POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

39 CFR Part 3020

[Docket Nos. MC2009-36 and CP2009-55; Order No. 279]

New Postal Product

AGENCY: Postal Regulatory Commission.

ACTION: Final rule.

SUMMARY: The Commission is adding Priority Mail Contract 16 to the Competitive Product List. This action is consistent with changes in a recent law governing postal operations. Republication of the lists of market dominant and competitive products is also consistent with new requirements in the law.

DATES: Effective September 8, 2009 and is applicable beginning August 17, 2009.

I. Introduction

The Postal Service seeks to add a new product identified as Priority Mail Contract 16 to the Competitive Product List. For the reasons discussed below, the Commission approves the Request.

II. Background

On July 24, 2009, the Postal Service filed a formal request pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 3642 and 39 CFR 3020.30 et seq. to add Priority Mail Contract 16 to the Competitive Product List.¹ The Postal Service asserts that the Priority Mail Contract 16 product is a competitive product “not of general applicability” within the meaning of 39 U.S.C. 3632(b)(3). This Request has been assigned Docket No. MC2009-36.

The Postal Service contemporaneously filed a contract related to the proposed new product pursuant to 39 U.S.C. 3632(b)(3) and 39 CFR 3015.5. The contract has been assigned Docket No. CP2009-55.

In support of its Request, the Postal Service filed the following materials: (1) A redacted version of the contract which, among other things, provides that the contract will expire 1 year from the effective date, which is proposed to be the day that the Commission issues all regulatory approvals;² (2) requested changes in the Mail Classification Schedule product list;³ (3) a Statement of Supporting Justification as required by 39 CFR 3020.32;⁴ and (4) certification of compliance with 39 U.S.C. 3633(a).⁵ The Postal Service also references Governors’ Decision 09-6, filed in Docket No. MC2009-25, as authorization of the new product. Notice at 1.

In the Statement of Supporting Justification, Mary Prince Anderson, Acting Manager, Sales and Communications, Expedited Shipping, asserts that the service to be provided under the contract will cover its attributable costs, make a positive contribution to coverage of institutional costs, and will increase contribution toward the requisite 5.5 percent of the Postal Service’s total institutional costs. Request, Attachment C, at 1. W. Ashley Lyons, Manager, Regulatory Reporting and Cost Analysis, Finance Department, certifies that the contract complies with 39 U.S.C. 3633(a). See id., Attachment D.

The Postal Service filed much of the supporting materials, including the supporting data and the unredacted contract, under seal. In its Request, the Postal Service maintains that the contract and related financial information, including the customer’s name and the accompanying analyses that provide prices, certain terms and conditions, and financial projections, should remain confidential. Id. at 2-3.

In Order No. 260, the Commission gave notice of the two dockets, appointed a public representative, and provided the public with an opportunity to comment.⁶

III. Comments

Comments were filed by the Public Representative.⁷ No comments were submitted by other interested parties.

The Public Representative states that each “element of 39 U.S.C. 3633(a) appears to be met by Priority Mail Contract 16. Id. at 2. On the other hand, he observes “it is not clear that the * * * justification of this contract * * * comports with the requirements of 3632(b)(3).” Id. at 3. He submits that the term of the contract is ambiguous, particularly because the provision stating that the contract “shall expire one year from the effective date” is at odds with other clauses for annual adjustments. Id. at 3. While recognizing the Governors’ preapproved pricing shell, he also contends that “the contract expiration must be established definitively since it is an essential component of the contract’s classification as ‘a product.’” Id.

The Public Representative notes that the Postal Service has duties to provide packaging and labels. Id. at 2-3. He also points out that the “contract appears to be silent on issues such as manifesting, electronically or otherwise.” Id. at 3. He adds that the Postal Service’s Request at Attachment C provides a statement of support that incorrectly refers to Priority Mail Contract 14, rather than 16.

¹ Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Priority Mail Contract 16 to Competitive Product List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Contract and Supporting Data, July 24, 2009 (Request).

⁴ Attachment C to the Request.

⁵ Attachment D to the Request.

⁶ PRC Order No. 260, Notice and Order Concerning Priority Mail Contract 16 Negotiated Service Agreement, July 29, 2009 (Order No. 260).

⁷ Public Representative Comments in Response to United States Postal Service Request to Add Priority Mail Contract 16 to Competitive Product List, (Public Representative Comments). The Commission reads these comments as relating to Priority Mail Contract 16, notwithstanding inadvertent reference to Priority Mail Contract 15.

With respect to confidentiality, the Public Representative believes that “[t]o comply with Order No. 247 in Docket[s] MC2009–30 and CP2009–40, the Postal Service should include with its filing a redacted copy of the Governors’ Decision and certification.” Id. at 4. (Footnote omitted.)

The Public Representative concurs that the Postal Service provides adequate justification for maintaining confidentiality in this case. Id. at 4. Yet, he concludes that the Priority Mail Contract 16 agreement does not comport with the requirements of title 39, even though it may otherwise be appropriately classified as competitive. Id. at 5. He indicates, however, the contract discrepancies could be remedied. Id.

In response to the Public Representative’s Comments, the Postal Service filed an errata to address uncertainties or correct errors of its Request as to adding Priority Mail Contract 16 to the Competitive Product List as a separate product.⁸

IV. Errata

The Errata includes: (a) A revised contract to clarify the term intended by the parties is 3 years, instead of 1 year; (b) a revised second page, along with the other original pages, again filed under seal, and a redacted copy; and (c) a revised page that corrects a typographic error on the Request at Attachment C, so as to change the reference to Priority Mail Contract 16, instead of 14. Errata at 1. The Postal Service further replies that it complies with the Governors’ Decision requiring recitation of any postage payment method required; pointing out that since “a particular postage payment is not required, * * * none is stated.” Id. at 2.

V. Commission Analysis

The Commission has reviewed the Request, the contract, the financial analysis provided under seal that accompanies it, the comments filed by the Public Representative, and the Errata.

Statutory requirements. The Commission’s statutory responsibilities in this instance entail assigning Priority Mail Contract 16 to either the Market Dominant Product List or to the Competitive Product List. 39 U.S.C. 3642. As part of this responsibility, the Commission also reviews the proposal for compliance with the Postal Accountability and Enhancement Act (PAEA) requirements. This includes, for proposed competitive products, a review of the provisions applicable to rates for competitive products. 39 U.S.C. 3633.

Product list assignment. In determining whether to assign Priority Mail Contract 16 as a product to the Market Dominant Product List or the Competitive Product List, the Commission must consider whether:

[T]he Postal Service exercises sufficient market power that it can effectively set the price of such product substantially above costs, raise prices significantly, decrease quality, or decrease output, without risk of losing a significant level of business to other firms offering similar products.

39 U.S.C. 3642(b)(1). If so, the product will be categorized as market dominant. The competitive category of products shall consist of all other products.

The Commission is further required to consider the availability and nature of enterprises in the private sector engaged in the delivery of the product, the views of those who use the product, and the likely impact on small business concerns. 39 U.S.C. 3642(b)(3).

The Postal Service asserts that its bargaining position is constrained by the existence of other shippers who can provide similar services, thus precluding it from taking unilateral action to increase prices without the risk of losing volume to private companies. Request, Attachment C, para. (d). The Postal Service also contends that it may not decrease quality or output without risking the loss of business to competitors that offer similar expedited delivery services. Id. It further states that the contract partner supports the addition of the contract to the Competitive Product List to effectuate the negotiated contractual terms. Id. at para. (g). Finally, the Postal Service states that the market for expedited delivery services is highly competitive and requires a substantial infrastructure to support a national network. It indicates that large carriers serve this market. Accordingly, the Postal Service states that it is unaware of any small business concerns that could offer comparable service for this customer. Id. at para. (h).

No commenter opposes the proposed classification of Priority Mail Contract 16 as competitive. Having considered the statutory requirements and the support offered by the Postal Service, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Contract 16 is appropriately classified as a competitive product and should be added to the Competitive Product List.

Cost considerations. The Postal Service presents a financial analysis showing that Priority Mail Contract 16 results in cost savings while ensuring that the contract covers its attributable costs, does not result in subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products, and increases contribution from competitive products.

Based on the data submitted, the Commission finds that Priority Mail Contract 16 should cover its attributable costs (39 U.S.C. 3633(a)(2)), should not lead to the subsidization of competitive products by market dominant products (39 U.S.C. 3633(a)(1)), and should have a positive effect on competitive products’ contribution to institutional costs (39 U.S.C. 3633(a)(3)). Thus, an initial review of proposed Priority Mail Contract 16 indicates that it comports with the provisions applicable to rates for competitive products.

Agreement duration. The Errata reconciles the apparent temporal discrepancy between the one-year term and annual adjustments, indicating that the parties had agreed to a three-year term. Regardless of the number of years, the contract still remains terminable on thirty day’s written notice by either party. Id. Notwithstanding that the revised pages of the contract did not appear to be jointly executed, the Commission is satisfied that the parties intend the contract’s duration to be 3 years, not one as originally filed. The Errata also addresses the Public Representative’s concerns related to the subsidiary issues raised that pertain to the contract’s duration.

Other considerations. The Postal Service shall promptly notify the Commission of the scheduled termination date of the agreement. If the agreement terminates earlier than anticipated, the Postal Service shall inform the Commission prior to the new termination date. The Commission will then remove the product from the Competitive Product List.

Furthermore, the Public Representative’s assessment of Order No. 247 is well-taken. Public Representative Comments at 3–4. Subsequently, the Commission issued Order No. 266, which clarified the policy regarding self-contained docket filings. See Docket No. CP2009–47, Order Concerning Filing a Functionally Equivalent Global Plus 1 Contract Negotiated Service Agreement, July 31, 2009, at 6–7 (Order No. 266). In recent filings, the Postal Service has adhered to this policy.

In conclusion, the Commission approves Priority Mail Contract 16 as a new product. The revision to the Competitive Product List is shown below the signature of this order and is effective upon issuance of this order.

⁸Errata to Request of the United States Postal Service to Add Priority Mail Contract 16 to Competitive Contract List and Notice of Filing (Under Seal) of Corrected Contract (August 10, 2009) (Errata).

VI. Ordering Paragraphs

It is ordered:

1. Priority Mail Contract 16 (MC2009–36 and CP2009–55) is added to the Competitive Product List as a new product under Negotiated Service Agreements, Domestic.

2. The Postal Service shall notify the Commission of the scheduled termination date and update the Commission if termination occurs prior to that date, as discussed in this order.

3. The Secretary shall arrange for the publication of this order in the Federal Register.
