

groups, observations, and case file reviews. These data will be supplemented by short questionnaires for program staff, clients, worksite supervisors, and participating employers, and a time study for program staff.

The purpose of this document is to request comment on alternate versions of the 6 and 12 month surveys for use at study sites whose population consists of young adults, aged 18 to 25 only. We plan to measure outcomes that are particularly relevant to youth, for example, outcomes related to attitudes, self confidence, and psycho-social development that may be important predictors of later performance in the labor market, education, etc.

Respondents: Respondents to the alternate versions of the 6 and 12 month surveys include young adults, aged 18–25.

Annual Burden Estimates

Note: No additional burden is requested from the already approved information collection.

Instrument	Annual number of respondents	Number of responses per respondent	Average burden hours per response	Total annual burden hours ¹
6-month survey:
Youth Respondents (amended version)	533	1	.5	267
Adult Respondents (already approved)	1,334	1	.5	667
12-month survey:
Youth Respondents (amended version)	533	1	.75	400
Adult Respondents (already approved)	2,667	1	.75	2,000
Total Burden for Surveys	5,067	3,334

¹ Rounding may cause slight discrepancies between annual and total estimated burden hours.

In compliance with the requirements of Section 3506(c)(2)(A) of the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, the Administration for Children and Families and the Employment and Training Administration are soliciting public comment on the specific aspects of the information collection described above. Copies of the proposed collection of information can be obtained and comments may be forwarded by writing to the Administration for Children and Families, Office of Planning, Research and Evaluation, 370 L'Enfant Promenade SW., Washington, DC 20447, Attn: OPRE Reports Clearance Officer. Email address:

Administration for Community Living

Administration for Children And Families

Delegation of Authority

AGENCY: Administration for Community Living and Administration for Children and Families, HHS.

ACTION: Notice.

SUMMARY: Authorities under the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000 are being delegated from the Assistant Secretary, Administration for Children and Families, to the Administrator, Administration for Community Living (ACL). This action is necessary to complete the transition of the Administration on Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities to the Administration for Community Living from the Administration for Children and Families, consistent with the Federal Register notice of reorganization as last amended, 77 FR 23250–23260, April 18, 2012.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:
Jason Bennett, Acting Executive

Secretary, Administration for Community Living at 202–357–3408.

Under the authority vested in the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families by memorandum from the Secretary, “Delegation of Authority for the Developmental Disabilities Programs, The Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000, (The Act), Public Law 106–402, 114 Stat. 1677 (2000),” dated February 9, 2004, notice is hereby given that the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families has delegated to the Administrator for the Administration for Community Living the authorities under the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act of 2000, 42 U.S.C. 15001 et seq., as amended, as they pertain to the functions assigned to the functions of the Administrator for the Administration for Community Living.

These authorities may be redelegated. These authorities shall be exercised under the Department's policy on regulations and the existing delegation of authority to approve and issue regulations.

This delegation shall be exercised under financial and administrative requirements applicable to all Administration for Community Living authorities.

I hereby affirm and ratify any actions taken by the Administrator for the Administration for Community Living, or his or her subordinates, which involved the exercise of the authorities delegated herein prior to the effective date of this delegation.

This delegation will concurrently supersede all existing delegations of these authorities, except the delegation memorandum from the Secretary to the Assistant Secretary for Children and Families, dated February 9, 2004.

This delegation is effective immediately.

Dated: February 27, 2013.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In compliance with 44 U.S.C. 3507, FDA has submitted the following proposed collection of information to OMB for review and clearance.

Establishing and Maintaining a List of U.S. Dairy Product Manufacturers/Processors With Interest in Exporting to Chile (OMB Control Number 0910-0509)—Extension

As a direct result of discussions that have been adjunct to the U.S./Chile Free Trade Agreement, Chile has recognized FDA as the competent U.S. food safety authority and has accepted the U.S. regulatory system for dairy inspections. Chile has concluded that it will not require individual inspections of U.S. firms by Chile as a prerequisite for trade, but will accept firms identified by FDA as eligible to export to Chile. Therefore, in the Federal Register of June 22, 2005 (70 FR 36190), FDA announced the availability of a revised guidance document entitled "Establishing and Maintaining a List of U.S. Dairy Product Manufacturers/Processors With Interest in Exporting to Chile." The guidance can be found at <http://www.fda.gov/Food/GuidanceComplianceRegulatoryInformation/GuidanceDocuments/ImportsExports/ucm078936.htm>. The guidance document explains that FDA has established a list that is provided to the government of Chile and posted on <http://www.fda.gov/Food/InternationalActivities/Exports/ucm120245.htm>, which identifies U.S. dairy product manufacturers/processes that have expressed interest to FDA in exporting dairy products to Chile, are subject to FDA jurisdiction, and are not the subject of a pending judicial enforcement action (i.e., an injunction or seizure) or a pending warning letter. The term "dairy products," for purposes of this list, is not intended to cover the raw agricultural commodity raw milk. Application for inclusion on the list is voluntary. However, Chile has advised that dairy products from firms not on
