SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On June 11, 2009 (74 FR 27731), EPA published a notice of proposed rulemaking announcing the approval of West Virginia's CAIR rules and recodification and revision of provisions pertaining to internal combustion engines and cement kilns that are subject to the NO_x SIP Call. In the preamble of this document, EPA inadvertently printed the incorrect number of allowances in West Virginia's Compliance Supplement Pool (CSP). This action corrects the number of allowances in the West Virginia CSP from 4,898 allowances to 16,929 allowances.

Correction

In rule document E9-13725, on page 27736, the first sentence of the third paragraph in the first column should read: "West Virginia's compliance supplement pool is comprised of 16,929 allowances."

Statutory and Executive Order Reviews

Under the Clean Air Act, the Administrator is required to approve a SIP submission that complies with the provisions of the Act and applicable Federal regulations. 42 U.S.C. 7410(k); 40 CFR 52.02(a). Thus, in reviewing SIP submissions, EPA's role is to approve state choices, provided that they meet the criteria of the Clean Air Act. Accordingly, this action merely proposes to approve state law as meeting Federal requirements and does not impose additional requirements beyond those imposed by state law. For that reason, this proposed action:

- Is not a "significant regulatory action" subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget under Executive Order 12866 (58 FR 51735, October 4, 1993);
- Does not impose an information collection burden under the provisions of the Paperwork Reduction Act (44 U.S.C. 3501 et seq.);
- Is certified as not having a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities under the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.);
- Does not contain any unfunded mandate or significantly or uniquely affect small governments, as described in the Unfunded Mandates Reform Act of 1995 (Pub. L. 104-4);
- Does not have Federalism implications as specified in Executive Order 13132 (64 FR 43255, August 10, 1999);
- Is not an economically significant regulatory action based on health or
