A statement is added clarifying that electronic images of Fee claims may be maintained at field facilities and at the VA Financial Service Center, Austin, Texas. Reference to Veterans Benefits Administration (VBA) Regional Directors and Division Offices has been deleted as a system location site as no information from this system of records is maintained at those offices.

The Categories of Individuals Covered by the System has been amended to update legal citations. The authority for maintenance of the system has been amended to provide updated references.

The Categories of Records in the System was amended to further explain the personal information contained in the system. Additional information was added to explain claim data information necessary to properly consider claims for payment, correspondence concerning individuals and documents pertaining to claims for medical services, reasons for denial of payment and appellate determinations.

The Purpose has been updated to reflect VA's reasons for maintaining this system of records, including establishing and monitoring of eligibility for and payment of non-VA health care services.

Policies and practices for storing, retrieving, accessing, retaining, and disposing of records in the system has been amended by removing specific references to automated system nomenclature and deleting references to Veterans Benefit Administration offices.

Additional statements were added to describe the records stored at the Health Administration Center, ways to retrieve the information at the Allocation Resource Center, and to provide notice that paper documents may be destroyed following imaging. The organizational name for Regional Directors and Division Offices has been updated to reflect its current title, Veterans Integrated Service Networks.

The system manager(s) and address has been updated to reflect the correct title for the official responsible for policies and procedures and the new address for the location of the national fee office. The Record Source Categories has been revised to identify the name of each Federal agency that is a source of information to the record system and removing reference to their Privacy Act system of records as the source.

Routine Uses of Records Maintained in the System, including Categories of Users and the Purposes of Such Uses has been amended. The introductory paragraph was reworded to indicate compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act requirements and VA's statutory requirements governing confidentiality of certain medical records.

Routine use one (1) has been amended by deleting the provision to release information to foreign government agencies. Routine uses four (4) and five (5) have been consolidated and amended with the addition of disclosing information to the Department of the Treasury for the purpose of debt collection. Routine uses 6 through 12 have been renumbered as routine uses 5 to 11. Renumbered routine use 9 has been amended to allow VA to disclose to the billing or collection agents of non-VA health care providers for payment purposes. Routine use thirteen (13) has been renumbered as routine use twelve (12) and amended to permit disclosure of payment information to any other Federal agency for the purpose of identifying and collecting duplicate payments potentially made for the same services. Routine use fourteen (14) has been renumbered as routine use thirteen (13).

New routine use statements 14 through 29 have been added to permit disclosure of information to Federal agencies and other parties for the described purposes:

- Routine use fourteen (14) authorizes disclosure of information to attorneys, insurance companies, employers, boards, or commissions when needed to aid VA in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of claims authorized under law and regulation. This routine use is necessary in order for VA to properly assert its rights to prosecute and defend legal actions, in which VA is a party, and to realize any asset, right, and benefit that VA is entitled by law and regulation.

- Routine use fifteen (15) permits disclosure of information to Department of Justice to aid the United States in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution or defense of claims and actions involving the United States. This routine use is necessary in order for the government of the United States to properly assert its rights to prosecute and defend legal actions, in which it is named a party, and to realize any asset, right, and benefit so entitled or assigned by law and regulation. This routine use would not constitute authority to disclose records in response to a court order under the Privacy Act subsection (b)(11), 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(11), or any other provision of the Privacy Act subsection (b), pursuant to the court's analysis in Doe v. DiGenova, 779 F.2d 74, 78–84 (D.C. Cir. 1985) and Doe v. Stephens, 851 F.2d 1457, 1465–67 (D.C. Cir. 1988).

- Routine use sixteen (16) allows disclosure of information in connection with any proceeding for the collection of a debt owed by an individual by virtue of his or her participation in a benefits program administered by VA. As required by 38 U.S.C. 5701(b)(6) the disclosure may be made for the purpose of collecting the debt, and to initiate legal action to prosecute any individual who willfully and fraudulently obtained VA benefits. This routine use is needed for VA to collect debts owed the United States.

- Routine use seventeen (17) allows disclosure of the name and address, and other information needed for personal identification, to a consumer-reporting agency, about an individual who has been administratively determined to be indebted to the United States by virtue of participating in a benefits program administered by VA. The purpose for VA making this disclosure is to locate the individual, to obtain a credit report to assess the individual's ability to pay the debt, and to assist in the collection of the debt. This routine use is needed for VA to collect debts owed the United States by virtue of a person's participation in a benefits program administered by VA. Any disclosure made under this routine use must comply with the provisions of 38 U.S.C. 5701(g)(2) and 38 U.S.C. 5701(g)(4).

- Routine use eighteen (18) permits VA to disclose to anyone upon request the amount of any VA payment received by a named individual. This routine use is needed by VA to comply with the provision of 38 U.S.C. 5701(c)(1).

- Routine use nineteen (19) authorizes the disclosure of the name and address of an individual to another Federal agency upon request for the purpose of their conducting government research to accomplish a statutory purpose of the agency. As permitted by statute certain Federal agencies, such as the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, conduct research studies for the purpose of understanding and improving public health, safety, etc. This routine use is necessary in order for VA to respond to a request for the name and address of veterans or beneficiaries as potential research participants in the conduct of approved research studies.

- Routine use twenty (20) allows VA to disclose information relevant to a claim filed on behalf of a veteran or beneficiary to the individual's designated service organization, agent or attorney for the purpose of assisting the claimant in the preparation, presentation, and prosecution of his or her claim under the laws administered by VA.

- Routine use twenty-one (21) permits VA to disclose information to an individual's appointed Federal fiduciary or to the individual's guardian ad litem that they need to fulfill their appointed duties. This routine use is needed by VA to assist those veterans and beneficiaries properly determined unable to handle their own affairs.

- Routine use twenty-two (22) is needed by VA to report the amount of an individual's indebtedness waived under 38 U.S.C. 3102, the amount of indebtedness compromised under 4 CFR Part 103, otherwise forgiven, or uncollectible due to expiration of the applicable statute of limitations to Department of Treasury as gross income for tax purposes as defined by 26 U.S.C. 61(a)(12).

- Routine use twenty-three (23) authorizes VA to disclose to Department of Treasury information concerning an individual's uncollected indebtedness by virtue of his or her participation in a benefits program administered by VA for the purpose of collecting the debt by set off of the individual's Federal income tax refund. This routine use is necessary for VA to maximize collection of monies owed to the United States.

- Routine use twenty-four (24) authorizes the disclosure of the name, date of birth, and social security number for an individual applying for, or who is in receipt of VA benefits, to the Social Security Administration (SSA) for validation purposes, as VA benefit, payment, and indebtedness records are indexed using the individual's social security number. Verification of the individual's social security number ensures proper and accurate accounting and reporting practices. The verification of social security numbers may be accomplished with SSA by computer matching.

- Routine use twenty-five (25) permits VA, in response to an inquiry from a member of the general public, to disclose the name and address of any health care provider who received VA payment for healthcare services furnished to a veteran or beneficiary. The purpose of this disclosure is to assist veterans and others who have difficulty in finding a healthcare provider in their community who accepts VA payment for healthcare services.

- Routine use twenty-six (26) permits disclosure of relevant information by VA to an accredited Quality Review and Peer Review organization for the purpose of reviewing claims or other review activities associated with VA healthcare facility accreditation to professionally accepted standards. VA seeks certification by accredited reviewer organizations, such as The Joint Commission, Utilization Review Accreditation Commission (URAC) etc., to ensure compliance with accepted industry quality standards. Accreditation improves the quality of VA services delivered to veterans and beneficiaries.

- Routine use twenty-seven (27) permits disclosure of eligibility and claim information to a health care provider regarding eligibility, authorization, billing and payment for needed medical services. The purpose of making these disclosures is to assist the healthcare provider in obtaining reimbursement for claimed medical services, to facilitate billing processes, verify eligibility for requested healthcare services, and provide payment information for claimed services.

- Routine use twenty-eight (28) has been added to allow VA to conduct computer matching activities with other Federal agencies where necessary to assist VA in determining or verifying eligibility for certain benefits.

- Routine use twenty-nine (29) permits disclosure to third party payers or their contractors for purposes relating to payment, including audit of payment and claims management processes.

- Routine use thirty (30) permits disclosures by the Department to report a suspected incident of identity theft and provide information and/or documentation related to or in support of the reported incident.

- Routine use thirty-one (31) permits disclosures by the Department to respond to a suspected or confirmed data breach, including the conduct of any risk analysis or provision of credit protection services as provided in 38 U.S.C. 5724, as the terms are defined in 38 U.S.C. 5727.

The Report of Intent to Amend a System on Records Notice and an advance copy of the system notice have been sent to the appropriate Congressional committees and to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) as required by 5 U.S.C. 552a(r) (Privacy Act) and guidelines issued by OMB (65 FR 77677), December 12, 2000.

Approved: August 14, 2009.

Claim information disclosed may include payment information such as payment identification number, date of payment, date of service, amount billed, amount paid, name of payee, and reasons for non-payment.

28. These records may also be disclosed as part of a computer matching program to accomplish this purpose.

30. Disclosure to other Federal agencies may be made to assist such agencies in preventing and detecting possible fraud or abuse by individuals in their operations and programs.

31. VA may, on its own initiative, disclose any information or records to appropriate agencies, entities, and persons when (1) VA suspects or has confirmed that the integrity or confidentiality of information in the system of records has been compromised; (2) the Department has determined that as a result of the suspected or confirmed compromise, there is a risk of embarrassment or harm to the reputations of the record subjects, harm to economic or property interests, identity theft or fraud, or harm to the security, confidentiality, or integrity of this system or other systems or programs (whether maintained by the Department or another agency or entity) that rely upon the potentially

STORAGE:

Records are maintained on paper documents or stored electronically by magnetic discs, magnetic tape, and optical or digital imaging at the authorizing VA healthcare facility. Reports and information on automated storage media (e.g., microfilm, microfiche, magnetic tape and disks, and digital and laser optical media) is stored at the authorizing VA healthcare facility, VA Headquarters, ARC, OIFOs, FSC & AITC and Veterans Integrated Service Network (VISN) offices.

Information pertaining to electronic claims submitted to VA for payment consideration may be stored at the authorizing VA healthcare facility and at HAC. Records maintained at HAC are stored electronically.

RETRIEVABILITY:

Paper and electronic records pertaining to the individual may be retrieved by the name or Social Security number of the record subject. Records pertaining to the healthcare provider are retrieved by the name or Social Security and taxpayer identification number of the non-VA healthcare institution or provider. Records at the ARC are retrieved only by Social Security number.

SAFEGUARDS:

1. VA will maintain the data in compliance with applicable VA security policy directives that specify the standards that will be applied to protect sensitive personal information. Contractors and their subcontractors who access the data are required to maintain the same level of security as VA staff. Working spaces and record storage areas in VA facilities are restricted to VA employees. Generally, file areas are locked after normal duty hours and healthcare facilities are protected from outside access by security personnel. Access to the records is restricted to VA employees who have a need for the information in the performance of their official duties. Employee records or records of public figures or otherwise sensitive records are generally stored in separate locked files.

2. Electronic data security complies with applicable Federal Information Processing Standards (FIPS) issued by the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST). Access to computer rooms at healthcare facilities is generally limited by appropriate locking devices and restricted to authorized VA employees and vendor personnel. Peripheral devices are generally placed in secure areas (areas that are locked or have limited access) or are otherwise protected. Access to file information is controlled at two levels: the system recognizes authorized employees by a series of individually unique passwords/codes that must be changed periodically by the employee, and employees are limited by role-based access to only that information in the file which is needed in the performance of their official duties. Information that is downloaded and maintained on personal computers is afforded similar storage and access protections as the data that is maintained in the original files. Remote access to file information by staff of the OIFOs, and access by OIG staff conducting an audit or investigation at the healthcare facility or an OIG office location remote from the healthcare facility is controlled in the same manner.

3. Access to FSC and AITC is generally restricted to Center employees, custodial personnel and security personnel. Access to computer rooms is restricted to authorized operational personnel through electronic locking devices. All other persons gaining access to computer rooms are escorted. Authorized VA employees at remote locations, including VA healthcare facilities, OIFOs, VA Headquarters, VISN offices, and OIG headquarters and field staff, may access information stored in the computer. Access is controlled by individually unique passwords/codes that must be changed periodically by the employee.

4. Access to records maintained at VA Headquarters, ARC, OIFOs, and VISN offices is restricted to VA employees who have a need for the information in the performance of their official duties. Access to information stored on automated storage media is controlled by individually unique passwords/codes that must be changed periodically by the employee. Authorized VA employees at remote locations including

VA healthcare facilities may access information stored in the computer. Access is controlled by individually unique passwords/codes. Records are maintained in manned rooms during nonworking hours. The facilities are protected from outside access during working hours by security personnel.

5. Information downloaded and maintained by the OIG Headquarters and field offices on automated storage media is secured in storage areas or facilities to which only OIG staff members have access. Paper documents are similarly secured. Access to paper documents and information on automated storage media is limited to OIG employees who have a need for the information in the performance of their official duties. Access to information stored on automated storage media is controlled by individually unique passwords/codes.

6. Access to records maintained at HAC Office of Information and Technology (OI&T) is restricted to VA employees who have a need for the information in the performance of their official duties. Access to information stored on automated storage media is controlled by individually unique passwords/codes that must be changed periodically by the employee. Authorized VA employees at remote locations including VA healthcare facilities may access and print information stored in the computer. Access is controlled by individually assigned unique passwords/codes. Records are maintained in a secured, pass card protected and alarmed room. The facilities are protected from outside access during non-working hours by security personnel.

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Paper and electronic documents at the authorizing healthcare facility related to authorizing the fee basis care and the services authorized, billed and paid for are maintained in "Patient Medical Records—VA" (24VA19). These records are retained at healthcare facilities for a minimum of three years after the last episode of care. After the third year of inactivity the paper records are transferred to a records facility for seventy-two (72) more years of storage.

Automated storage media, imaged fee claims, and other paper documents that are included in this system of records and not maintained in "Patient Medical Records—VA" (24VA19) are retained and disposed of in accordance with disposition authority approved by the Archivist of the United States.

Paper records that are imaged for viewing electronically are destroyed after they have been scanned, and the electronic copy determined to be an accurate and complete copy of the paper record imaged.
