Harrison Alloys, Incorporated Harrison, NJ; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 20, 1999, applicable to workers of Harrison Alloys, Incorporated located in Harrison, New Jersey. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 14, 1999 (64 FR 55751).

At the request of the petitioner, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The petitioner and State agency provided information showing that the date of the petition used to establish the impact date for the worker group was May 5, 1999, not June 3, 1999. Therefore, the Department is amending the certification to reflect an impact date of May 5, 1998, one year prior to the date of the petition.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,414 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Harrison Alloys, Incorporated, Harrison, New Jersey, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 5, 1998 through September 20, 2001, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 22nd day of October 1999.

Lincoln Automotive Company Including Leased Workers of Staffmark and Manpower Jonesboro, AR, Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, MO; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 14, 1999, applicable to all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company, including leased workers of Staffmark and Manpower, Jonesboro, Arkansas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 11, 1999 (64 FR 43724).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that worker separations occurred at the St. Louis, Missouri location of Lincoln Automotive Company due to its closing in October, 1999. The St. Louis, Missouri location was the headquarters office, where workers provided sales, marketing and customer service to support the production of lifting equipment, lubrication tools and equipment, and miscellaneous parts and equipment for the automotive aftermarket at the Jonesboro, Arkansas facility of Lincoln Automotive Company.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover workers at Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, Missouri.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,103 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Lincoln Automotive Company including leased workers of Staffmark and Manpower, Jonesboro, Arkansas (TA-W-36,103) and all workers of Lincoln Automotive Company, St. Louis, Missouri (TA-W-36,103A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after April 6, 1998 through July 14, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., Currently Known as Devon Energy, Formerly Known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, and Midland, Texas; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 3, 1999 applicable to workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration & Production Company, Houston, Texas. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 29, 1999 (64 FR 52540).

At the request of the petitioners, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New findings show that in August, 1999 PennzEnergy Exploration & Production merged with Devon Energy and is currently known as Devon Energy. Findings also show that worker separations occurred at the Midland, Texas location of PennzEnergy Exploration and Production. The workers are engaged in employment related to the production of crude oil and natural gas and provided office and management services.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to correctly identify the new title name to read "PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company", Houston, Texas and to cover the workers at the subject firm's Midland, Texas location.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C. adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-36,526 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of PennzEnergy Exploration & Production L.L.C., currently known as Devon Energy, formerly known as Pennzoil Exploration and Production Company, Houston, Texas (TA-W-36,526) and Midland, Texas (TA-W-36,526A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 22, 1998 through August 3, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974:

Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Including Leased Workers of Springborn Staffing Services, Westbrook, ME; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on December 2, 1998, applicable to workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. located in Westbrook, Maine. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 23, 1998 (63 FR 71165).

At the request of the State agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. New information provided by the company shows that some employees of Sappi Fine Papers were leased from Springborn Staffing Services to provide administrative support function services for the production of coated graphic freesheet and specialty paper at the Westbrook, Maine facility. Worker separations occurred at Springborn Staffing Services as a result of worker separations at Sappi Fine Papers North America.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending the certification to include workers of Springborn Staffing Services leased to Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc., Westbrook, Maine.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Sappi Fine Papers North America, Inc. adversely affected by imports.
