

individual or organization to which the disclosure would be made is qualified to carry out specific research related to functions or purposes of this system of records. The official may disclose records from this system of records to that researcher solely for the purpose of carrying out that research related to the functions or purposes of this system of records. The researcher shall be required to maintain Privacy Act safeguards with respect to the disclosed records.

(11) Congressional Member Disclosure. The Department may disclose records to a member of Congress from the record of an individual in response to an inquiry from the member made at the written request of that individual. The Member's right to the information is no greater than the right of the individual who requested it.

DISCLOSURE TO CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES:

Not applicable.

POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR STORING, RETRIEVING, ACCESSING, RETAINING, AND DISPOSING OF RECORDS IN THE SYSTEM:

STORAGE:

The records are maintained in hard copy and on a computer database.

RETRIEVABILITY:

The files in this system are retrievable by social security number or name.

SAFEGUARDS:

The database is protected by stringent security mechanisms that include a combination of hardware, operating system, application software, database software, and procedures. This ensures that every employee's Individual Development Planning (IDP) system career planning records are handled with utmost privacy and confidentiality.

Access to the employee's records is controlled through the IDP application by use of a login/password authentication process. The employee is able to change his/her password at will. Status changes of the IDP record set are tracked, and are available in the form of an audit trail.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

An employee's career-planning information for a semi-annual review period remains in the IDP database until four semi-annual cycles have passed. Each cycle is six months in length. The database is purged on a semi-annual basis of any data that is older than two years.
