and the information service provider includes in response to each call an introductory message that:

- (i) Clearly states that there is a charge for the call;
- (ii) Clearly states the service's total cost per minute and any other fees for the service or for any service to which the caller may be transferred;
- (iii) Explains that the charges must be billed on either a credit, prepaid, debit, charge, or calling card;
- (iv) Asks the caller for the card number:
- (v) Clearly states that charges for the call begin at the end of the introductory message; and
- (vi) Clearly states that the caller can hang up at or before the end of the introductory message without incurring any charge whatsoever.
- (d) The calling party being called back collect for the provision of audio or data information services, simultaneous voice conversation services, or products; and
- (e) The calling party being assessed by virtue of the caller being asked to connect or otherwise transfer to a payper-call service, a charge for the call.
  - (f) Provided, however, that:
- (1) Notwithstanding paragraph (c)(1) of this section, a written agreement that meets the requirements of that paragraph is not required for:
- (i) Calls utilizing telecommunications devices for the deaf;
- (ii) Directory services provided by a common carrier or its affiliate or by a local exchange carrier or its affiliate; or
- (iii) Any purchase of goods or of services that are not information services.
- (2) The requirements of paragraph (c)(2) of this section shall not apply to calls from repeat callers using a bypass mechanism to avoid listening to the introductory message: Provided, That information providers shall disable such a bypass mechanism after the institution of any price increase for a period of time determined to be sufficient by the Federal Trade Commission to give callers adequate and sufficient notice of a price increase.
