INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigation No. AA1921–111 (Review)]

Roller Chain from Japan

Determination

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year review, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)) (the Act), that revocation of the antidumping finding on roller chain from Japan would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted this review on July 6, 1998 (63 FR 36440), and determined on October 8, 1998, that it would conduct a full review (63 FR 56048, October 20, 1998). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's review and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on November 25, 1998 (63 F.R. 65221). Since all requests by interested parties to appear at the hearing were withdrawn before its scheduled date, no hearing was held in this review.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this review to the Secretary of Commerce on July 1, 1999. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3203 (July 1999), entitled Roller Chain from Japan: Investigation No. AA1921–111 (Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: July 1, 1999.

Donna R. Koehnke,

Secretary.
