

moved to immediately after R.C.M. 1002(b).

(i) The Discussion section following R.C.M. 1105(b)(2)(C) is amended to read as follows:

“For example, post-trial conduct of the accused, such as providing restitution to the victim of the accused’s offense in accordance with Article 6b(a)(6), or exemplary behavior, might be appropriate.”

(j) The Discussion section following R.C.M. 1107(b)(1) is amended to read as follows:

“The action is taken in the interests of justice, discipline, mission requirements, clemency, and other appropriate reasons. If errors are noticed by the convening authority, the convening authority may take corrective action under this rule to the extent that the convening authority is empowered by Article 60.”

(k) A new Discussion section is inserted immediately following R.C.M. 1107(c)(2) and reads as follows:

“The military follows a unitary sentencing model where the court-martial may impose only a single, unitary sentence covering all of the offenses for which there was a finding of guilty; courts-martial do not impose sentences per offense. See R.C.M. 1002(b). Therefore, where the adjudged sentence for the case includes dismissal, dishonorable discharge, bad-conduct discharge, or confinement for more than six months, the sentence adjudged for the entire case, and not per offense, controls when deciding what actions are available to the convening authority.”

(l) A new Discussion section is inserted immediately following R.C.M. 1107(e)(1)(C)(ii) and reads as follows:

“Per Article 60(c)(4)(A) and subsection (d)(1)(A) and (B) of this rule, disapproval of the sentence is not authorized where a court-martial’s adjudged sentence for the case includes confinement for more than six months or a sentence of dismissal, dishonorable discharge, or bad-conduct discharge. In such cases, the convening authority may not order a rehearing because disapproval of the sentence is required for a convening authority to order a rehearing. See Article 60(f)(3).”

(m) The Discussion following R.C.M. 1107(e)(1)(B)(iii) is deleted.

(n) A new Discussion is inserted after the new R.C.M. 1107(2)(B)(iii) and reads as follows:

“A sentence rehearing, rather than a reassessment, may be more appropriate in cases where a significant part of the government’s case has been dismissed. The convening authority may not take any actions inconsistent with directives of superior competent authority. Where that directive is unclear, appropriate clarification should be sought from the authority issuing the original directive. For purposes of R.C.M. 1107(e)(1)(B), the term “superior competent authority” does not include superior convening authorities but rather, for example, the appropriate Judge Advocate General or a court of competent jurisdiction.”

(o) A new Discussion is inserted after the new R.C.M. 1107(2)(C)(ii) and reads as follows:

“For example, if proof of absence without leave was by improperly authenticated documentary evidence admitted over the objection of the defense, the convening authority may disapprove the findings of guilty and sentence and order a rehearing if there is reason to believe that properly authenticated documentary evidence or other admissible evidence of guilt will be available at the rehearing. On the other hand, if no proof of unauthorized absence was introduced at trial, a rehearing may not be ordered.”

(p) A new paragraph is added to the end of the Discussion immediately following R.C.M. 1108(b) and reads as follows:

“The limitations on suspension of the execution of any sentence or part thereof contained in Article 60 apply to a decision by a convening authority or other person acting on the case under Article 60, as opposed to an individual remitting or suspending a sentence pursuant to a different authority, such as Article 74. See R.C.M. 1107(d).”

(q) A new Discussion section is inserted immediately following the new R.C.M. 1109(h)(4) and reads as follows:

“The following oath may be given to witnesses:

“Do you (swear) (affirm) that the evidence you give shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?”

The hearing officer is required to include in the record of the hearing, at a minimum, a summary of the substance of all testimony.

All hearing officer notes of testimony and recordings of testimony should be preserved until the end of trial.

If during the hearing any witness subject to the Code is suspected of an offense under the Code, the hearing officer should comply with the warning requirements of Mil. R. Evid. 305(c), (d), and, if necessary, (e).

Bearing in mind that the probationer and government are responsible for preparing and presenting their cases, the hearing officer may ask a witness questions relevant to the limited purpose of the hearing. When questioning a witness, the hearing officer may not depart from an impartial role and become an advocate for either side.”
