Zach System Corporation a Subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA
Including On-Site Leased Workers of
Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La
Porte, TX; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 1, 2010, applicable to workers of Zach System Corporation, a subdivision of Zach System SPA, La Porte, Texas, including on-site leased workers from Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La Porte, Texas. The Department's notice of determination was published in the Federal Register on October 15, 2010 (75 FR 63511).

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers were engaged in the manufacture of pharmaceutical catalysts and active ingredients.

The investigation revealed that Zach System Corporation is a subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA, not Zach System SPA.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to correct the parent company name of the subject firm to read Zambon Company, SPA.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,467 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Zach System Corporation, a subdivision of Zambon Company, SPA, including on-site leased workers of Turner Industries and Go Johnson, La Porte, Texas, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 3, 2009, through October 1, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed in Washington, DC, this 23rd day of November 2010.

Elliott S. Kushner,Certifying Officer, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

General Motors Company Formerly Known as General Motors Corporation
Willow Run Transmission Plant
Including On-Site Leased Workers
From Aerotek, Securitas, Knight
Management, PLMSI, and ACRO,
Ypsilanti, MI; Amended Certification
Regarding Eligibility To Apply for
Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 7, 2010, applicable to workers of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant, Ypsilanti, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 26, 2010 (75 FR 43558). The notice was amended on July 30, 2010 to include on-site leased workers from Aerotek. The notice was published in the Federal Register on August 13, 2010 (75 FR 49527).

At the request of the state, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of automotive transmissions and transmission components.

The company reports that workers leased from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro were employed on-site at the Ypsilanti, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant. The Department has determined that on-site workers from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro were sufficiently under the control of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI and Acro working on-site at the Ypsilanti, Michigan location of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission Plant.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,319 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of General Motors Company, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Willow Run Transmission

Plant, including on-site leased workers from Aerotek, Securitas, Knight Management, PLMSI, and Acro, Ypsilanti, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 14, 2008, through July 7, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 18th day of November 2010.

Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on July 9, 2010, applicable to workers of General Motors Corporation, Powertrain Flint North, including on-site leased workers from Allegis Group Service, Flint, Michigan. The notice was published in the Federal Register on July 26, 2010 (75 FR 43558).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of component parts (transmission and engine components and deck and door locks).

The company reports that workers leased from Securitas and Knight Management were employed on-site at the Flint, Michigan location of General Motors Corporation, Powertrain Flint North. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of General Motors Corporation, Powertrain Flint North to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Securitas and Knight Management working on-site at the Flint, Michigan location of General Motors Corporation, Powertrain Flint North.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-72,582 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of General Motors Corporation, Powertrain Flint North, including on-site leased workers from Allegis Group Services, Securitas and Knight Management Flint, Michigan, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after October 2, 2008, through July 9, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on October 8, 2010, applicable to workers of Di-Pro, Inc., a subsidiary of Bendix-Spicer/Knorr-Bremse, including on-site leased workers from Select, Fresno, California. The notice was published in the Federal Register on October 25, 2010 (75 FR 65520).

At the request of a company official, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in activities related to the production of brake chambers and spring brakes for braking systems on air braked trucks, tractors and semi-trailers.

The company reports that workers leased from Act-1 and PrideStaff were employed on-site at the Fresno, California location of Di-Pro, Inc. The Department has determined that these workers were sufficiently under the control of Di-Pro, Inc., a subsidiary of Bendix-Spicer/Knorr-Bremse, Bendix-Spicer Foundation Brake to be considered leased workers.

Based on these findings, the Department is amending this certification to include workers leased from Act-1 and PrideStaff working on-site at the Fresno, California location of Di-Pro, Inc., a subsidiary of Bendix-Spicer/Knorr-Bremse, Bendix-Spicer Foundation Brake.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,628 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of Di-Pro, Inc., a subsidiary of Bendix-Spicer/Knorr-Bremse, Bendix-Spicer Foundation Brake, including on-site leased workers from Select, Act-1 and PrideStaff, Fresno, California, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 9, 2009, through October 8, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on the date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.

LF USA, Inc., a Subsidiary of Li & Fung Limited, Including Workers Whose Unemployment Insurance (UI) Wages Are Reported Through Wear Me Apparel LLC, Including On-Site Leased Workers From Winston Staffing, Laurinburg, NC; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended ("Act"), 19 U.S.C. 2273, the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on August 27, 2010, applicable to workers of LF USA, Inc., a subsidiary of Li & Fung Limited, including on-site leased workers from Winston Staffing, New York, New York. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 15, 2010 (75 FR 56143). Workers are engaged in employment related to the supply of wholesale, clothing design, business administration, and information technology support services.

At the request of the State Agency, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm.

New information shows that some workers separated from employment at the subject firm had their wages reported under a separate unemployment insurance (UI) tax account under the name Wear Me Apparel LLC.

Accordingly, the Department is amending this certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of the subject firm who were adversely affected by a shift in services to Hong Kong.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-74,185 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of LF USA, Inc., a subsidiary of Li & Fung Limited, including workers whose unemployment insurance (UI) wages are reported through Wear Me Apparel LLC, including on-site leased workers from Winston Staffing, New York, New York, who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after May 21, 2009, through August 27, 2012, and all workers in the group threatened with total or partial separation from employment on date of certification through two years from the date of certification, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Chapter 2 of Title II of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended.
