

transmitting stations within a Loran-C chain to develop a navigational position. Port Clarence is a USCG Loran-C Station, whose sole purpose is to maintain and operate the Loran-C equipment providing electronic navigation signals supporting maritime and aviation uses in Alaska. Port Clarence was constructed in the early 1960's as one of the first generation of Loran-C stations. The station is located on 2,646 acres of land on Point Spencer, a 12-mile long gravel spit extending into the Bering Sea at the west end of Alaska's Seaward Peninsula. Loran-C station Port Clarence's remote location requires the Coast Guard to generate their own electrical power, maintain large fuel tanks, maintain aging buildings and equipment, and fly in provisions for station equipment and personnel. In an effort to reduce operating costs, the Coast Guard is considering relocating the Loran-C Station to Nome, Alaska where commercial power and daily commercial flights are available. If the Loran-C station is built in Nome it will be equipped with the latest Loran-C technology and optimized for minimal staffing.

Impact to 9990 and 7960 Loran-C Coverage

Disestablishing Loran-C Station Port Clarence and establishing a new Loran-C Station in the Nome, Alaska area will likely affect the public's usage of Loran-C. While the coverage area provided by the 9990 and 7960 Loran-C chains will vary only slightly, users will no longer be able to use the 9990-Y or 7960-Z baselines without having their receivers reprogrammed to reflect the changes in latitude and longitude. It is possible that receivers that are not reprogrammed could provide hazardously misleading information to the user. In addition, timing users will need to determine a new reference value due to the new geographic location of the station.

Diagrams of the proposed change in coverage can be viewed at <http://www.navcen.uscg.gov> as well as in the docket for this notice at <http://dms.dot.gov>.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: HUD is submitting the proposed information collection to the OMB for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. chapter 35, as amended).

This notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information for: (1) the collection of information relative to the Fair Housing Act (Act). The Act prohibits discrimination in the sale, rental, advertising, and insuring of residential dwellings, and in residential real estate-related transactions, based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap [disability], familial status, or national origin.

Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice, or who believes that he or she will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur, may file a complaint with HUD not later than one year after the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurred or terminated. (2) Form HUD-903.1 was developed in order to promote consistency in the documents that, by statute, must be provided to persons against whom complaints are filed, as well as for the convenience of the general public. Section 103.25 of HUD's Fair Housing Act regulation describes the information that must be included in each complaint filed with HUD. For purposes of meeting the Act's one-year time limitation for filing complaints with HUD, complaints need not initially be submitted on the Form that HUD provides. (3) Housing Discrimination Complaint Form HUD-903.1 (English language), HUD-903.1A (Spanish language), HUD-903-1B (Chinese language), HUD-903.1F (Vietnamese language), and HUD.903.1K (Korean language) may be filed by mail, in person, by telephone, or via the Internet with HUD's Office of Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity (FHEO). FHEO staff uses the information provided on the Form to verify HUD's authority [jurisdiction] to investigate the complainant's allegations under the Act.

Notice of Submission of Proposed Information Collection to OMB

Title of Proposal: Housing Discrimination Information Form.

Office: Fair Housing and Equal Opportunity, HUD.

OMB Control Number: 2529-0011.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use: The Housing Discrimination Information Form (Form) is used for the collection of pertinent information from persons who wish to file housing discrimination complaints with HUD under the Fair Housing Act (Act). The Act makes it unlawful to discriminate in the sale, rental, advertising, or insuring of residential dwellings, or to discriminate in residential real estate-related transactions, based on race, color, religion, sex, handicap [disability], familial status, or national origin.

Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice, or any person who believes that he or she will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur, may file a complaint with HUD not later than one year after the alleged discriminatory housing practice occurs or terminates. The Form promotes consistency in the collection of information necessary to contact persons who file housing discrimination complaints with HUD, and in the collection of information necessary for making initial assessments of HUD's authority [jurisdiction] to investigate under the Act.

This information may subsequently be provided to persons against whom complaints are filed ["respondents"], as required under the Act.

Agency form numbers, if applicable: Form HUD-903.1 (English), HUD-903.1A (Spanish), HUD-903-1B (Chinese), HUD-903.1F (Vietnamese), and HUD-903.1K (Korean).

Members of affected public: Individuals or households, businesses or other for-profit, not-for-profit institutions, State, Local, or Tribal Governments.

Estimation of the total number of hours needed to prepare the information collection, including the number of respondents, frequency of response, and hours of responses:

HUD estimates that during the course of a year, approximately 10,750 housing discrimination complaints are submitted to HUD. HUD further estimates that a complainant takes approximately 20 minutes to complete the Form. The Form is completed once by each complainant. Therefore, the total number of annual burden hours for this Form is 3583 hours.

$10,750 \times 1$ (frequency) \times 20 minutes = 3583 hours.

There is no annualized cost to complainants. Complainants submit the Form to HUD by mail, using a postage-paid mailer at no cost to the complainant. Complainants also may submit the Form to HUD electronically via the Internet.

Status of the proposed information collection: Reinstatement of a currently approved revised collection to reflect the collection of information from persons wishing to file Fair Housing Act complaints with HUD.

Authority: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. chapter 35, as amended).

Dated: June 16, 2004.

Turner Russell,

Director, Enforcement Division.
