OMB Control Number: Pending.

Description of the Need for the Information and Proposed Use: The U.S.

Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is conducting an important national study of the Neighborhood Stabilization Program (NSP), with a particular focus on the round of funding from the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA), known as "NSP2." This information collection will involve site visits and interviews of NSP2 grantees, in order to describe the process of implementing the NSP2 program and to identify the neighborhoods where NSP2 funding was spent, in order to evaluate its impact.

Members of the Affected Public:

Approximately 25 NSP2 grantees and 50 partner agencies will be part of the study. Staff of selected grantees will be asked to participate in more in-depth on-site interviews with HUD's contractor and to provide HUD's contractor with access to their records for tracking program activity. Reconnaissance phone calls will take up to an hour per grantee.
