Eagle Veneer, Incorporated Harrisburg
Plywood Division Harrisburg, Oregon;
Notice of Affirmative Determination
Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By letter of April 22, 1998 the petitioners requested administrative reconsideration of the Department of Labor's Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance and NAFTA-Transitional Adjustment Assistance, applicable to petition numbers TA-W-33,570 and NAFTA-02180, respectively. The denial notices were signed on April 8, 1998 and published in the Federal Register on April 21, 1998 (63 FR 19753, NAFTA 02180) and May 6, 1998 (63 FR 25081, TA-W-34,231).

The petitioners allege that the imports of oriented strained board should have been considered by the Department in its survey of customers.

Conclusion

After careful review of the application, I conclude that the claim is of sufficient weight to justify reconsideration of the Department of Labor's prior decision. The application is, therefore, granted.

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 27th day of August 1998.

Grant D. Beale,Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Dresser Oil Tools, Odessa, Texas;
Notice of Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to Section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on August 19, 1998 in response to a worker petition which was filed on behalf of workers at Dresser Oil Tools in Odessa, Denver City, Kermit, and Levelland, Texas.

All workers of the subject firm are included under an existing investigation in process (TA-W-34,762). Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC this 25th day of August 1998.

[TA-W-34,233]

Eastman Kodak Company, Kodak Park and Elmgrove, and Kodak Office and Research Labs, Rochester, New York;
Amended Certification Regarding
Eligibility to Apply for Worker
Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply to Worker Adjustment Assistance on May 8, 1998, applicable to all workers of Eastman Kodak Company, Kodak Park and Elmgrove, Rochester, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on June 22, 1998 (63 FR 33958).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers produce photographic film, paper and equipment. New information provided by Eastman Kodak Company show that workers at the Kodak Office and Research Labs located in Rochester, New York, providing services and administrative support to the Kodak Park and Elmgrove plants have been separated from employment.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Eastman Kodak Company who were affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the worker certification to include the workers of the subject firms' Kodak Office and the Research Lab in Rochester providing services and administrative support to Kodak Park and Elmgrove plants.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,233 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Eastman Kodak Company, Kodak Park and Elmgrove, Rochester, New York; and workers at Eastman Kodak Company, Kodak Office and Research Labs, Rochester, New York, providing services and administrative support to the Kodak Park and Elmgrove plants, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 20, 1997 through May 8, 2000, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 19th day of August 1998.
