SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

This investigation is being instituted in response to a petition filed on March 28, 2001, by Carolina Hydroponic Growers Inc., Leland, NC; Eurofresh, Willcox, AZ; HydroAge, Cocoa, FL; Sunblest Management, Fort Lupton, CO; Sunblest Farms, Peyton, CO; and Village Farms, LP, Eatontown, NJ.

Participation in the Investigation and Public Service List

Persons (other than petitioners) wishing to participate in the investigation as parties must file an entry of appearance with the Secretary to the Commission, as provided in sections 201.11 and 207.10 of the Commission's rules, not later than seven days after publication of this notice in the Federal Register. Industrial users and (if the merchandise under investigation is sold at the retail level) representative consumer organizations have the right to appear as parties in Commission antidumping investigations. The Secretary will prepare a public service list containing the names and addresses of all persons, or their representatives, who are parties to this investigation upon the expiration of the period for filing entries of appearance.

Limited Disclosure of Business Proprietary Information (BPI) Under an Administrative Protective Order (APO) and BPI Service List

Pursuant to section 207.7(a) of the Commission's rules, the Secretary will make BPI gathered in this investigation available to authorized applicants representing interested parties (as defined in 19 U.S.C. 1677(9)) who are parties to the investigation under the APO issued in the investigation, provided that the application is made not later than seven days after the publication of this notice in the Federal Register. A separate service list will be maintained by the Secretary for those parties authorized to receive BPI under the APO.

Conference

The Commission's Director of Operations has scheduled a conference in connection with this investigation for 9:30 a.m. on April 18, 2001, at the U.S. International Trade Commission Building, 500 E Street SW., Washington, DC. Parties wishing to participate in the conference should contact Olympia Hand (202-205-3182) not later than April 11, 2001, to arrange for their appearance. Parties in support of the imposition of antidumping duties in this investigation and parties in opposition to the imposition of such duties will each be collectively allocated one hour within which to make an oral presentation at the conference. A nonparty who has testimony that may aid the Commission's deliberations may request permission to present a short statement at the conference.

Written Submissions

As provided in sections 201.8 and 207.15 of the Commission's rules, any person may submit to the Commission on or before April 23, 2001, a written brief containing information and arguments pertinent to the subject matter of the investigation. Parties may file written testimony in connection with their presentation at the conference no later than three days before the conference. If briefs or written testimony contain BPI, they must conform with the requirements of sections 201.6, 207.3, and 207.7 of the Commission's rules. The Commission's rules do not authorize filing of submissions with the Secretary by facsimile or electronic means.

In accordance with sections 201.16(c) and 207.3 of the rules, each document filed by a party to the investigation must be served on all other parties to the investigation (as identified by either the public or BPI service list), and a certificate of service must be timely filed. The Secretary will not accept a document for filing without a certificate of service.

Authority: This investigation is being conducted under authority of title VII of the Tariff Act of 1930; this notice is published pursuant to section 207.12 of the Commission's rules.

Issued: March 30, 2001.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. 731-TA-678-679 and 681-682 (Review)]

Stainless Steel Bar From Brazil, India, Japan, and Spain

Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year reviews, the United States International Trade Commission determines, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. § 1675(c)) (the Act), that revocation of the antidumping duty orders on stainless steel bar from Brazil, India, Japan, and Spain would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on December 30, 1999 (64 FR 73579) and determined on April 6, 2000, that it would conduct full reviews (65 FR 20834, April 18, 2000). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's reviews and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on July 6, 2000 (65 FR 41728). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on January 30, 2001, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

¹ The record is defined in sec. 207.2(f) of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (19 CFR § 207.2(f)).

The Commission transmitted its determinations in these investigations to the Secretary of Commerce on March 26, 2001. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3404 (March 2001), entitled Stainless Steel Bar from Brazil, India, Japan, and Spain: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-678-679 and 681-682 (Review).

By order of the Commission.

Issued: March 26, 2001.

BILLING CODE 7020-02-P

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[AAG/A Order No. 225-2001]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

Pursuant to the provisions of the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), notice is hereby given that the Department of Justice, Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) is republishing Subsystem G of "The Immigration and Naturalization Service Index System, JUSTICE/INS-001,"—last published October 5, 1993 (58 FR 51847)—as a separate system of records to be entitled "National Automated Immigration Lookout System (NAILS)." The system was formerly entitled, Service Lookout System. Subsystem G is also being redescribed to cancel two sub-subsystems which are no longer required, as the records are now maintained in other systems of records. Records maintained in the Application and petition System are now maintained in the Computer Linked Application Petition System JUSTICE/INS-013. Records maintained in the Correspondence Control Index are now maintained in the JUSTICE/INS-001, Subsystem G, Correspondence Control and Task Tracking System.

NAILS is being redescribed to improve the clarity and accuracy of the system description. Specifically, INS proposes to: (1) Remove inapplicable routine use disclosure provisions; (2) add four routine use disclosures (i.e., C, H, I, and J). (Routine use C will assist INS with its law enforcement functions. Routine use H will allow contractors working for INS to have access to the information in this system of records. Routine use I allows disclosure to former employees when the Department of Justice requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee that is necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility. Finally, routine use J allows disclosure to the Courts and adjudicative bodies to protect the litigation interest of the INS; (3) modify one routine use (D). Routine use D has been revised to remove the applicant, petitioner, or respondent since no routine use disclosure provision is necessary to disclose to these individuals; and (4) make other minor corrections and edits to reflect the current status of this system of records.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a (e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which to comment on the system of records. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibility under the Act, requires a 40-day period in which to conclude its review of the system. Therefore, please submit any comment by (30 days from the publication date of this notice). The public OMB and the Congress are invited to submit any comments to Mary Cahill, Management Analyst, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530 (Room 1400, National Place Building).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress.

Dated: March 29, 2001.

Stephen R. Colgate,

Assistant Attorney General for Administration.

JUSTICE/INS-032

SYSTEM NAME:

National Automated Immigration Lookout System (NAILS).

SYSTEM LOCATION:

Headquarters, Regional and District offices, Administrative Centers, Service centers, ports of entry and other file control offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) in the United States as detailed in JUSTICE/INS-999, last published, April 13, 1999 (64 FR 18052).

CATEGORIES OF INDIVIDUALS COVERED BY THE SYSTEM:

Violators or suspected violators of the criminal or civil provisions of statutes enforced by INS, other federal law enforcement agencies, and persons whom INS has reason to believe are not entitled to be admitted into the United States.

CATEGORIES OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

This system contains names and reference data on violators, alleged violators, and suspected violators of the criminal or civil provisions of the statutes enforced by INS, and other Federal law enforcement agencies. The system also maintains the name and reference data on persons not entitled to be admitted into the United States. The system also interfaces with other INS data systems. They are the Deportable Alien Control System (DACS—system notice JUSTICE/INS-012) lookout records from the Detention and Deportation Branch; records from the Alien Documentation, Identification and Telecommunication (ADIT); Lost/Stolen/Recovered Alien Registration Cards from the Computer Linked Applications Information Management System (CLAIMS—system notice JUSTICE/INS-013); the Non-Immigrant Information System (NIIS) entry and departure information for non-immigrant aliens under the Visa Waiver Pilot Program (VWPP) that are confirmed overstays and refusals; lookout records from the Consular Lookout and Support System (CLASS) and the TIPOFF database (suspected terrorist database) from the United States Department of State; and the Interagency Border Inspection System (IBIS) which supports systems of different border inspection agencies.

AUTHORITY FOR MAINTENANCE FOR THE SYSTEM:

8 U.S.C. 1185.

PURPOSE(S):

The purpose of the system is to facilitate the inspection and investigation processes by providing quick and easy retrieval of biographical or case data on individuals who may be inadmissible to the United States, or may be of interest to other Federal agencies.

ROUTINE USES OF RECORDS MAINTAINED IN THE SYSTEM, INCLUDING CATEGORIES OF USERS AND THE PURPOSE OF SUCH USES:

Relevant information contained in this system of records may be disclosed as follows:

A. To other Federal, State, local government, and international law enforcement and regulatory agencies, foreign governments, the Department of Defense, including all components thereof, the Department of State, the Department of the Treasury, the Central Intelligence Agency, the Selective Service System, the United States Coast Guard, the United Nations, INTERPOL, and individuals and organizations during the course of investigations in the processing of a matter or a proceeding within the purview of the immigration and nationally laws, to elicit information required by the Service to carry out its functions and statutory mandates.
