

their complaints are received, and to notify them of any action (or refusal to act) with respect to their complaints. In cases where an investor and member are unable to resolve a dispute, records of complaints and responses will document the sequence of correspondence and/or actions for use in any potential formal resolution proceedings.

The Commission believes that the Exchange's proposed requirements relating to the timing and method of delivery of acknowledgements and responses are also reasonably designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest, consistent with section 6(b)(5) of the Act.¹⁰ The Commission notes that written, mailed acknowledgements and responses will always be sufficient, but that e-mail or verbal correspondence will be permitted where the complaint is transmitted by such means. These requirements should minimize any confusion regarding how a complaint is to be processed, and limit administrative burdens on NYSE members. Likewise, the Commission believes that requiring acknowledgements to be delivered within 15 business days of receipt of a complaint, and responses to be delivered "within a reasonable period of time" should promote prompt and effective resolution of customer complaints, while allowing NYSE members the flexibility to tailor specific responses.

Proposed Rule 401A(c) would require retention of records of acknowledgements and responses in accordance with NYSE Rule 440. The Commission believes that this record-keeping requirement should assist the Exchange in monitoring and enforcing compliance with proposed Rule 401A, as well as Rule 351(d), by allowing it to compare the number of a member's reported complaints to the number of acknowledgements and responses. Finally, the acknowledgements, responses, and logs required by new Rule 401A(c) may contain useful information for the member's compliance personnel insofar as it may relate to other obligations of the member, such as the preparation of its annual report on supervision and compliance efforts during the preceding year. See e.g., NYSE Rule 342 ("Offices—Approval, Supervision and Control").

The proposed rule change is also consistent with section 6(b)(6)¹¹ of the Act, which requires the rules of the Exchange to provide for its members and persons associated with its members to be appropriately disciplined for violations of those rules through fitting sanctions, including the imposition of fines, and with Rule 19d-1(c)(2) under the Act¹² which governs minor rule violation plans. Rule 476A allows the NYSE to impose sanctions for rule violations that do not rise to the level of requiring formal disciplinary proceedings. Because of the possible range of severity of a member's failure to satisfy the acknowledgement provisions of the proposed new rule, Rule 476A would be amended in order to allow the NYSE to sanction less serious failures with minor fines. The Commission notes that this proposal will render violations of the acknowledgement provisions of new Rule 401A eligible for treatment as minor violations, but will not require it in all cases. Thus, the Exchange will remain able to determine, on a case-by-case basis, whether a particular violation requires formal disciplinary action. Therefore, the Commission believes that this change will not compromise the Exchange's ability to bring formal disciplinary actions for more serious violations of Rule 401A, but will augment its ability to enforce its rules in cases where full disciplinary proceedings are not warranted.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to section 19(b)(2) of the Act,¹³ and Rule 19d-1(c)(2) under the Act,¹⁴ that the proposed rule change (SR-NYSE-2004-59) be, and hereby is, approved.¹⁵

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.¹⁶

- Minimize the reporting burden on those who are to respond, including the use of automated collection techniques or other forms of technology.

Abstract of proposed collection: The U.S. Department of State Driver License and Tax Exemption Card Application form (DS 1972) is the means by which foreign missions in the United States request the issuance of a driver license and/or a sales tax exemption card for foreign mission personnel and their dependents. The exemption from sales taxes and the operation of a motor vehicle in the United States by foreign mission personnel are benefits under the Foreign Missions Act, 22 U.S.C. 4301 et seq., which must be obtained by foreign missions through the U.S. Department of State, Office of Foreign Missions (DS/OFM). The DS-1972 application form provides OFM with the necessary information required to administer the two benefits effectively and efficiently. Sales tax exemption is enjoyed under the provisions of international law but is granted on the basis of reciprocity. The administration of driver licenses at the national level helps the Federal Government identify operators who repeatedly receive citations. This also helps the Federal Government determine the necessary course of action that may be required against an individual's driving privilege. Accordingly, the Federal Government is able to provide consistency to the diplomatic community on a national level through a uniform program.

Methodology: Currently, this form is submitted by foreign missions in paper format, and the information is then entered into an electronic database, maintained and utilized by the Office of Foreign Missions.

Dated: April 1, 2005.

John R. Arndt,

Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Diplomatic Security, Office of Foreign Missions, Department of State.
