FWA Drilling Company, Inc. a/k/a JSM & Associate A/K/A UTI Drilling, Midland, TX; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 29, 1998, applicable to workers of FWA Drilling Company, Inc., Midland, Texas. This notice was published in the Federal Register on August 28, 1998 (63 FR 46073).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Findings show that some workers separated from employment at FWA Drilling Company had their wages reported under two separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax accounts, JSM & Associates and UTI Drilling, Midland, Texas. The workers are engaged in providing contract drilling services in the crude oil and natural gas industry.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of FWA Drilling Company, Inc. who were adversely affected by increased imports. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-34,550 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of FWA Drilling Company, Inc., also known as JSM & Associates and also known as UTI Drilling, Midland, Texas (TA-W-34,550) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 18, 1997 through July 29, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 27th day of October, 1999.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 28, 1998 applicable to workers of Halliburton Energy Services headquartered in Houston, Texas and operating at various locations in the above cited states. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 4, 1998 (63 FR 67140).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in activities related to exploration and drilling for unaffiliated firms in the oil industry. New findings show that in September, 1998 Halliburton Energy Services merged with Dresser Industries, Inc. and became known as Halliburton Energy Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Dresser Industries, Inc., wholly owned by Halliburton Company. Information provided by the State also shows that some workers separated from employment at Halliburton Energy Services had their wages reported under two separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax accounts. Halliburton Energy Services, Inc. and Dresser Industries,

Inc., headquartered in Houston, Texas and operating at other locations in the above cited states.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,056 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Halliburton Energy Services, a subsidiary of Dresser Industries, Inc., wholly owned by Halliburton Company, headquartered in Houston, Texas (TA-W-35,056) and operating at other locations in the States listed below who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 4, 1997 through October 28, 2000 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974:

Harrison Alloys, Incorporated Harrison, NJ; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 20, 1999, applicable to workers of Harrison Alloys, Incorporated located in Harrison, New Jersey. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 14, 1999 (64 FR 55751).

At the request of the petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The petitioner and State agency provided information showing that the date of the petition used to establish the impact date for the worker group was May 5, 1999, not June 3, 1999. Therefore, the Department is amending the certification to reflect an impact date of May 5, 1998, one year prior to the date of the petition.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,414 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Harrison Alloys, Incorporated, Harrison, New Jersey, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 5, 1998 through September 20, 2001, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 22nd day of October 1999.

Lincoln Automotive Company Including Leased Workers of Staffmark and Manpower Jonesboro, AR, Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, MO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 14, 1999, applicable to all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company, including leased workers of Staffmark and Manpower, Jonesboro, Arkansas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 11, 1999 (64 FR 43724).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations occurred at the St. Louis, Missouri location of Lincoln Automotive Company due to its closing in October, 1999. The St. Louis, Missouri location was the headquarters office, where workers provided sales, marketing and customer service to support the production of lifting equipment, lubrication tools and equipment, and miscellaneous parts and equipment for the automotive aftermarket at the Jonesboro, Arkansas facility of Lincoln Automotive Company.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers at Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,103 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Lincoln Automotive Company including leased workers of Staffmark and Manpower, Jonesboro, Arkansas (TA-W-36,103) and all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, Missouri (TA-W-36,103A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 6, 1998 through July 14, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.
