described in the application. Applicants state that the fees payable to New Adviser under the Interim Advisory Agreements have been approved by the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, in accordance with their fiduciary and other obligations under the Act, and that such fees will not be released by the escrow agent without the approval of the respective Fund's shareholders.

8. Section 6(c) provides that the SEC may exempt any person, security, or transaction from any provision of the Act, if and to the extent that such exemption is necessary or appropriate in the public interest and consistent with the protection of investors and the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of the Act. Applicants believe that the relief requested satisfies this standard.

Applicants' Conditions

Applicants agree as conditions to the issuance of the exemptive order requested by the application that:

1. Each Interim Advisory Agreement will have the same terms and conditions as the respective Existing Advisory Agreement, except for the effective and termination dates, escrow provisions, and the substitution of New Adviser in place of Adviser.

2. Fees earned by New Adviser and paid by a Fund during the Interim Period in accordance with the Interim Advisory Agreement will be maintained with as unaffiliated financial institution in an interest-bearing escrow account, and amounts in the such account (including interest earned on such amounts) will be paid to New Adviser only upon approval of the shareholders of the related Fund or, in the absence of approval by such shareholders, to the Fund.

3. The Qualivest Funds will hold meetings of shareholders to vote on approval of the Interim Advisory Agreements for the Funds on or before the 120th day following the earlier of the termination of the Existing Advisory Agreements on the Effective Date or September 30, 1997.

4. New Adviser will pay the costs of preparing and filing the application. New Adviser will pay the costs relating to the solicitation of approval of Fund shareholders, to the extent such costs relate to shareholder approval of the Interim Advisory Agreements necessitated by the Merger.

5. New Adviser will take all appropriate actions to ensure that the scope and quality of advisory and other services provided to the Funds under the Interim Advisory Agreements will be at least equivalent, in the judgment of the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, to the scope and quality of services provided under the Existing Advisory Agreements. In the event of any material change in personnel providing services pursuant to the Interim Advisory Agreements, New Adviser will apprise and consult the Board to assure that the Board, including a majority of the Independent Trustees, is satisfied that the services provided by New Adviser will not be diminished in scope or quality.
