SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Introduction

As part of its continuing effort to simplify the registration forms used by broker-dealers, the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") is revising Form BDW,¹ the uniform request for broker-dealer withdrawal under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act").² The amendments to Form BDW adopted today by the Commission are the result of discussions held among the Commission staff, the Forms/CRD Committee of the North American Securities Administrators Association, Inc. ("NASAA"), National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD"), the New York Stock Exchange, and representatives of the securities industry. The amendments adopted today were proposed in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 37432.³ The comment period for the Proposing Release ended on August 19, 1996. No comments were received.

By simplifying the form and clarifying its requirements, the revisions are designed to reduce the regulatory burden on broker-dealers and to improve the usefulness of the information contained in Form BDW to the Commission, self-regulatory organizations ("SROs"), and state securities regulators. The amendments are also designed to implement changes recommended in connection with changes to the Central Registration Depository system ("CRD") that will allow filings from the World Wide Web. The CRD, a computer system operated by the NASD, maintains registration information regarding broker-dealers and their registered personnel for use by the Commission, SROs and state securities regulators.⁴ The new system will be known as "Web CRD".⁵

The NASD anticipates Web CRD will become operational on August 16, 1999. Adoption of the amendments to Form BDW now will facilitate the NASD's implementation of the new system. Web CRD is expected to provide the Commission, SROs, and state securities regulators with (i) streamlined capture and display of data; (ii) better access to information through the use of standardized and specialized computer searches; and (iii) electronic filing by broker-dealers of uniform forms, including Forms BD, BDW, U-4, and U-5.⁶ The Commission is also amending Exchange Act Rule 15b6-1⁷ to permit broker-dealers that are withdrawing from registration to consent to a delay amendments relating to filing procedures for Forms BD and BDW that are not being adopted today because changes to the design of the CRD system made since the Proposing Release, have necessitated changes to those proposed filing procedures. The Commission is today proposing in a separate release revisions to Form BD, the rules and instructions relating to Form BD, and the filing procedures relating to Forms BD. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 34-41351.

⁴ The revisions to Form BDW in certain respects conform it to analogous amendments to Form BD that were adopted on July 12, 1996. Although adopted, those amendments to Form BD have not yet been implemented because Web CRD is not yet operational. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 37431 (July 12, 1996), 61 FR 37701 ("Form BD Release"). The Commission is today proposing in a separate release further revisions to the adopted but not implemented Form BD that will facilitate its use on Web CRD scheduled to become operational on August 16, 1999. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 34-41351.

⁵ CRD/PD Bulletin, Volume 6, No. 5, March 1999 (available from the www.nasdr.com website).

in the effectiveness of their notice of withdrawal. The amendments will also permit the Commission to extend the effective date for such period as the Commission by order may determine is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors. The Commission is similarly amending Rules 15Bc3-1⁸ and 15Cc1-1⁹ relating to the withdrawal from registration of municipal securities dealers and government securities brokers and government securities dealers. These amendments are being adopted, in part, to provide the broker-dealers, municipal securities dealers and government securities brokers and government securities dealers adequate flexibility to bring their business operations to an orderly close in circumstances in which the 60-day period currently provided under Rule 15b6-1, 15Bc3-1 or 15Cc1-1 would not be sufficient. These amendments are also being adopted to provide the Commission greater flexibility in concluding investigations of broker-dealers, municipal securities dealers and government securities brokers and government securities dealers before they complete the withdrawal process.

The amendments to Rules 15b6-1, 15Bc3-1 and 15Cc1-1, together with amendments to Form BDW, are discussed further below.

II. Form BDW

A. Items 4, 5, 6, and 8

The Commission is amending Items 4, 5, 6, and 8 of Form BDW. Item 4 asks when the withdrawing broker-dealer stopped doing business and, in the case of partial withdrawals from registration,¹⁰ when the broker-dealer stopped doing business in the states designated in Item 3. As currently drafted, Item 4 presumes that broker-dealers filing Form BDW are registered entities. Certain states, however, also require broker-dealers with pending applications for registration on Form BD to file Form BDW to withdraw their pending applications.¹¹ In order to accommodate those states, Item 4 is being amended to require disclosure of

¹⁰ The instructions to the form have been revised to explain that a partial withdrawal terminates registration only with designated states and SROs, but does not terminate registration with the Commission and at least one SRO and state.

¹¹ The Commission does not require a broker-dealer that has an application for registration pending to file Form BDW in order to withdraw its pending application. Broker-dealers may withdraw a pending application simply by providing notice in writing to the Commission and the applicable SRO.

² 15 U.S.C. 78a et seq.

³ Securities Exchange Act Release No. 37432 (July 12, 1996), 61 FR 37701 (July 19, 1996) ("Proposing Release"). The Proposing Release also proposed the date on which the broker-dealer withdrew its request for registration.

The Commission is also amending Item 5, which requests information concerning any funds and securities that withdrawing broker-dealers may owe to their customers or to other broker-dealers. Specifically, Item 5 requires disclosure of the number of customers to which funds or securities are owed, the amount of money and the market value of securities owed to customers or other broker-dealers, and the arrangements that have been made for payment. As amended, Item 5 will require a broker-dealer that files a partial withdrawal (i.e., a withdrawal from registration with a specific state or SRO) to provide the names of the states from which it is requesting withdrawal and in which it still owes customer funds or securities. This amendment will assist state securities regulators in monitoring the amount of funds or securities owed to customers in their states.

The proposed revisions to Item 5 will also change the requirement that broker-dealers submit a FOCUS report or a statement of financial condition when filing Form BDW. Currently, a broker-dealer is required to file with Form BDW, a FOCUS report or, if the broker-dealer is not subject to the FOCUS filing requirement, a statement of financial condition, regardless of whether the broker-dealer owes funds or securities to customers or to other broker-dealers. The Commission is reducing the filing burden on broker-dealers by requiring only that a FOCUS report or a statement of financial condition be filed with Form BDW when a broker-dealer is requesting full withdrawal from registration (i.e., a withdrawal from registration with the Commission, all SROs, and all states) and the broker-dealer owes money or securities to any customer or to any other broker-dealer.

In addition, the Commission is amending Item 6 of Form BDW, which requires disclosure of certain regulatory and other disciplinary matters that are also reportable on Form BD. Item 6 is being amended to delete the requirement that broker-dealers reiterate information already required to be disclosed on Form BD or elsewhere on Form BDW.¹² Instead, Item 6 will remind broker-dealers that they must update any incomplete or inaccurate disciplinary information on Form BD prior to filing Form BDW.¹³

Item 6 is also being amended to ask whether the broker-dealer is the subject of, or is named in, any investment-related investigation, consumer-initiated complaint, or private civil litigation. Item 6 currently requires disclosure if the broker-dealer is the subject of any "proceeding" not reported on Form BD, or any complaint or investigation. The question, therefore, is being revised to elicit more precise information by using specific, rather than general, terms.

Finally, the Commission is expanding Item 8, the execution paragraph, to require the registrant's agent to certify that the information contained on Form BDW is complete and current, and to certify further that all of the information on Form BD is accurate and complete at the time Form BDW is filed.

B. Instructions

The Commission is also expanding the general filing instructions to Form BDW to provide greater guidance to broker-dealers filing Form BDW.¹⁴ The revised instructions also clarify attendant requirements that may arise out of filing Form BDW, particularly those raised by filing the form electronically with Web CRD. As amended, the instructions also include an explanation of the terms "jurisdiction," "investment-related," and "investigation."¹⁵ These definitions are intended to assist broker-dealers in responding to questions about their disciplinary history and are consistent with the definitions adopted in the Form BD Release.¹⁶

C. Clarifying Amendments

In addition to the substantive amendments to Form BDW discussed above, the Commission is adopting several clarifying amendments to Form BDW. Item 3, for example, is being revised to inform broker-dealers that the

"SEC" box should be checked only if a broker-dealer is intending to conduct an intrastate brokerage business and is not a municipal securities dealer.¹⁷

III. Rule 15b6-1

The Commission is also amending Exchange Act Rule 15b6-1,¹⁸ which requires broker-dealers to file a notice of withdrawal on Form BDW in accordance with that form's instructions. The rule provides generally that withdrawal from broker-dealer registration automatically becomes effective 60 days after the filing date of the Form BDW, unless the Commission institutes a proceeding to impose terms or conditions upon the withdrawal.¹⁹ As amended, the rule will also permit broker-dealers to consent to a delay in the effectiveness of their notice of withdrawal. In addition, the amendments will allow the Commission to extend the effective date of withdrawal for the period of time that the Commission determines is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors. Under the rule, the Commission must make this determination by order.

As explained in the Proposing Release, the Commission determined that there may be circumstances in which it would be advisable to provide broker-dealers seeking to withdraw from registration greater flexibility in scheduling the termination of their business operations. While a broker-dealer must cease all securities activities when it files a request for withdrawal on Form BDW, it may need additional time to unwind its non-securities business operations before its Form BDW becomes effective. The Commission, too, may determine that it would be appropriate for a broker-dealer that is under investigation by the Commission to maintain its registered status in order to allow the Commission to conclude its pending investigation without ¹³ Exchange Act Rule 15b3-1 [17 CFR 240.15b3-1] requires broker-dealers to amend any information on Form BD whenever it becomes inaccurate.

¹⁴ The changes to Form BDW and its instructions are those identified in the proposing release except that the words "or paper" are being deleted from the second sentence of section "A.1." of the Form BDW Instructions and the abbreviations "ASE" and "PSE" in section 3 of Form BDW are being updated to "AMEX" and "PCX".

¹⁵ E.g., the definition of the term "investigation" includes grand jury investigations, Commission investigations after the "Wells" notice has been given, formal investigations by SROs, or actions or procedures designated as investigations by states. The definition does not include subpoenas, preliminary or routine regulatory inquiries or requests for information, deficiency letters, "blue sheet" requests or other trading questionnaires, or examinations.

¹⁶ See supra notes 1 and 4 and accompanying text.

¹⁷ Exchange Act Rule 15Ba2-2 [17 CFR 240.15Ba2-2] requires a non-bank municipal securities dealer whose business is exclusively intrastate to file with its application on Form BD a statement that it is filing for registration as an intrastate dealer. Thus, a non-bank municipal securities dealer cannot conduct an intrastate municipal securities business without being registered with the Commission.

¹⁸ 17 CFR 240.15b6-1. See also supra notes 6, 7 and 8 and accompanying text. The Commission is considering further amendments to Rules 15b6-1, 15Bc3-1, and 15Cc1-1 [17 CFR 240.15b6-1, 17 CFR 15Bc3-1, and 17 CFR 15Cc1-1] to provide for electronic filing of Form BDW with Web CRD.

¹⁹ The amendment to Rule 15b6-1 [17 CFR 240.15b6-1] is consistent with a similar provision under Section 15(b)(1) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78o(b)]. Section 15(b)(1) generally requires broker-dealer registration to be granted within 45 days after the filing of Form BD, unless the applicant consents to a longer period of time.

¹² Specifically, the question "is broker-dealer now the subject of any unsatisfied customer claims for funds or securities not reported under Item 5" would be deleted. These claims generally are already reportable under Item 5.

prematurely instituting a proceeding to impose conditions on the broker-dealer's withdrawal. In such instances, the interests of the Commission may be served by having the broker-dealer consent to an extension of the effective date of the broker-dealer's withdrawal from registration beyond the 60-day period currently provided under Rule 15b6-1. The Commission's interests also may be served by permitting the Commission to extend the effective date for a period that it determines by order is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

Withdrawal from broker-dealer registration will continue to become effective automatically 60 days after the filing date in all other cases—that is, unless there has been express consent by the broker-dealer, the issuance of a Commission order, or the initiation of a proceeding by the Commission extending the effective date of withdrawal.

The Commission is similarly amending Rules 15Bc3-1²⁰ and 15Cc1-1²¹ relating to the withdrawal from registration of municipal securities dealers and government securities brokers and government securities dealers.

IV. Conforming Amendments

The Commission is amending Exchange Act Rule 15b1-1²² to clarify that an application for registration filed on Form BD with the Central Registration Depository shall be considered a "report" filed with the Commission for purposes of Section 15(b) of the Exchange Act.²³ This amendment is intended to conform the language in Rule 15b1-1 with language already contained in corresponding rules governing the filing requirements for municipal securities dealers, government securities brokers, and government securities dealers. The Commission is also amending Rules 15b1-1, 15b3-1, 15b6-1, 15Ba2-2, 15Bc3-1, and 15Cc1-1 under the Exchange Act²⁴ to clarify that the filing of Form BD or Form BDW by broker-dealers, municipal securities dealers, and government securities brokers and government securities dealers would, in each instance, constitute a "report" filed with the Commission within the meaning of Sections 15(b), 15B(c), 15C(c) 17(a), 18(a), and 32(a) of the Exchange Act.²⁵ The Commission is also amending Rule 15Ca1-1 to clarify when notice of government securities broker-dealer activities would be considered filed with the Commission.

V. Effective Date

Use of the revised Form BDW adopted today is intended to coincide with the implementation of Web CRD scheduled to begin on August 1, 1999. As a result, the amendments to Form BDW become effective on August 1, 1999. Thus, all Form BDW filings made on or after August 1, 1999 must be made on the revised Form BDW adopted today.

Amendments to Rules 15b1-1, 15b3-1, 15b6-1, 15Ba2-2, 15Bc3-1, 15Ca1-1, and 15Cc1-1 become effective June 9, 1999.

VI. Cost Benefit Analysis

Form BDW is filed only one time by a registered broker-dealer. The amendments to Form BDW adopted today do not materially alter the disclosure required on Form BDW. As a result, the costs to broker-dealers of gathering the information necessary to complete a Form BDW will remain the same as those currently applicable under the present Form BDW.

The actual filing of the Form on Web CRD will result in savings of approximately 15 minutes per Form over the current paper filing system according to staff estimates.

In addition, the implementation of the amendments to Form BDW will facilitate the overall internet-based filing system of Web CRD covering Forms BD and BDW as well as U-4 and U-5. This internet-based filing system will provide ongoing efficiencies for filers, regulators, and the public through reductions in the time required for filing and accessing filed information.

VII. Effects on Competition, Efficiency, and Capital Formation

Section 23(a)(2) of the Exchange Act²⁶ requires the Commission, in adopting rules under the Exchange Act, to consider the competitive effects of such rules, if any, and to refrain from adopting a rule that would impose a burden on competition not necessary or appropriate in furthering the purpose of the Exchange Act. Moreover, Section 3 of the Exchange Act as amended by the National Securities Markets Improvement Act of 1996 provides that whenever the Commission is engaged in a rulemaking and is required to consider or determine whether an action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, the Commission shall consider, in addition to the protection of investors, whether the action will promote efficiency, competition and capital formation.

The Commission is of the view that the amendments to Form BDW, and the amendments to Rules 15b1-1, 15b3-1, 15b6-1, 15Ba2-2, 15Bc3-1, 15Ca1-1, and 15Cc1-1 under the Exchange Act²⁷ would not result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Exchange Act. As noted above, the form revisions and rule amendments adopted today will reduce the regulatory burden on broker-dealers by clarifying the information required to be filed on Form BDW and by facilitating the filing of Form BDW electronically with the CRD.

VIII. Regulatory Flexibility Act Certification

Pursuant to Section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 605(b), the Chairman of the Commission has certified that the adoption of the amendments would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.²⁸ This certification, including the reasons therefor, is attached to this release as Appendix A.

IX. Paperwork Reduction Act Analysis

Certain of the amendments to Form BDW contain "collection of information" requirements within the meaning of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Section 3501 et seq.) ("PRA"). The Commission submitted the proposal to the Office of Management and Budget ("OMB") for review in accordance with PRA requirements in effect at the time the amendments were proposed. The title for this collection of information is: "Form BDW." OMB has approved the amendments to Form BDW and has assigned Form BDW OMB Number 3235-0018, with an expiration date of October 31, 1999.

The Commission solicited public comment on the collection of information requirements contained in the Proposing Release. No comments were received.

The amendments to Form BDW are designed to reduce the regulatory burden on broker-dealers and to improve the usefulness of the information to federal and state securities regulators by simplifying the form and clarifying its requirements. The amendments are also designed to implement changes to the CRD system, including providing for electronic filing of Form BDW.²⁹

This collection of information will be used by the Commission to determine whether it is in the public interest to permit a broker-dealer to withdraw its registration. This collection of information is also important to a withdrawing broker-dealer's customers and to the general public because it provides, among other things, the name and address of the broker-dealer's agent to contact regarding the broker-dealer's unfinished business.

The likely respondents to the proposed collection of information will be the 900 or fewer broker-dealers that withdraw from registration annually. They will be required to respond to the proposed collection of information before being allowed to withdraw their registration with the Commission. The Commission expects that the proposed collection of information on revised Form BDW will result in no additional burdens to broker-dealers seeking to withdraw from registration on Form BDW. The Commission estimates that the average burden to complete Form BDW will be approximately 15 minutes, or 0.25 hours. (based on the Commission staff's experience in administering the form). Approximately 900 respondents file one response per year, resulting in an estimated total annual reporting burden of 225 hours.

As adopted, respondents will be required to retain the collection of information for a period of no less than six years and to make it available for inspection upon a regulatory request. Disclosure of data solicited in this collection of information by the respondents is mandatory before a request for withdrawal from registration may become effective. Disclosure of social security numbers, however, is voluntary. The responses provided by the respondents will be made a matter of public record and will be available for inspection by any member of the public.

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number.

X. Statutory Basis

The foregoing amendments are adopted pursuant to Sections 15(b), 15B, 15C and 23(a) of the Exchange Act.

Appendix ASecurities and Exchange Commission
Regulatory Flexibility Act Certification

I, Arthur Levitt, Jr., Chairman of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), hereby certify, pursuant to 5 U.S.C. § 605(b), that the proposed amendments to Form BDW and Rules 15b1-1, 15b3-1, 15b6-1, 15Ba2-2, 15Bc3-1, 15Ca1-1, and 15Cc1-1 ("Rules") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act") would not, if adopted, have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. The proposed amendments would facilitate implementation of filing of Form BDW (the form on which broker-dealers request withdrawal from registration) via the internet as part of Web CRD. The Commission receives roughly 900

Forms BDW a year. The proposed amendments would also clarify certain provisions of Form BDW and its status as a report under the Exchange Act, as well as permit the Commission to delay, or broker-dealers to consent to delay, the effectiveness of a filed Form BDW. The proposed amendments should not materially affect the substance of the required disclosures or the filing and delivery obligations under Form BDW or the Rules. Consequently, no new preparation, printing, or distribution costs would be incurred. Finally, the proposed amendments would impose no new recordkeeping requirements or compliance burdens on small entities. Accordingly, the proposed amendments would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities.

Dated: April 30, 1999.

Arthur Levitt, Jr.,
Chairman.
