

antidumping duty orders on color picture tubes ("CPTs") from Canada, Japan, the Republic of Korea ("Korea"), and Singapore, is not likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (65 FR 17901 (April 5, 2000)). Therefore, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(1), the Department of Commerce ("the Department") is revoking the antidumping duty orders on CPTs from Canada, Japan, Korea, and Singapore. Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2), the effective date of revocation is January 1, 2000.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2000.

Background

On March 1, 1999, the Department initiated, and the Commission instituted, sunset reviews (64 FR 9970 and 64 FR 10014, respectively) of the antidumping duty orders on CPTs from Canada, Japan, Korea, and Singapore, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act. As a result of these reviews, the Department found that revocation of the antidumping duty orders would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and notified the Commission of the magnitude of the margin likely to prevail were the antidumping orders revoked (see Final Results of Expedited Sunset Reviews: Color Picture Tubes from Canada, Japan, the Republic of Korea, and Singapore, 64 FR 48354 (September 3, 1999)).

On April 5, 2000, the Commission determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping duty orders on CPTs from Canada, Japan, Korea, and Singapore would not likely lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time (see Color Picture Tubes from Canada, Japan, Korea and Singapore, 65 FR 17901 (April 5, 2000)).

Scope

The merchandise subject to these antidumping duty orders is color picture tubes from Canada, Japan, Korea, and Singapore. The subject merchandise is defined as cathode ray tubes suitable for use in the manufacture of color television receivers or other color entertainment display devices intended for television viewing. Where a CPT is shipped and imported together with all parts necessary for assembly into a complete television receiver (i.e., as a "kit"), the CPT is excluded from the scope of these orders. In other words, a kit and a fully assembled television are a separate class or kind of merchandise from the CPT. Accordingly, the Department determined that, when CPTs are shipped together with other parts as television receiver kits, they are excluded from the scope of the order. With respect to CPTs which are imported for customs purposes as incomplete television assemblies, we determined that these entries are included within the scope of these investigations unless both of the following criteria are met: (1) The CPT is "physically integrated" with other television receiver components in such a manner as to constitute one inseparable amalgam and (2) the CPT does not constitute a significant portion of the cost or value of the items being imported.¹ Such merchandise was classifiable under Harmonized Tariff Schedule (HTS) item numbers 8540.11.00.10, 8540.11.00.20, 8540.11.00.30, 8540.11.00.40, 8540.11.00.50 and 8540.11.00.60. However, due to changes in the HTS, the subject merchandise is currently classifiable under HTS items 8540.11.10, 8540.11.24, 8540.11.28, 8540.11.30, 8540.11.44, 8540.11.48, and 8540.11.50. The HTS item numbers are provided for convenience and customs purposes only. The written description remains dispositive.

Determination

As a result of the determination by the Commission that revocation of these antidumping duty orders is not likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States, the Department, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(1), is revoking the antidumping duty orders on CPTs from Canada, Japan, Korea, and Singapore. Pursuant to section 751(c)(6)(A)(iv) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(i)(2)(ii), this revocation is effective January 1, 2000. The Department will instruct the U.S. Customs Service to discontinue the suspension of liquidation and collection of cash deposit rates on entries of the subject merchandise entered or withdrawn from warehouse on or after January 1, 2000 (the effective date). The Department will complete any pending administrative reviews of these orders and will conduct administrative reviews of subject merchandise entered prior to the effective date of revocation in response to appropriately filed requests for review.

Notice of Extension of Time Limit for Antidumping Duty Administrative Review: Petroleum Wax Candles From the People's Republic of China

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Extension of time limit.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 18, 2000.

SUMMARY: The Department of Commerce (the Department) is extending the time limit for the preliminary results of the administrative review of the antidumping duty order on petroleum wax candles from the People's Republic of China. This review involves four respondents (Universal Candle Company, Ltd., Liaoning Native Product Import & Export Corporation, Tianjin Native Produce Import and Export Group Corporation, Ltd., and Rich Talent Trading, Ltd.) and covers the period August 1, 1998-July 31, 1999.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Martin Odenyo at (202) 482-5254 or Robert James at (202) 482-0649, Antidumping and Countervailing Duty Enforcement Group III, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Ave, NW, Washington, DC 20230.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: Because it is not practicable to complete this review within the time limits mandated by section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the Tariff Act), the Department is extending the time limit for completion of the preliminary results until Wednesday, August 30, 2000. See April 6, 2000 Memorandum from Richard O. Weible to Joseph A. Spetrini, on file in Room B-099 of the main Commerce building. The final results of this administrative review will continue to be due no later than 120 days after the date on which the preliminary results are published.

This extension is in accordance with section 751(a)(3)(A) of the Tariff Act, as amended.

Dated: April 6, 2000.

Joseph A. Spetrini,

Deputy Assistant Secretary, AD/CVD Enforcement Group III.

Static Random Access Memory Semiconductors From Taiwan; Amended Final Results of Antidumping Duty New Shipper Review

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 18, 2000.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Shawn Thompson or Irina Itkin, AD/CVD Enforcement Group I, Office 2, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20230; telephone (202) 482-1776 or (202) 482-0656, respectively.

Applicable Statute and Regulations

Unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Act are references to the provisions effective January 1, 1995, the effective date of the amendments made to the Act by the Uruguay Round Agreements Act (URAA). In addition, unless otherwise indicated, all citations to the Department's regulations are to 19 CFR part 351 (1999).

Amendment to Final Results

In accordance with section 751(a) of the Act, on March 8, 2000, the Department published the final results of the 1997-1998 new shipper review on static random access memory semiconductors (SRAMs) from Taiwan, in which we determined that U.S. sales of SRAMs from Taiwan were made at less than normal value (65 FR 12214). On March 13, 2000, we received an allegation, timely filed pursuant to 19 CFR 351.224(c)(2), from the petitioner, Micron Technology, Inc. (Micron), that the Department made a ministerial error in its final results. We did not receive comments from GSI Technology, Inc. (GSI Technology), the sole respondent.

After analyzing Micron's submission, we have determined, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.224, that a ministerial error was made in our final margin calculation for GSI Technology. Specifically, we find that we failed to properly apply the hierarchy for defining contemporaneous sales as set forth in 19 CFR 351.414(e)(2) when matching U.S. and home market sales. This resulted in our making certain non-contemporaneous comparisons for purposes of the final results.

In addition to the alleged error identified by Micron, we find that our calculations contained two additional ministerial errors which were not identified by any party to this proceeding. Specifically, we find that we overstated general and administrative (G&A) expenses by including research and development expenses in the costs to which the G&A rate was applied, and our calculation of the import value used to compute the assessment rate contained a mathematical error.

For a detailed discussion of the ministerial errors noted above, as well as the Department's analysis, see the memorandum to Louis Apple from the Team, dated April 11, 2000.

Therefore, in accordance with 19 CFR 351.224(e), we are amending the final results of the 1997-1998 antidumping duty new shipper review on SRAMs from Taiwan. The revised weight-averaged dumping margin is as follows:

Exporter/manufacturer	Original final margin percentage	Revised final margin percentage
GSI Technology	7.38	9.05

Scope of the Review

The products covered by this review are synchronous, asynchronous, and specialty SRAMs from Taiwan, whether assembled or unassembled. Assembled SRAMs include all package types. Unassembled SRAMs include processed wafers or die, uncut die and cut die. Processed wafers produced in Taiwan, but packaged, or assembled into memory modules, in a third country, are included in the scope; processed wafers produced in a third country and assembled or packaged in Taiwan are not included in the scope. The scope of this review includes modules containing SRAMs. Such modules include single in-line processing modules, single in-line memory modules, dual in-line memory modules, memory cards, or other collections of SRAMs, whether unmounted or mounted on a circuit board. The scope of this review does not include SRAMs that are physically integrated with other components of a motherboard in such a manner as to constitute one inseparable amalgam (i.e., SRAMs soldered onto motherboards). The SRAMs within the scope of this review are currently classifiable under the subheadings 8542.13.8037 through 8542.13.8049, 8473.30.10 through 8473.30.90, and 8542.13.8005 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (HTSUS). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of this review is dispositive.

This administrative review and notice are in accordance with sections 751(a)(1) and 777(i) of the Act.

Dated: April 11, 2000.

Acting Assistant Secretary for Import Administration.

Continuation of Antidumping Duty Orders and Countervailing Duty Orders: Top-of-the-Stove Stainless Steel Cooking Ware From Taiwan and Korea

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

ACTION: Notice of continuation of antidumping orders and countervailing duty orders: Top-of-the-stove stainless steel cooking ware from Taiwan and Korea.

SUMMARY: On July 27, 1999, and September 3, 1999, the Department of Commerce ("the Department"), pursuant to sections 751(c) and 752 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended ("the Act"), determined that revocation of the antidumping duty orders and countervailing duty orders on top-of-the-stove stainless steel cooking ware ("TOS cookware") from Taiwan and the Republic of Korea ("Korea") would likely lead to continuation or recurrence of dumping and countervailable subsidies (64 FR 40570 (July 27, 1999) and 64 FR 48372 and 48374 (September 3, 1999)). On April 5, 2000, the International Trade Commission ("the Commission"), pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, determined that revocation of the antidumping duty orders and countervailing duty orders
