Cooper Wiring Devices, Georgetown, SC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 29, 2001, applicable to workers of Cooper Wiring Devices, Assembly Department, Georgetown, South Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 11, 2001 (66 FR 47241).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. Findings show that the Department limited its certification coverage to workers of the subject firm's Assembly Department.

New company information shows that workers separations will continue at the Georgetown, South Carolina plant as all remaining production related to wiring devices shifts to Mexico. The company is increasing its imports of wiring devices.

It is the intent of the Department to include "all workers" of Cooper Wiring Devices adversely affected by increased imports of wiring devices.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-39,573 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Cooper Wiring Devices, Georgetown, South Carolina who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 27, 2000, through August 29, 2003, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 8th day of March, 2002.

Linda G. Poole,
Certifying Officer, Division of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Doran Mills, LLC, Shelby, NC; Doran Distribution Center, Marion, NC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Notice of Certification Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on January 10, 2002, applicable to workers of Doran Mills, LLC, Shelby, North Carolina. The notice was published in the Federal Register on January 24, 2002 (67 FR 3507).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the production of novelty woven yarns and woven fabric for the apparel, upholstery and home furnishings industries.

New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Doran Distribution Center of Doran Mills, LLC, Marion, North Carolina before it closed in November, 2001. The Marion, North Carolina location provided warehousing and distribution services for the Shelby, North Carolina location of the subject firm that closed in June 2001.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to covers the workers of Doran Distribution Center of Doran Mills, LLC, Marion, North Carolina.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Doran Mills, LLC who were adversely affected by increased imports of novelty woven yarns and woven fabrics.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-39,604 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Doran Mills, LLC, Shelby, North Carolina (TA-W-39,604) and Doran Distribution Center, Marion, North Carolina (TA-W-39,604B) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 20, 2000, through January 10, 2004, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC this 4th day of April, 2002.

Fairchild Semiconductor; Formerly Known as Intersil Corporation, Mountaintop, PA; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 USC 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on November 30, 2001, applicable to workers of Fairchild Semiconductor, Mountaintop, Pennsylvania. The notice was published in the Federal Register on December 26, 2001 (66 FR 66428).

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of computer chips.

The company reports that in March, 2001, Fairchild Semiconductor purchased the Mountaintop, Pennsylvania location of Intersil Corporation and is now known as Fairchild Semiconductor, formerly known as Intersil Corporation.

Information also shows that workers separated from employment at the subject firm, had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (US) tax account for Fairchild Semiconductor, formerly known as Intersil Corporation.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification determination to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Fairchild Semiconductor, formerly known as Intersil Corporation, Mountaintop, Pennsylvania who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-40,054 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Fairchild Semiconductor, formerly known as Intersil Corporation, Mountaintop, Pennsylvania, engaged in the production of computer chips, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 2, 2000, through November 30, 2003, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Levcor International, Inc., New York, NY; Notice of Negative Determination Regarding Application for Reconsideration

By application of January 29, 2001, the company, requested administrative reconsideration of the Department's negative determination regarding eligibility for workers and former workers of the subject firm to apply for Trade Adjustment Assistance (TAA). The denial notice was signed on January 2, 2002 and published in the Federal Register on January 11, 2002 (67 FR 1511).

Pursuant to 29 CFR 90.18(c) reconsideration may be granted under the following circumstances:

(1) If it appears on the basis of facts not previously considered that the determination complained of was erroneous;

(2) If it appears that the determination complained of was based on a mistake in the determination of facts not previously considered; or

(3) If in the opinion of the Certifying Officer, a misinterpretation of facts or of the law justified reconsideration of the decision.

The TAA petition, filed on behalf of workers at Levcor International, Inc. engaged in the production of fabric for apparel, was denied because the criterion (2) of the group eligible requirement was not met. Sales at the subject firm did not decline during the relevant period.

The company alleges that sales at the subject firm decreased during the relevant period. The company further indicated that the most recent sales figures they provided include figures from a company they acquire during the most recent period. The company further indicated that by extracting out those sales figures, subject plant sales would show a decline during the relevant period.

Examination of sales data supplied during the initial investigation and clarification from the company further
