

assumptions. Because of the rapid change in the media arena in just the past 12 months, relying on data collected more than a few months ago—much less data gathered years ago—would likely produce a picture of media use that bears little resemblance to current reality. Failure to gather this information in a timely way can lead to a misinformed Commission, Congress, and public—leading to the possibility of inappropriate or ineffective public policy. The complete OMB submission may be found on the RegInfo.Gov Web site which is located at <http://www.reginfo.gov/public/do/PRAMain>. Those interested in reading this collection should select the Federal Communications Commission in the “Currently Under Review” section of this web page. Interested parties should then look for the new, unnumbered collection that is named “How People Get News and Information—Media Ownership Study 1.” Alternatively, interested parties can also look for the collection of this name on the Commission’s PRA Web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/omd/pr/>.

FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION

Granting of Request for Early Termination of the Waiting Period Under the Premerger Notification Rules

Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. 18a, as added by Title II of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, requires persons contemplating certain mergers or acquisitions to give the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General advance notice and to wait designated periods before consummation of such plans. Section 7A(b)(2) of the Act permits the agencies, in individual cases, to terminate this waiting period prior to its expiration and requires that notice of this action be published in the Federal Register.

The following transactions were granted early termination of the waiting period provided by law and the premerger notification rules. The grants were made by the Federal Trade Commission and the Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice. Neither agency intends to take any action with respect to these proposed acquisitions during the applicable waiting period.
