TA-W-34, 783A, Clover Trimmings, Inc., Now Known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc., New York, New York; TA-W-34, 783C, Clover Trimmings, Inc., Now Known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc., West New York, New Jersey; TA-W-34, 783D, Swissloom Embroidery Works, Inc., West New York, New Jersey; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 23, 1998, applicable to workers of Clover Trimmings, Inc., New York, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on November 10, 1998 (63 FR 63078).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of lace and embroidered trimmings. The company reports that Clover Trimmings, Inc. "became known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc." in February, 1998. Information also shows that Swissloom Embroidery Works, Inc., which also produced lace and embroidered trimmings, is a division of Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc. Worker separations occurred at Swissloom Embroidery Works, Inc., West New York, New Jersey when it closed in May, 1999.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification determination to correctly identify the new title name to read "Clover Trimmings, Inc., now known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc.", New York, New York, and West New York, New Jersey, and Swissloom Embroidery Works, Inc., West New York, New Jersey.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Clover Trimmings, Inc., now known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc. who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34, 783A is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Clover Trimmings, Inc., now known as Tiger Embroidery Works, Inc., New York, New York (TA-W-34, 583A), West New York, New Jersey (TA-W-34, 583C) and Swissloom Embroidery Works, West New York, New Jersey (TA-W-34, 783D) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after July 6, 1997 through October 23, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 20th day of May, 1999.

Coach Leatherware Corp., TA-W-35,382, Carlstadt, NJ, and TA-W-35,382A, New York, NY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 8, 1999, applicable to all workers of Coach Leatherware Corp., Carlstadt, New Jersey. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 11, 1999 (64 FR 25372).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of handbags and accessories. New information provided by the company shows that worker separations occurred at the subject firm's New York, New York facility. The workers are sewing machine operators and packers for Coach's production facility in Carlstadt, New Jersey. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers of Coach Leatherware Corporation, New York, New York.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Coach Leatherware Corporation adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,382 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Coach Leatherware Corporation, Carlstadt, New Jersey (TA-W-35,382) and New York, New York (TA-W-35,382A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after November 30, 1997 through February 8, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington DC, this 17th day of May, 1999.

Mademoiselle Knitwear including Modular Sweater, Inc., Brooklyn, NY; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on February 25, 1999, applicable to all workers of Mademoiselle Knitwear, Brooklyn, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on April 6, 1999 (64 FR 16753).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of men's and women's sweaters. New information shows that worker separations occurred at Modular Sweater, Inc. when it closed in October 1998. The workers provided post knitting operations (washing, cutting, & shipping) to support the production of men's and women's sweaters at Mademoiselle Knitwear, Brooklyn, New York. The workers of Modular Sweater, Inc. were inadvertently omitted from the certification.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of Modular Sweater, Inc., Brooklyn, New York.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Mademoiselle Knitwear adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,370 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Mademoiselle Knitwear and Modular Sweater, Inc., Brooklyn, New York who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after December 8, 1997 through February 25, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 10th day of May, 1999.

Mayflower Manufacturing Co., Old Forge, PA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273), the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on May 3, 1999, applicable to workers of Mayflower Manufacturing Company located in Old Forge, Pennsylvania. The notice will be published soon in the Federal Register.

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of men's and boy's slacks. Findings show that the Department incorrectly set the worker certification impact date at January 1, 1998. The impact date should be January 22, 1998, one year prior to the date of the petition. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,666 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Mayflower Manufacturing Company, Old Forge, Pennsylvania who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after January 22, 1998 through May 3, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 17th day of May, 1999.

Modular Sweater, Inc., Brooklyn, NY; Termination of Investigation

Pursuant to section 221 of the Trade Act of 1974, an investigation was initiated on May 10, 1999 in response to a worker petition which was filed on behalf of workers at the Modular Sweater, Inc., Brooklyn, New York.

An active certification covering the petitioning group of workers is already in effect (TA-W-35,370). Consequently, further investigation in this case would serve no purpose, and the investigation has been terminated.

Signed in Washington, D.C., this 10th day of May, 1999.
