The Proposal

The FAA is considering an amendment to the Code of Federal Regulations (14 CFR part 71), which would establish new Class E airspace at Prospect Creek, AK. The intended effect of this proposal is to establish Class E airspace upward from 700 ft. above the surface, to contain Instrument Flight Rules (IFR) operations at Prospect Creek, AK.

The Special Instrument Flight Procedures developed for the Prospect Creek Airport currently are not contained in Class E airspace. To improve safety, the FAA is proposing to establish Class E airspace at Prospect Creek, AK, which would be sufficient to contain aircraft executing instrument procedures. New Class E controlled airspace extending upward from 700 ft. above the surface within the Prospect Creek Airport area would be created by this action.

The area would be depicted on aeronautical charts for pilot reference. The coordinates for this airspace docket are based on North American Datum 83. The Class E airspace areas designated as 700/1200 foot transition areas are published in paragraph 6005 in FAA Order 7400.9M, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, dated August 30, 2004, and effective September 16, 2004, which is incorporated by reference in 14 CFR 71.1. The Class E airspace designations listed in this document would be published subsequently in the Order.

The FAA has determined that this proposed regulation only involves an established body of technical regulations for which frequent and routine amendments are necessary to keep them operationally current. It, therefore—(1) is not a "significant regulatory action" under Executive Order 12866; (2) is not a "significant rule" under DOT Regulatory Policies and Procedures (44 FR 11034; February 26, 1979); and (3) does not warrant preparation of a regulatory evaluation as the anticipated impact is so minimal. Since this is a routine matter that will only affect air traffic procedures and air navigation, it is certified that this rule, when promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the criteria of the Regulatory Flexibility Act.

The Proposed Amendment

1. The authority citation for 14 CFR part 71 continues to read as follows:

§ 71.1 [Amended]

2. The incorporation by reference in 14 CFR 71.1 of Federal Aviation Administration Order 7400.9M, Airspace Designations and Reporting Points, dated August 30, 2004, and effective September 16, 2004, is to be amended as follows:

Background and purpose. The City of Fall River, Massachusetts is petitioning the Coast Guard to develop regulations relating to marine transportation of liquid natural gas (LNG). Specifically, the City requests promulgation of regulations to apply the same thermal and vapor dispersion exclusion zone requirements established by the Department of Transportation for LNG spills on land (49 CFR Parts 193.2057 and 193.2059), to LNG spills on water. The City's petition included expanded discussion on this issue and may be read in its entirety in the docket. The public is invited to review the material contained in the docket and submit relevant comments. The Coast Guard will consider the City's petition, any comments received from the public, and other information to determine whether or not to initiate the requested rulemaking.
