Certain Pasta From Italy: Final Results of Countervailing Duty Changed Circumstances Review and Revocation, In Part

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: On December 15, 2010, the Department of Commerce ("the Department") published its preliminary results of changed circumstances review and intent to revoke, in part, the countervailing duty ("CVD") order on certain pasta from Italy.¹ We are now revoking this order, in part, with regard to gluten-free pasta, as described in the "Scope of the Order" section of this notice. The Department confirmed that Petitioners² have no interest in CVD relief from imports of gluten-free pasta.

The Department received comments filed by domestic interested party, Maplegrove Gluten Free Goods Inc. ("Maplegrove"), in opposition to the partial revocation; however, Maplegrove was unable to demonstrate that Petitioners did not represent at least 85 percent of total production of the domestic like product. Therefore, the Preliminary Results are hereby adopted as the final results.

DATES: Effective Date: May 12, 2011.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

On July 24, 1996, the Department published in the Federal Register the CVD order on certain pasta from Italy.³ On July 29, 2010, the Department received a request on behalf of H.J. Heinz Company ("Heinz") to initiate a no-interest changed circumstances review and revocation, in part, of the CVD order on certain pasta from Italy with respect to gluten-free pasta.⁴ On September 17, 2010, the Department published a notice of initiation of changed circumstances review and consideration of revocation of order, in part, with respect to the CVD order on certain pasta from Italy with respect to gluten-free pasta.⁵ The Department stated that it would publish the final results of this changed circumstance review after analyzing comments received by interested parties in the briefing period.⁶ On September 27, 2010, Petitioners expressed a lack of interest in maintaining the CVD order with respect to gluten-free pasta.⁷ On November 30, 2010, Petitioners confirmed that they represent “substantially all” of domestic production, as set forth in section 782(h) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (the “Act”), and 19 CFR 351.222(g)(1)(i), which the Department has previously interpreted to mean at least 85 percent of the total production of the domestic like product covered by the order.⁸ On December 15, 2010, the Department issued its Preliminary Results of changed circumstances review and intent to revoke, in part, with respect to gluten-free pasta.

Scope of Changed Circumstances Review

The merchandise covered by this changed circumstances review is gluten-free pasta.

Scope of the Order

Imports covered by the order are shipments of certain non-egg dry pasta in packages of five pounds four ounces or less, whether or not enriched or fortified or containing milk or other optional ingredients such as chopped vegetables, vegetable purees, milk, gluten, diastasis, vitamins, coloring and flavorings, and up to two percent egg white. The pasta covered by the scope of the order is typically sold in the retail market, in fiberboard or cardboard cartons, or polyethylene or polypropylene bags of varying dimensions.

Excluded from the scope of the order are refrigerated, frozen, or canned pastas, as well as all forms of egg pasta, with the exception of non-egg dry pasta containing up to two percent egg white. Also excluded are imports of organic pasta from Italy that are accompanied by the appropriate certificate issued by the Istituto Mediterraneo Di Certificazione, Bioagricoop S.r.l., QC&I International Services, Ecocert Italia, Consorzio per il Controllo dei Prodotti Biologici, Associazione Italiana per l'Agricoltura Biologica, or Codex S.r.l. In addition, based on publicly available information, the Department has determined that, as of August 4, 2004, imports of organic pasta from Italy that are accompanied by the appropriate certificate issued by Bioagricert S.r.l. are also excluded from the order.⁹ Furthermore, based on publicly available information, the Department has determined that, as of March 13, 2003, imports of organic pasta from Italy that are accompanied by the appropriate certificate issued by Istituto per la Certificazione Etica e Ambientale are also excluded from the order.¹⁰ Pursuant to this notice, effective January 1, 2009, gluten-free pasta is also excluded from the scope of the CVD order.

The merchandise subject to the order is currently classifiable under items 1901.90.90.95 and 1902.19.20 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (“HTSUS”). Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the merchandise subject to the order is dispositive.

Final Results of Changed Circumstance Review; Partial Revocation of CVD Order

On December 27, 2010, Maplegrove, a domestic producer of gluten-free pasta, expressed an objection to the changed circumstances review and intent to revoke, in part, with respect to gluten-free pasta.¹¹ The Department subsequently notified Maplegrove that its objection must present evidence that Petitioners do not represent at least 85 percent of the total production of the domestic like product.¹² In this notification, the Department offered Maplegrove an additional opportunity to present such evidence. However, Maplegrove did not do so. Thus, pursuant to section 782(h) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(g)(1)(i), Maplegrove's objection to the changed circumstances review is insufficient to overcome the expressed lack of interest shown by Petitioners. Therefore, the Department is partially revoking the CVD order on certain pasta with respect to gluten-free pasta from Italy, in accordance with sections 751(b), (d) and 782(h) of the Act and 19 CFR 351.216(d) and 351.222(g).

In the Preliminary Results, we stated that the Department would instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) to end the suspension of liquidation for the merchandise covered by the revocation on the effective date of the notice of revocation and to release any cash deposit or bond. However, in a comment submitted on October 12, 2010, Heinz requested that the Department retroactively revoke the CVD order, citing Wooden Bedroom Furniture, as support.¹³ On March 31, 2011, the Department issued a letter to all interested parties inviting comment on Heinz's proposal to make effective revocation retroactive.¹⁴ The Department did not receive comments from any parties in response to this letter.

Therefore, consistent with Wooden Bedroom Furniture, we have determined to revoke the CVD order with respect to unliquidated entries of gluten-free pasta retroactively to January 1, 2009. This is the date following the last day of the most recently completed administrative review, and consequently these entries are not subject to a final determination by the Department.

Accordingly, we will instruct CBP to liquidate without regard to CVDs all unliquidated entries of gluten-free pasta, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption on or after January 1, 2009. The Department will also instruct CBP to refund with interest any estimated CVDs collected with respect to unliquidated entries of gluten-free pasta entered, or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption on or after January 1, 2009, in accordance with section 778 of the Act and 19 CFR 351.222(g)(4). Further, the Department will instruct CBP to no longer suspend liquidation on entries with respect to gluten-free pasta.

This notice serves as a reminder to parties subject to administrative protective order (“APO”) of their responsibility concerning the disposition of proprietary information disclosed under APO in accordance with 19 CFR 351.306. Timely written notification of the return/destruction of APO materials or conversion to judicial protective order is hereby requested.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

Section 204(d) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act (16 U.S.C. 1824(d)) authorizes the Secretary of Commerce (Secretary) to issue a transshipment permit authorizing a vessel other than a vessel of the United States to engage in fishing consisting solely of transporting fish or fish products at sea from a point within the United States Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ) or, with the concurrence of a state, within the boundaries of that state to a point outside the United States. In addition, Public Law 104-297, section 105(e) directs the Secretary to issue section 204(d) permits for up to 14 Canadian transport vessels to receive Atlantic herring harvested by United States fishermen and to be used in sardine processing. Transshipment must occur from within the boundaries of the State of Maine or within the portion of the EEZ east of the line 69 degrees 30 minutes west and within 12 nautical miles from Maine's seaward boundary.

Section 204(d)(3)(D) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act provides that an application may not be approved until the Secretary determines that "no owner or operator of a vessel of the United States which has adequate capacity to perform the transportation for which the application is submitted has indicated * * * an interest in performing the transportation at fair and reasonable rates." NMFS is publishing this notice as part of its effort to make such a determination with respect to the application described below.

Summary of Application

NMFS received an application requesting authorization for five Canadian transport vessels to receive transfers of herring from United States purse seine vessels, stop seines, and weirs for the purpose of transporting the herring to Canada for processing. The transshipment operations will occur within the boundaries of the State of Maine or within the portion of the EEZ east of the line 69°30' W longitude and within 12 nautical miles from Maine's seaward boundary.
