

Cir. 2011) (“Wheat Board (CAFC)”), held that the Department of Commerce (“the Department”) was required by law to instruct U.S. Customs and Border Protection (“CBP”) to liquidate all unliquidated entries of hard red spring wheat from Canada without regard to antidumping and countervailing duties. The CAFC’s holding is now final and conclusive. Consistent with that holding, we are amending the revocation of these orders and instructing CBP to liquidate all unliquidated entries pursuant to the CAFC decision in Wheat Board (CAFC).

DATES: Effective Date: July 26, 2011.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background

The Canadian Wheat Board and Canadian government challenged the International Trade Commission’s (“ITC”) final determination that the United States industry was being materially injured by reason of imports from Canada of hard red spring wheat before a North American Free Trade Agreement (“NAFTA”) Panel. As a result of that litigation, the ITC issued a remand redetermination that concluded that a domestic industry was not materially injured or threatened with material injury by reasons of imports of Canadian hard red spring wheat, and the NAFTA Panel affirmed that remand redetermination. North American Free-Trade Agreement, Article 1904 NAFTA Panel Reviews; Completion of Panel Review, 71 FR 4896 (Jan. 30, 2006). The Department therefore revoked the antidumping and countervailing duty orders of hard red spring wheat from Canada, effective January 2, 2006. See Antidumping Duty Investigation and Countervailing Duty Investigation of Hard Red Spring Wheat from Canada: Notice of Panel Decision, Revocation of Countervailing and Antidumping Duty Orders and Termination of Suspension of Liquidation, 71 FR 8275 (Feb. 16, 2006). The Department’s revocation stated, however, that the revocation did not “affect the liquidation of entries made prior to January 2, 2006” See Id.

The Canadian Wheat Board and Canadian government challenged the Department’s determination that its revocation did not apply to pre-January 2, 2006, entries at the Court of International Trade (“CIT”). On September 1, 2009, the CIT held that the Department must direct CBP to liquidate all pre-January 2, 2006, entries without regard to antidumping and countervailing duties. See Canadian Wheat Board v. United States, 637 F. Supp. 2d 1329 (Sept. 1, 2009). The Department appealed the CIT’s holding and, on April 19, 2011, in Wheat Board (CAFC), the CAFC reached the same conclusion as the CIT. See Wheat Board (CAFC), 2010–1083 at *18.

Accordingly, the Department is now amending its February 16, 2006, revocation of the antidumping and countervailing duty orders covering hard red spring wheat from Canada, and will instruct CBP to: (1) Release any cash deposits or bonds, and proceed with liquidation of all unliquidated entries of hard red spring wheat from Canada without regard to antidumping duties and countervailing duties; and (2) refund, with interest, antidumping and countervailing duty cash deposits collected pursuant to the revoked antidumping and countervailing duty orders.

Paper Clips From the People’s Republic of China: Continuation of the Antidumping Duty Order

AGENCY: Import Administration, International Trade Administration, Department of Commerce.

SUMMARY: As a result of the determinations by the Department of Commerce (“Department”) and the International Trade Commission (“ITC”) that revocation of the antidumping duty order on paper clips from the People’s Republic of China (“PRC”) would likely lead to a continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, the Department is publishing a notice of continuation of the antidumping duty order.

DATES: Effective Date: July 26, 2011.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Krishna Hill or Charles Riggle, AD/CVD Operations, Office 4, Import Administration, International Trade Administration, U.S. Department of Commerce, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, DC 20230; telephone: (202) 482–4037 or (202) 482–0650, respectively.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On January 3, 2011, the Department initiated the third sunset review of the antidumping duty order on paper clips from the PRC pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (“Act”). See Initiation of Five-Year (“Sunset”) Review, 76 FR 89 (January 3, 2011).

As a result of its review, the Department determined that revocation of the antidumping duty order on paper clips from the PRC would likely lead to a continuation or recurrence of dumping and, therefore, notified the ITC of the magnitude of the margins likely to prevail should the order be revoked. See Paper Clips From the People’s Republic of China: Final Results of Expedited Sunset Review of Antidumping Duty Order, 76 FR 26242 (May 6, 2011). On June 29, 2011, the ITC determined, pursuant to section 751(c) of the Act, that revocation of the antidumping duty order on paper clips from the PRC would likely lead to a continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time. See USITC Publication 4242 (July 2011), Paper Clips from China: Investigation No. 731–TA–663 (Third Review), and Paper Clips from China, 76 FR 42730 (July 19, 2011).

Scope of the Order

The products covered by the order are certain paper clips, wholly of wire of base metal, whether or not galvanized, whether or not plated with nickel or other base metal (e.g., copper), with a wire diameter between 0.025 inches and 0.075 inches (0.64 to 1.91 millimeters), regardless of physical configuration, except as specifically excluded. The products subject to the order may have a rectangular or ring-like shape and include, but are not limited to, clips commercially referred to as No. 1 clips, No. 3 clips, Jumbo or Giant clips, Gem clips, Frictioned clips, Perfect Gems, Marcel Gems, Universal clips, Nifty clips, Peerless clips, Ring clips, and Glide-On clips. The products subject to the order are currently classifiable under subheading 8305.90.3010 of the Harmonized Tariff Schedule of the United States (“HTSUS”).

Specifically excluded from the scope of the order are plastic and vinyl covered paper clips, butterfly clips, binder clips, or other paper fasteners that are not made wholly of wire of base metal and are covered under a separate subheading of the HTSUS.

Although the HTSUS subheadings are provided for convenience and customs purposes, the written description of the scope of the order is dispositive.

Continuation of the Order

As a result of these determinations by the Department and the ITC that revocation of the antidumping duty order on paper clips would likely lead to a continuation or recurrence of dumping and material injury to an industry in the United States, pursuant to section 751(d)(2) of the Act, the Department hereby orders the continuation of the antidumping order on paper clips from the PRC. U.S. Customs and Border Protection will continue to collect antidumping duty cash deposits at the rates in effect at the time of entry for all imports of subject merchandise. The effective date of the continuation of the order will be the date of publication in the Federal Register of this notice of continuation. Pursuant to section 751(c)(2) of the Act, the Department intends to initiate the next five-year review of the order not later than 30 days prior to the fifth anniversary of the effective date of continuation. This five-year (sunset) review and this notice are in accordance with section 751(c) of the Act and published pursuant to section 777(i)(1) of the Act.
