

Federal Communications Commission

§ 64.1507

and the information service provider includes in response to each call an introductory message that:

- (i) Clearly states that there is a charge for the call;
- (ii) Clearly states the service's total cost per minute and any other fees for the service or for any service to which the caller may be transferred;
- (iii) Explains that the charges must be billed on either a credit, prepaid, debit, charge, or calling card;
- (iv) Asks the caller for the card number;
- (v) Clearly states that charges for the call begin at the end of the introductory message; and
- (vi) Clearly states that the caller can hang up at or before the end of the introductory message without incurring any charge whatsoever.

(d) The calling party being called back collect for the provision of audio or data information services, simultaneous voice conversation services, or products; and

(e) The calling party being assessed by virtue of the caller being asked to connect or otherwise transfer to a pay-per-call service, a charge for the call.

(f) Provided, however, that:

(1) Notwithstanding paragraph (c)(1) of this section, a written agreement that meets the requirements of that paragraph is not required for:

- (i) Calls utilizing telecommunications devices for the deaf;
- (ii) Directory services provided by a common carrier or its affiliate or by a local exchange carrier or its affiliate; or
- (iii) Any purchase of goods or of services that are not information services.

(2) The requirements of paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall not apply to calls from repeat callers using a bypass mechanism to avoid listening to the introductory message: Provided, That information providers shall disable such a bypass mechanism after the institution of any price increase for a period of time determined to be sufficient by the Federal Trade Commission to give callers adequate and sufficient notice of a price increase.

§ 64.1505 Restrictions on collect telephone calls.

(a) No common carrier shall provide interstate transmission or billing and collection services to an entity offering any service within the scope of § 64.1501(a)(1) that is billed to a subscriber on a collect basis at a per-call or per-time-interval charge that is greater than, or in addition to, the charge for transmission of the call.

(b) No common carrier shall provide interstate transmission services for any collect information services billed to a subscriber at a tariffed rate unless the called party has taken affirmative action clearly indicating that it accepts the charges for the collect service.

§ 64.1506 Number designation.

Any interstate service described in § 64.1501(a)(1)-(2), and not subject to the exclusions contained in § 64.1501(a)(4), shall be offered only through telephone numbers beginning with a 900 service access code.

[59 FR 46770, Sept. 12, 1994]

§ 64.1507 Prohibition on disconnection or interruption of service for failure to remit pay-per-call and similar service charges.

No common carrier shall disconnect or interrupt in any manner, or order the disconnection or interruption of, a telephone subscriber's local exchange or long distance telephone service as a result of that subscriber's failure to pay:

- (a) Charges for interstate pay-per-call service;
- (b) Charges for interstate information services provided pursuant to a presubscription or comparable arrangement; or
- (c) Charges for interstate information services provided on a collect basis which have been disputed by the subscriber.
