RIN 1115-AE26

Extension of the Designation of Angola Under Temporary Protected Status Program

AGENCY: Immigration and Naturalization Service, Justice.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: The designation of Angola under the Temporary Protected Status (TPS) Program will expire on March 29, 2002. This notice extends the Attorney General's designation of Angola for 12 months until March 29, 2003, and sets forth procedures necessary for nationals of Angola (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Angola) with TPS to re-register for the additional 12-month period. Registration is limited to persons who both registered under the initial designation (which ended on March 29, 2001) and also timely re-registered under the extension of designation, or registered under the redesignation (which ends March 29, 2002). Nationals of Angola (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Angola) who previously have not applied for TPS may be eligible to apply under the late initial registration provisions.

EFFECTIVE DATES: The extension of Angola's TPS designation is effective March 29, 2002, and will remain in effect until March 29, 2003. The 60-day re-registration period begins February 1, 2002 and will remain in effect until April 2, 2002.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Emily Crowder, Program Analyst, Immigration and Naturalization Service, 425 I Street, NW, Room 3040, Washington, DC 20536, telephone (202) 514-4754.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

What Authority Does the Attorney General Have To Extend the Designation of Angola Under the TPS Program?

Section 244(b)(3)(A) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act) states that at least 60 days before the end of a designation, or any extension thereof, the Attorney General must review conditions in the foreign state for which he designation is in effect. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). If the Attorney General does not determine that the foreign state no longer continues to meet the conditions for designation, the period of designation is extended automatically for 6 months pursuant to section 244(b)(3)(C) of the Act, although the Attorney General may exercise his discretion to extend the designation for a period of 12 or 18 months. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(C). With respect to Angola, such an extension makes TPS available only to persons who have been continuously physically present since April 5, 2001, and have continuously resided in the United States since the effective date of the redesignation, April 5, 2001.

Why Did the Attorney General Decide To Extend the TPS Designation for Angola?

On March 29, 2000, the Attorney General designated Angola under the TPS program (65 FR 16634). Since that time, the Departments of Justice and State have continuously reviewed conditions in Angola, extending and redesignating Angola under the TPS program on April 5, 2001 (66 FR 18111). The current review has resulted in a consensus that a further 12-month extension is warranted. A recent Department of State report found that the conditions under which Angola was designated for TPS have not ceased to exist and, therefore, "[t]he situation in Angola remains unsafe for return." Recommendation for Extension Of TPS, INS/DOS Consultation for Angola (November 1, 2001). The Department of Justice reports that "[g]uerilla activities of UNITA have spread in recent months and both sides to the conflict have subjected civilians to a wide range of human rights abuses." The INS Resource Information Center, Angola: Information on Civil Conflict and the Socioeconomic and Humanitarian Situation (December 1, 2001). Such ongoing, armed conflict continues to threaten seriously the personal safety of Angolans, and the Department of State estimates that the fighting between UNTIA rebels and the Angolan Government will continue well into next year. Recommendation for Extension of TPS, INS/DOS Consultation for Angola. "The warring parties have repeatedly subjected the civilian population to forced displacements and acts of violence," including murder and rape. Id. Approximately 3 million Angolans remain internally displaced, 380,000 of whom have been displaced since January 2001. Id. Additionally, UNITA rebels have begun "using terrorist tactics to attack civilians even in government-controlled areas." Id. The armed conflict also continues to effect health conditions in Angola. The Department of State's report cites that "[i]n overcrowded cities and makeshift IDP camps, malnutrition and vitamin deficiency-induced illnesses flourish, while poor water and sanitation conditions create an environment of increased risk of disease and epidemics such as polio and meningitis." Id. Also, the Department of State estimates that there are approximately 8 million landmines planted in Angolan soil, making it such that "[r]eturnees would be at risk of becoming casualties." Id.

Based on this review, the Attorney General finds that the conditions that prompted designation of Angola under the TPS program continue to be met. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(A). There is an ongoing armed conflict within Angola and, due to such conflict, requiring the return of aliens who are nationals of Angola (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Angola) would pose a serious threat to their personal safety. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1)(A). Furthermore, there exist extraordinary and temporary conditions in Angola that prevent nationals of Angola (and aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Angola) from returning home in safety. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(1)(C). Finally, permitting nationals of Angola to remain temporarily in the United States is not contrary to the national interest of the United States. Id. On the basis of these findings, the Attorney General concludes that the TPS designation for Angola should be extended for an additional 12-month period. 8 U.S.C. 1254a(b)(3)(C).

If I Currently Have TPS Through the Angola TPS Program, Do I Still Re-Register for TPS?

Yes. If you have already been granted TPS through the Angola TPS program, your status will expire on March 29, 2002. Accordingly, you must re-register for TPS in order to maintain your status through March 29, 2003. See the re-registration instructions below.

If I Am Currently Registered for TPS, How Do I Re-Register for an Extension?

All persons previously granted TPS under the Angola program who wish to maintain such status must apply for an extension by filing (1) a Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, without the $50 filing fee; (2) a Form I-765, Application for
