DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

[OMB Number 1105-NEW]

Agency Information Collection Activities; Proposed Collection; Comments Requested: USMS Medical Forms

ACTION: 60-Day Notice.

The Department of Justice (DOJ), U.S. Marshals Service, will be submitting the following information collection request to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) for review and approval in accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995. The proposed information collection is published to obtain comments from the public and affected agencies. Comments are encouraged and will be accepted for "sixty days" until June 14, 2013. This process is conducted in accordance with 5 CFR 1320.10.

If you have comments especially on the estimated public burden or associated response time, suggestions, or need a copy of the proposed information collection instrument with instructions or additional information, please contact Nicole Feuerstein, U.S. Marshals Service, CS-3/10th Fl., 2604 Jefferson Davis Hwy, Alexandria, VA 22301.

Written comments and suggestions from the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information are encouraged. Your comments should address one or more of the following four points:

—Evaluate whether the proposed collection of information is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility;

—Evaluate the accuracy of the agencies estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information, including the validity of the methodology and assumptions used;

—Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and

—Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond, including through the use of appropriate automated, electronic, mechanical, or other technological collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Notice of Lodging of Proposed Consent Decree Under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act

On April 8, 2013, the Department of Justice lodged a proposed consent decree with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York in the case entitled In re Motors Liquidation Corp., et al., Civil Action No. 90-50026 (REG).

The parties to the consent decree are the General Unsecured Creditors ("GUC") Trust (established under a March 30, 2011 Plan of Liquidation, and authorized to settle the remaining claims against the dissolved debtors, Motors Liquidation Corporation, formerly known as General Motors Corporation, Remediation and Liability Management Company, Inc., and Environmental Corporate Remediation Company, Inc. (collectively, "Old GM")); the United States of America; and the State of New York. The consent decree resolves claims for natural resource damages and assessment costs ("NRD") of the United States Department of Interior ("DOI") and the State of New York's Department of Environmental Conservation ("DEC"), under section 107 of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act ("CERCLA"), 42 U.S.C. 9601-9675, with respect to the Onondaga Lake NPL Site, located in Onondaga County, New York.

Under the consent decree, the United States on behalf of DOI and New York on behalf of DEC (collectively, "the Joint Onondaga Trustees") shall have a total Allowed General Unsecured Claim in the total amount of $5,500,000.00, classified in Class 3 under the Plan of Liquidation (the "Onondaga NRD Allowed Claim"), which shall be divided by the Joint Onondaga Trustees as follows: (i) $85,000 for DOI's claims for past NRD assessment costs, (ii) $10,000 for DEC's claims for past NRD assessment costs, and (iii) $5,405,000 for restoration funds at the Onondaga Lake NPL Site sought by the Joint Onondaga Trustees.

The publication of this notice opens a period for public comment on the consent decree. Comments should be addressed to the Assistant Attorney General, Environment and Natural Resources Division, and should refer to In re Motors Liquidation Corp., et al., D.J. Ref. No. 90-11-3-09754. All comments must be submitted no later than thirty (30) days after the publication date of this notice.
