[Docket Nos. ER02-855-000]

EPDC, Inc.; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 12, 2002.

EPDC, Inc. (EPDC) submitted for filing a rate schedule under which EPDC will engage in the sales of energy, capacity and certain ancillary services at market-based rates and for the reassignment of transmission capacity. EPDC also requested waiver of various Commission regulations. In particular, EPDC requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liability by EPDC.

On March 6, 2002, pursuant to delegated authority, the Director, Office of Markets, Tariffs and Rates—East, granted requests for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the following:

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest the blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liability by EPDC should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214).

Absent a request to be heard in opposition within this period, EPDC is authorized to issue securities and assume obligations or liabilities as a guarantor, indorser, surety, or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issuance or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of EPDC, compatible with the public interest, and is reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

The Commission reserves the right to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued approval of EPDC's issuances of securities or assumptions of liability.

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 5, 2002.

Copies of the full text of the Order are available from the Commission's Public Reference Branch, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426. Federal Energy Regulatory Commission

[Docket Nos. ER02-973-000]

UBS AG; Notice of Issuance of Order

March 12, 2002.

UBS AG (UBS) filed with the Commission, in the above-docketed proceeding, an application under section 205 of the Federal Power Act seeking authority to sell capacity, energy and ancillary services at market-based rates. UBS also requested certain waivers and authorizations. In particular, UBS requested that the Commission grant blanket approval under 18 CFR part 34 of all future issuances of securities and assumptions of liabilities by UBS. On March 7, 2002, the Commission issued an Order Conditionally Accepting Market-Based Rate Schedule (Order). The Commission's Order granted UBS' request for blanket approval under Part 34, subject to the conditions found in Ordering Paragraphs (E), (F), and (H):

(E) Within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, any person desiring to be heard or to protest the Commission's blanket approval of issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities by UBS should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE, Washington, DC 20426, in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 CFR 385.211 and 385.214.

(F) Absent a request to be heard within the period set forth in Ordering Paragraph (E) above, UBS is hereby authorized to issue securities and assume obligations and liabilities as guarantor, indorser, surety or otherwise in respect of any security of another person; provided that such issue or assumption is for some lawful object within the corporate purposes of UBS, compatible with the public interest, and reasonably necessary or appropriate for such purposes.

(H) The Commission reserves the right to modify this order to require a further showing that neither public nor private interests will be adversely affected by continued Commission approval of UBS' issuances of securities or assumptions of liabilities....

Notice is hereby given that the deadline for filing motions to intervene or protests, as set forth above, is April 8, 2002.
