BILLING CODE 4910-13-U

DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

Department of the Air Force

32 CFR Part 935

RIN 0701-AA65

Wake Island Code

AGENCY: Department of the Air Force, DoD.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Department of the Air Force has revised its regulations dealing with the Wake Island Code to reflect current and anticipated use. This was necessary because in 1994 the Air Force terminated operations on the island and removed its personnel. The small number of personnel currently on the island work for the Department of the Army or its contractors and it is not anticipated that Wake Island will again host a permanent population.

EFFECTIVE DATE: April 10, 2002.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Mr. Philip Sheuerman, Associate General Counsel, Department of the Air Force, SAF/GCN, Room 4C921, 1740 Air Force Pentagon, Washington, DC 20330-1740, (703-695-4691).

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department of the Air Force has determined that this rule is not a major rule because it will not have an annual effect on the economy of $100 million or more. The Secretary of the Air Force has certified that this rule is exempt from the requirements of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, 5 U.S.C. 601-612, because this rule does not have a significant economic impact on small entities as defined by the Act, and does not impose any obligatory information requirements beyond internal Air Force use. The Department of the Air Force proposed a revised Wake Island Code, consisting of Part 935 of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations, in the Federal Register on October 25, 2000 (65 FR 63826).

Comments on Proposed Rule 32 CFR Part 935

Comments were received from only one source, the U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command.

Comment: "As the current operator of Wake Island, at least in the short term, SMDC and its employees and contractors are likely to be the parties most affected by these revisions. As a general matter, it is not evident that the current operating arrangement or makeup of the workforce (mostly foreign nationals) was considered in the current revisions. For example, the permitting authority in § 935.11, and other functions, powers, and duties of the Commander of Wake Island in § 935.12, do not appear to consider the contractual relationship between the Army and its operating contractor on Wake Island, which requires the contractor to perform many of these functions. In addition, the provisions relating to the jurisdiction and procedures for the judiciary appear to be more appropriate for an active base with a substantial American population than for the current operational situation on Wake Island."

Response: Many of the comments received from the U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command were based on the supposition that the Army would continue to be the primary presence on the island. That is no longer the case. The Air Force plans to resume responsibility for host management of the island at the beginning of fiscal year 2002. The Air Force has responsibility to provide the necessary level of civil administration for Wake Island considering all probable situations. That includes the possibility that it may return to an active or semi-active status. It is entirely appropriate for the Code to have provisions that contemplate a larger population than currently present or one made up of American nationals. To the extent that an Army contractor is exercising authorities covered by the Code that have not been delegated to it by the Air Force Commander, the contractor is acting without authority. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "The summary of the proposed rule states that one of its major purposes is to "provide for civil government not otherwise provided by law". However, Section 644a of Title 48 of the U.S. Code extended the jurisdiction of the U.S. District Court for the District of Hawaii to "all civil and criminal cases arising on or within * * * Wake Island. * * *" It is not clear how the judicial authority of the Wake Island Court relates to the authority of the U.S. District Court for the District of Hawaii."

Response: The Code has provided for over a quarter century and will continue to provide a civil government not otherwise provided by law. This includes those matters such as traffic laws and other general police powers not included in general federal law. It is clear that the authority of the Wake Island Court is subordinate to that of the U.S. District Court. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.13—Revocation or suspension of permits and registrations. The provision for a personal hearing before the Commander within 30 days could be difficult to implement from this remote location. Substantial travel by the petitioner or the presence on Wake Island of an Air Force commissioned officer with the Commander's delegated authority would be required to implement the provision."

Response: Under current circumstances, a personal hearing could pose a difficulty if the Island Commander were not present on the island and the applicant wanted to make a personal appearance. However, a personal appearance is not required for such a hearing and the applicant is within his rights to waive a personal appearance. Since the alternative is to grant no right of appeal to a revocation or suspension of a permit, the current provision is appropriate for the circumstances. There is no known instance of any applicant for a permit or registration having been unduly burdened by this provision. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.14—Autopsies. This provision assumes that the Wake Island medical officer or someone under his supervision would be qualified to perform autopsies. This may not be a correct assumption."

Response: This provision makes no such assumption. Autopsies can only be performed by a medical officer or a person under his supervision upon authorization of the Island Commander or a Judge of the Wake Island Court. The authorizing official would have to determine that the medical officer or other person were qualified to perform an autopsy prior to granting authorization. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.15—Notaries Public. The purpose of the $50.00 fee for a person applying for commission as a notary public is not evident. The presence of a notary on Wake Island should be viewed as a public service. The fee could remove the incentive to become a notary public."

Response: Since there is no prohibition of a person commissioned as a notary public from charging for his services, an appropriate fee to defray the costs of the United States in granting the commission is entirely appropriate. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.40—Criminal Offenses. (1) The use of the term "assignment" in subsection (c) may not be understood by many to whom it could apply. Recommend a more generally understood term to avoid ambiguity. (2) The prohibition in subsection (h) prohibiting entry upon areas "immediately adjacent to" assigned residential quarters without permission of the occupant is also subject to ambiguous interpretation. Recommend this language be clarified to reflect the actual residential situation on Wake Island. (3) The prohibition in subsection (j) against committing "any act of nuisance" under the listing of criminal offenses appears overbroad and difficult to enforce. Nuisance is normally not criminalized but is handled under the civil law of the respective jurisdiction. (4) The prohibition in subsection (n) against loitering also appears overbroad and difficult to enforce. The need for this provision is not evident, and the terms "without any lawful purpose" and "late and unusual hours of the night" are ambiguous. What is the Air Force experience with this provision on other AF bases?"

Response: These provisions have been in place since 1972 without change. They apply to the peculiar circumstances of Wake Island. There is no known instance of difficulty in applying them. Since the Air Force does not have civil administrative authority over its other installations, it has no experience elsewhere to compare this to. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "(5) SMDC objects to the prohibition in subsection 935.40(v) against importing onto or keeping on Wake Island non-indigenous animals (pets). This is not a restriction under the current operating arrangement, and there are believed to be less restrictive ways to achieve the Air Force objectives (such as a requirement that pets be neutered)."

Response: The goal of this change is to reduce the already existing problem of non-indigenous animals being allowed to breed into feral populations, thereby endangering the indigenous wildlife populations. The alternative to a ban is to institute a cumbersome and expensive program to quarantine animals and require inspections. Such a program would create a burdensome expense and consumption of resources for the Air Force. Since there is no current authority for the personnel now on Wake Island to maintain such non-indigenous animals, this provision should pose no problem for them. Were they to have such animals there now, they would be in violation of the permit allowing their presence on the island. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.65(a)—Jurisdiction. This provision appears to give the Wake Island Court jurisdiction over "civil actions" equivalent to a small claims court. However, there does not appear to be a requirement that the claim have arisen on Wake Island or that the parties be resident on Wake Island. Without such a limitation, there could be numerous problems concerning the applicable law and the enforceability of the court's decrees. In addition, it is not apparent how vesting jurisdiction over civil actions in the Wake Island Court is superior to relying on the U.S. District Court in Hawaii to adjudicate these issues."

Response: Since the Wake Island Court can only exercise its authority in relation to matters under this part, its jurisdiction is necessarily limited to actions on Wake Island or its appurtenant waters since this part is only applicable to those areas. Since there has never before been a problem in this regard, there is no compelling reason to transfer jurisdiction to the U.S. District Court, even assuming it could assume that jurisdiction. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.80—Subpoenas. The requirement of subsection (d) for collection of a witness fee for each subpoena requested by a party other than the United States could have a chilling effect on a defendant's right to conduct a defense against criminal charges brought under the Wake Island Code. It is not clear whether this requirement would apply to civil actions. If so, the chilling effect would also be present in civil actions tried by the Wake Island Court."

Response: Arguably, all fees have a chilling effect on the person desiring to take action. Nevertheless, it is widely accepted that the Government may charge fees, including fees to defray the cost of judicial services. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.97—Garnishment. Is there precedent or authority for the judgment of a court with the limited jurisdiction of the Wake Island Court being honored by other jurisdictions, so as to make this provision effective in carrying out garnishments?"

Response: The authority of the Wake Island Court is founded in federal law. Since all courts have limitations on their jurisdiction, that alone cannot be considered as defeating the authority to garnish wages. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Sections 935.120 and 935.121—Authority and Qualifications of peace officers, respectively. In discussions with both the Marshals Service and U.S. Attorney's Office in Hawaii in March of 1996, the undersigned learned that a procedure for deputizing individuals at Wake Island could be implemented. This would enable U.S. citizens (including contractors) to perform these functions. We recommend that further consideration be given to this option as a way to perform peace officer functions on Wake Island, either to augment or substitute for the peace officers to be appointed by the provisions in the proposed rule."

Response: The authority to perform the functions of a peace officer under the Code flows from a delegation by either the Code or the Island Commander. The Code does not address the authority of U.S. Marshals to enforce the laws of the United States within the territory of the United States. Since the Air Force does not currently have any permanent party personnel on Wake Island and exercises no control over the Army's contractor personnel, it is not inclined to consent to the deputization of such contractor personnel to enforce laws on Wake Island. Such a deputization would detract from the authority of the Island Commander to maintain order and control on the island. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.139—Motor vehicle operator qualifications. The benefit of the Commander issuing vehicle operator's permits, instead of having this function performed under the operating contract, is not clear."

Response: Control of motor vehicle operations on Air Force installations is within the authority of the installation commander. It is not delegated to contractor personnel, and certainly not contractor personnel of another agency over which the Air Force exercises no control. No change will be made in response to this comment.

Comment: "Section 935.140—Motor vehicle maintenance and equipment. This function is encompassed in the operating contract at Wake Island. There does not appear to be a benefit from having the function under the direction of the Commander. This comment also applies to Sections 935.150 and 935.151, and some of the provisions in 935.152."

Response: As noted above, the authority to regulate activities on Wake Island is in the hands of the Island Commander, not an Army contractor. The Army cannot delegate authority it does not have. No change will be made in response to this comment.

That authority has been delegated to the General Counsel of the Air Force with authority to redelegate all or any part of his functions, powers, and duties under this part to such officers and employees of the Air Force as he may designate, but excluding re delegation of the power to promulgate, amend, or repeal this part, or any part thereof. Such re delegation must be in writing and must be in accordance with any applicable Secretary of the Air Force Orders. Such redelegation may be further redelegated subject to such restrictions as the delegating authority may impose. A redelegation may also be made to a commissioned officer serving in another United States military service who exercises military command, but such redelegation must explicitly and specifically list the powers redelegated and shall not include the power or authority to issue permits, licenses, or other outgrants unless individually approved by the Air Force official who made the redelegation. The Commander is the agent of the Secretary, his delegate and designee when carrying out any function, power, or duty assigned under this part.

(n) Perform or direct any other acts, not inconsistent with this part or applicable laws and regulations, if he considers it necessary for protection of the health or safety of persons and property on Wake Island; and

(o) Issue any order or notice necessary to implement this section. Any order or notice issued pursuant to Air Force directives and instructions as applicable to Wake Island shall constitute an order or notice issued pursuant to this section.

§ 935.21 Civil rights, powers, and duties.

In any case in which the civil rights, powers, and duties of any person on Wake Island are not otherwise prescribed by the laws of the United States or this part, the civil rights, powers, and duties as they obtain under the laws of the State of Hawaii will apply to persons on Wake Island.

Subpart D—Criminal Law

§ 935.30 General.

No person may on Wake Island—

§ 935.53 Contempt.

A Judge may, in any civil or criminal case or proceeding, punish any person for disobedience of any order of the Court, or for any contempt committed in the presence of the Court, by a fine of not more than $100, or imprisonment of not more than 30 days, or both.

Subpart G—Judiciary

§ 935.60 Wake Island Judicial Authority.

(a) The judicial authority under this part is vested in the Wake Island Court and the Wake Island Court of Appeals.

(b) The Wake Island Court and the Wake Island Court of Appeals shall each have a seal approved by the General Counsel.

(c) Judges and Clerks of the Courts may administer oaths.

§ 935.61 Wake Island Court.

(a) The trial judicial authority for Wake Island is vested in the Wake Island Court.

(b) The Wake Island Court consists of one or more Judges, appointed by the General Counsel as needed. The term of a Judge shall be for one year, but he may be re-appointed. When the Wake Island Court consists of more than one Judge, the General Counsel shall designate one of the Judges as the Chief Judge who will assign matters to Judges, determine when the Court will sit individually or en banc, and prescribe rules of the Court not otherwise provided for in this Code. If the defendant fails to appear for arraignment, trial or sentence, or otherwise breaches any condition of bail, the Court may direct a forfeiture of the whole or part of the bail and may on motion after notice to the surety or sureties, if any, enter a judgment for the amount of the forfeiture.

(b) The Chief Judge of the Wake Island Court may prescribe a schedule of bail for any offense under this part which the defendant may elect to post and forfeit without trial, in which case the Court shall enter a verdict of guilty and direct forfeiture of the bail.

(c) Bail will be deposited in cash with the Clerk of the Court.

§ 935.101 Seizure of property.

Any property seized in connection with an alleged offense (unless the property is perishable) is retained pending trial in accordance with the orders of the Court. The property must be produced in Court, if practicable. At the termination of the trial, the Court shall restore the property or the funds resulting from the sale of the property to the owner, or make such other proper order as may be required and incorporate its order in the record of the case. Any item used in the commission of the offense, may, upon order of the Court, be forfeited to the United States. All contraband, which includes any item that is illegal for the owner to possess, shall be forfeited to the United States; such forfeiture shall not relieve the owner from whom the item was taken from any costs or liability for the proper disposal of such item.

§ 935.102 Information.

(a) Any offense may be prosecuted by a written information signed by the Island Attorney. However, if the offense is one for which issue of a citation is authorized by this part and a citation for the offense has been issued, the citation serves as an information.

(b) A copy of the information shall be delivered to the accused, or his counsel, as soon as practicable after it is filed.

(c) Each count of an information may charge one offense only and must be particularized sufficiently to identify the place, the time, and the subject matter of the alleged offense. It shall refer to the provision of law under which the offense is charged, but any error in this reference or its omission may be corrected by leave of Court at any time before sentence and is not grounds for reversal of a conviction if the error or omission did not mislead the accused to his prejudice.

§ 935.103 Motions and pleas.

(a) Upon motion of the accused at any time after filing of the information or copy of citation, the Court may order the prosecutor to allow the accused to inspect and copy or photograph designated books, papers, documents, or tangible objects obtained from or belonging to the accused, or obtained from others by seizure or process, upon a showing that the items sought may be material to the preparation of his defense and that the request is reasonable.

(b) When the Court is satisfied that it has jurisdiction to try the accused as charged, it shall require the accused to identify himself and state whether or not he has counsel. If he has no counsel, but desires counsel, the Court shall give him a reasonable opportunity to procure counsel.

(c) When both sides are ready for arraignment, or when the Court determines that both sides have had adequate opportunities to prepare for arraignment, the Court shall read the charges to the accused, explain them (if necessary), and, after the reading or stating of each charge in Court, ask the accused whether he pleads "guilty" or "not guilty". The Court shall enter in the record of the case the plea made to each charge.

(d) The accused may plead "guilty" to any or all of the charges against him, except that the Court may in its discretion refuse to accept a plea of guilty, and may not accept a plea without first determining that the plea is made voluntarily with understanding of the nature of the charge.

(e) The accused may plead "not guilty" to any or all of the charges against him. The Court shall enter a plea of not guilty if the answer of the accused to any charge is such that it does not clearly amount to a plea of guilty or not guilty.

(f) The accused may, at any stage of the trial, with the consent of the Court, change a plea of not guilty to one of guilty. The Court shall then proceed as if the accused had originally pleaded guilty.

§ 935.104 Sentence after a plea of guilty.

If the Court accepts a plea of guilty to any charge or charges, it shall make a finding of guilty on that charge. Before imposing sentence, the Court shall hear such statements for the prosecution and defense, if any, as it requires to enable it to determine the sentence to be imposed. The accused or his counsel may make any reasonable statement he wishes in mitigation or of previous good character. The prosecution may introduce evidence in aggravation, or of bad character if the accused has introduced evidence of good character. The Court shall then impose any lawful sentence that it considers proper.

§ 935.105 Trial.

(a) If the accused pleads not guilty, he is entitled to a trial on the charges in accordance with procedures prescribed in the Rules of Criminal Procedure for the U.S. District Courts (18 U.S.C.), except as otherwise provided for in this part, to the extent the Court considers practicable and necessary to the ends of justice. There is no trial by jury.

(b) All persons shall give their testimony under oath or affirmation. The Chief Judge shall prescribe the oath and affirmation that may be administered by any Judge or the Clerk of the Court.

(c) Upon completion of the trial, the Court shall enter a judgment consisting of a finding or findings and sentence or sentences, or discharge of the accused.

The period for filing an appeal may be waived by the Court of Appeals when the interests of justice so require.

(d) The Court of Appeals may proceed to judgment on the record, or, if the Court considers that the interests of justice so require, grant a hearing.

(e) The decision of the Court of Appeals shall be in writing and based on the record prepared by the Wake Island Court, on the proceedings before the Court of Appeals, if any be had, and on any memoranda that are filed. If the Court of Appeals considers the record incomplete, the case may be remanded to the Wake Island Court for further proceedings.

(f) The decision of the Court of Appeals is final.

§ 935.111 New trial.

A Judge of the Wake Island Court may order a new trial as required in the interest of justice, or vacate any judgment and enter a new one, on motion made within a reasonable time after discovery by the moving party of matters constituting the grounds upon which the motion for new trial or vacation of judgment is made.

40 CFR Part 52

Approval and Promulgation of Implementation Plans; Commonwealth of Kentucky: Approval of Revisions to the 1-Hour Ozone Maintenance State Implementation Plan for the Edmonson County and the Owensboro-Daviess County Area; Clarification

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Final rule; clarification.

SUMMARY: EPA is clarifying its approval of revisions to the 1-hour ozone maintenance plans for the Owensboro area (i.e., Daviess and a portion of Hancock counties), and Edmonson County portions of the Kentucky State Implementation Plan (SIP) submitted on April 16, 1998, by the Commonwealth of Kentucky through the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet. Although not explicit in the language of the document for the approval, the Commonwealth's request and EPA's action involved the approval of an update for emission projections that were originally developed with an earlier version of the EPA mobile emissions model. That same approval action also identified the emission projections as the motor vehicle emissions budgets (or "budgets") for nitrogen oxides (NO_x) and volatile organic compounds (VOC) for use in transportation conformity determinations. However, that action did not specify for what year the "budgets" were being established. This action merely clarifies for which year the "budgets" for NO_x and VOC were being established.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This clarification is effective on May 9, 2002.
