DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Office of the Secretary

Bureau of International Labor Affairs; U.S. National Administrative Office; North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation; Notice of Determination Regarding Review of Submission #9701

AGENCY: Office of the Secretary, Labor.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The U.S. National Administrative Office (NAO) gives notice that on July 14, 1997, Submission #9701 was accepted for review. The submission was filed with the NAO on May 16, 1997, by Human Rights Watch (HRW), the International Labor Rights Fund (ILRF), and the National Association of Democratic Lawyers (ANAD) of Mexico and raises issues of discrimination against women workers and women job applicants in Mexico.

Article 16(3) of the North American Agreement on Labor Cooperation (NAALC) provides for the review of labor law matters in Canada and Mexico by the NAO. The objectives of the review of the submission will be to gather information to assist the NAO to better understand and publicly report on the Government of Mexico's compliance with the obligations set forth in Articles 3 and 4 of the NAALC.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 14, 1997.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Irasema T. Garza, Secretary, U.S. National Administrative Office, Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Room C-4327, Washington, D.C. 20210. Telephone: (202) 501-6653 (this is not a toll-free number).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 16, 1997, HRW, the ILRF, and ANAD filed a submission with the NAO concerning allegations involving discrimination against women workers and women job applicants in Mexico's export processing (maquiladora) sector. The submission contains information that women are required to undergo pre and post employment pregnancy screening as a condition of employment and that pregnant women are denied employment or pressured into resigning from their jobs.

The procedural guidelines for the NAO, published in the Federal Register on April 7, 1994, 59 FR 16660, specify that, in general, the Secretary of the NAO shall accept a submission for review if it raises issues relevant to labor law matters in Canada or Mexico and if a review would further the objectives of the NAALC. The guidelines permit the NAO to decline to review a submission if, inter alia, the submission is not sufficiently specific to determine the nature of the request and permit an appropriate review.

Submission #9701 relates to labor law matters. A review would appear to further the objectives of the NAALC, as set out in Article 1, which includes improving working conditions and living standards in each Party's territory; promoting, to the maximum extent possible, the labor principles set out in Annex 1 of the NAALC, among them the elimination of employment discrimination on the basis of race, religion, age, sex or other grounds; and promoting compliance with, and effective enforcement by each Party, of its labor law.

Accordingly, the submission has been accepted for review. The NAO's decision is not intended to indicate any determination as to the validity or accuracy of the Allegations contained in the submission.

The objectives of the review will be to gather information to assist the NAO to better understand and publicly report on the Government of Mexico's compliance with the obligations agreed to under Articles 3 and 4 of the NAALC. The review will focus on compliance with, and effective enforcement of, labor laws that provide protection against employment discrimination. The review will also focus on the access to the appropriate tribunals or other government bodies by workers who believe they have been discriminated against. The review will be completed, and a public report issued, within 120 days, or 180 days if circumstances require an extension of time, as set out in the procedural guidelines of the NAO.

Signed at Washington, D.C. on July 14, 1997.
