SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On April 14, 2000, the Department published a Notice of Intent (65 FR 20142) to prepare an environmental impact statement for the proposed Kentucky Pioneer Energy Integrated Gasification Combined Cycle Demonstration Project, in Clark County, Kentucky. The Notice of Intent informed the public of the proposed scope of the EIS, solicited public input, and announced a public scoping meeting that was held on May 4, 2000, in Trapp, Kentucky. The public scoping period closed on May 31, 2000. Comments received during the public scoping process were considered in preparing the Draft EIS.

Since then, the participant in the Cooperative Agreement, Global Energy, Inc. (Global), changed the proposed solid fuel source from fuel briquettes made from high-sulfur coal and municipal solid waste to co-feeding coal and refuse-derived fuel pellets.

Alternatives Considered

The Draft EIS evaluates a proposed action and two no-action alternatives. DOE's proposed action is to provide Kentucky Pioneer Energy, Inc., a subsidiary of Global, with cost-shared funding of approximately $78 million for the construction and operation of a 540 megawatt-electric (MWe) IGCC plant utilizing synthesis gas generated from coal and refused-derived fuel. The plant would also demonstrate a molten-carbonate fuel cell operating on coal-derived synthesis gas. The proposed location for the project is a 300-acre parcel within the existing 3,120-acre J.K. Smith Site, owned by East Kentucky Power Cooperative. The site is approximately two miles west of Trapp, Kentucky.

The two no-Action alternative scenarios are: (1) Global would not construct power generation facilities; and (2) Global would construct a combined-cycle gas turbine plant fueled by natural gas, without DOE funding. The Draft EIS compares the environmental impacts expected to occur from construction and operation of the proposed IGCC plant and fuel cell under the proposed action with the impacts that would be likely from each of the two no-action alternative scenarios.

The Draft EIS focuses on impacts from construction and operation of the proposed project on the following resource areas: human health, air quality, surface water, groundwater, ecological resources, socioeconomic resources, environmental justice, noise, and traffic and transportation. In addition, impacts on land use, floodplains, wetlands, waste management, and cultural resources are considered.

Availability of the Draft EIS

DOE has distributed copies of the Draft EIS to appropriate Members of Congress, State and local government officials in Kentucky, Federal agencies, and other groups and interested parties. Copies of the document may be obtained by contacting DOE as provided in the section of this notice entitled ADDRESSES. Copies of the Draft EIS are also available for inspection at the locations identified below:

Comments on the Draft EIS may be submitted to Mr. Roy Spears (see ADDRESSES above) or provided at public hearings (see DATES above). After the public comment period ends on January 4, 2002, DOE will consider all comments received, revise the Draft EIS as appropriate, and issue a Final EIS. DOE will consider the Final EIS, along with other information, such as economic and technical factors, in deciding whether or not to provide funding for the Kentucky Pioneer IGCC Demonstration Project.
