AGENCY: U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Department of Homeland Security.

ACTION: General notice.

SUMMARY: This document announces U.S. Customs and Border Protection's (CBP) plan, developed in consultation with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS), to conduct a National Customs Automation Program (NCAP) test concerning the electronic transmission of certain import data and documents for commodities regulated by FWS. SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

The National Customs Automation Program (NCAP) was established in Subtitle B of Title VI—Customs Modernization ("Customs Modernization Act"), in the North American Free Trade Agreement Implementation Act (Pub. L. 103-182, 107 Stat. 2057, Dec. 8, 1993) (19 U.S.C. 1411). Through NCAP, the thrust of customs modernization has been on trade compliance and the development of the Automated Commercial Environment (ACE), the planned successor Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) system to the Automated Commercial System (ACS). ACE is an automated and electronic system for processing commercial trade data. ACE is intended to streamline business processes, facilitate growth in trade, ensure cargo security, and foster participation in global commerce, while ensuring compliance with U.S. laws and regulations and reducing costs for U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) and all of its communities of interest. The ability to meet these objectives depends on successfully modernizing CBP's business functions and the information technology that supports those functions. The Automated Broker Interface (ABI) is the EDI that enables members of the trade community to file electronically required import data with CBP and transfer that data to ACE.

For the convenience of the public, a chronological listing of Federal Register publications detailing ACE test developments is set forth below in Section XV, entitled, "Development of ACE Prototypes." The procedures and criteria related to participation in the prior ACE test pilots remain in effect unless otherwise explicitly changed by this or subsequent notices published in the Federal Register.
