

has expired: Summary of Sentenced Population Movement—Annual Data Collection.

The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for sixty days until November 17, 1997. This process is in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. Request written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

(1) Evaluate whether the collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

(2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

(3) Enhance the quality, utility and clarity of the information to be collected; and

(4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g. permitting electronic submission of responses.

If you have additional comments, suggestions, or additional information, especially regarding the estimated public burden and associated response time, please write to Dr. Jan M. Chaiken, Director, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 810 Seventh St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20531. If you need a copy of the collection instrument with instructions, or have additional information, please contact James Stephan at (202) 616-3289, or via facsimile at 202-307-0128.

Overview of this information collection:

(1) Type of information collection: Reinstatement, without change, of a previously approved collection for which approval has expired.

(2) The title of the Form/Collection: Summary of Sentenced Population Movement, 1997.

(3) The agency form number and the applicable component of the Department sponsoring the collection: Form: NPS-1. Corrections Unit, Bureau of Justice Statistics, Office of Justice Programs, United States Department of Justice.

(4) Affected public who will be asked to respond, as well as a brief abstract:

Primary: State Departments of Corrections. Others: The Federal Bureau of Prisons. Approximately 50 central reporters (one from each State, the District of Columbia, and the Federal Bureau of Prisons) responsible for keeping records on inmates under their jurisdiction and in their custody will be asked to provide prison admission information for the following categories: new court commitments, parole violators, other conditional release violators returned, transfers from other jurisdictions, AWOLS and escapees returned, and returns from bond and appeal. Respondents will be asked to provide prison release information for the following categories: expiration of sentence, commutations, other conditional releases, probations, supervised mandatory releases, paroles, other conditional releases, deaths by cause, AWOLS, escapes, transfers to other jurisdictions, and releases to appeal and bond. In addition, respondents will be asked for data on jurisdictional and custody populations at yearend by gender for inmates with over 1 year maximum sentence, and inmates with a year or less maximum sentence; for information on the number of state inmates housed in facilities operated by a county or other local authority on December 31 to ease prison crowding; inmates on December 31 by race and Hispanic origin; testing of incoming inmates for HIV; and HIV infection and AIDS cases on December 31. The Bureau of Justice Statistics uses this information in published reports and for the U.S. Congress, Executive Office of the President, practitioners, researchers, students, the media, and others interested in criminal justice statistics.

(5) An estimate of the total number of respondents and the amount of time estimated for an average respondent to respond: 52 respondents each taking an average 6.5 hours to respond.

(6) An estimate of the total public burden (in hours) associated with the collection: 338 annual burden hours.

If additional information is required contact: Mr. Robert B. Briggs, Clearance Officer, United States Department of Justice, Information Management and Security Staff, Justice Management Division, Suite 850, Washington Center, 1001 G Street, NW, Washington, DC 20530.

Dated: September 12, 1997.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Employment and Training Administration

Notice of Determinations Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA Transitional Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended, the Department of Labor herein presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for trade adjustment assistance for workers (TA-W) issued during the period of August, 1997.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for worker adjustment assistance to be issued, each of the group eligibility requirements of Section 222 of the Act must be met.

(1) That a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, have become totally or partially separated,

(2) That sales or production, or both, of the firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely, and

(3) That increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have contributed importantly to the separations, or threat thereof, and to the absolute decline in sales or production.

Negative Determinations for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criterion (3) has not been met. A survey of customers indicated that increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-33,654; Webster Lens Co., Webster, MA

TA-W-33,541; Acme Belt Co., Inc., New York, NY

TA-W-33,678; Coval Corp., D.B.A. Mays-Marshall & Meier, Warwick, RI

TA-W-33,604; APV Crepaco, Div. of APV North America, Inc., Lake Mills, WI

TA-W-33,655; White Cap, Inc., Hayward, CA

TA-W-33,517 & A; Jackson Mills, Inc., Wellford, SC and New York, NY

TA-W-33,644; Gulton Graphics Instruments, East Greenwich, RI
TA-W-33,684; Memorex Telex Corp., Computer Products, Raleigh, NC

In the following cases, the investigation revealed that the criteria for eligibility have not been met for the reasons specified.

TA-W-33,566; Fleet Services Corp Div., of Fleet Financial Group Inc., Boston, MA

TA-W-33,639; Big A Finishing Service, New York, NY

The workers firm does not produce an article as required for certification under Section 222 of the Trade Act of 1974.

TA-W-33,597; Zimmer, Inc., A Div. of Bristol Myers Squibb, Warsaw, IN

The investigation revealed that criteria (2) and criteria (3) have not been met. Sales or production did not decline during the relevant period as required for certification. Increases of imports of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by the firm or appropriate subdivision have not contributed importantly to the separations or threat thereof, and the absolute decline in sales or production.

TA-W-33,724; Dee Forest Products, Inc., Hood River, OR

TA-W-33,671; Zenith Data Systems Direct, A.K.A. Swan Technologies Corp, State College, PA

TA-W-33,551; William Wrigley Jr. Co., Santa Cruz, CA

TA-W-33,603; Eagle Engineering & Manufacturing, Inc., Welcome, MN

TA-W-33,658; ICI Paints North America Devoe Coatings Co., Pennauken, NJ

TA-W-33,504; ABL Engineering, Inc., Mentor, OH

Increased imports did not contribute importantly to worker separations at the firm.

TA-W-33,629; Richland Products, Inc., Lexington, OH

The subject firm transferred all production to another domestic facility during the relevant period. The subject firm experienced no sales, production or employment declines prior to the decision to relocate production domestically.

Also, pursuant to Title V of the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (P.L. 103-182) concerning transitional adjustment assistance hereinafter called (NAFTA-TAA) and in accordance with Section 250(a) Subchapter D, Chapter 2, Title II, of the Trade Act as amended, the Department of Labor presents summaries of determinations regarding eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA issued during the month of August, 1997.

In order for an affirmative determination to be made and a certification of eligibility to apply for NAFTA-TAA the following group eligibility requirements of Section 250 of the Trade Act must be met:

(1) that a significant number or proportion of the workers in the workers' firm, or an appropriate subdivision thereof, (including workers in any agricultural firm or appropriate subdivision thereof) have become totally or partially separated from employment and either—

(2) that sales or production, or both, of such firm or subdivision have decreased absolutely,

(3) that imports from Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles produced by such firm or subdivision have increased, and that the increases in imports contributed importantly to such workers' separations or threat of separation and to the decline in sales or production of such firm or subdivision; or

(4) that there has been a shift in production by such workers' firm or subdivision to Mexico or Canada of articles like or directly competitive with articles which are produced by the firm or subdivision.

Negative Determinations NAFTA-TAA

In each of the following cases the investigation revealed that criteria (3) and (4) were not met. Imports from Canada or Mexico did not contribute importantly to workers' separations. There was no shift in production from the subject firm to Canada or Mexico during the relevant period.
