[Public Notice 3039]

Bureau of Nonproliferation; Imposition of Lethal Military Equipment Sanctions Against the Government of Russia and Partial Waiver of These Sanctions

AGENCY: Department of State.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The United States Government has determined that the Government of Russia transferred lethal military equipment to a country determined by the Secretary of State to be a state sponsor of terrorism. The United States Government determined that, despite the transfers, furnishing assistance to the Government of Russia, other than assistance furnished to the three Russian entities specifically involved in the transfer of lethal military equipment, is important to the national interests of the United States. Further, it is the policy of the United States Government to deny U.S. Government assistance to these three entities.

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 29, 1999.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Joseph Smaldone, Office of Export Controls and Conventional Arms Nonproliferation Policy, Bureau of Nonproliferation, Department of State, (202-647-4231).

L. 105-277), and Executive Order 12163, as amended, on March 29, 1999, the United States Government determined that the Government of Russia has provided lethal military equipment to a country determined by the Secretary of State to be a state sponsor of terrorism. Also on March 29, 1999 and pursuant to the aforementioned provisions of law, the United States Government determined furnishing assistance restricted by these provisions to the Government of Russia (other than assistance furnished to the three entities named below) is important to the national interests of the United States. Further, it is the policy of the United States Government to deny all types of U.S. Government assistance to the following three entities:

- (1) Tula Instrument Design Bureau (including at Tula 300001, Russia);
- (2) Volsk Mechanical Plant (including at Saratov Region, 412013, Volsk, Russia);
- (3) TZNII Central Scientific Research Institute of Precision Machine-Building (a/k/a Tzniitochmash) (including at 142080 Klimovsk, Russia).

These measures shall remain in place until further notice.
