Federal Communications Commission

- (1) A petition for forbearance must specify how each of the statutory criteria is met with regard to each statutory provision or rule, or requirement from which forbearance is sought.
- (2) If the petitioner intends to rely on data or information in the possession of third parties, the petition must identify:
- (i) The nature of the data or information.
- (ii) The parties believed to have or control the data or information.
- (iii) The relationship of the data or information to facts and arguments presented in the petition.
- (3) The petitioner shall, at the time of filing, provide a copy of the petition to each third party identified as possessing data or information on which the petitioner intends to rely.
- (c) Identification of related matters. A petition for forbearance must identify any proceeding pending before the Commission in which the petitioner has requested, or otherwise taken a position regarding, relief that is identical to, or comparable to, the relief sought in the forbearance petition. Alternatively, the petition must declare that the petitioner has not, in a pending proceeding, requested or otherwise taken a position on the relief sought.
- (d) Filing requirements. Petitions for forbearance shall comply with the filing requirements in §1.49.
- (1) Petitions for forbearance shall be e-mailed to forbearance@fcc.gov at the time for filing.
- (2) All filings related to a forbearance petition, including all data, shall be provided in a searchable format. To be searchable, a spreadsheet containing a significant amount of data must be capable of being manipulated to allow meaningful analysis.
- (e) Contents. Petitions for forbearance shall include:
- (1) A plain, concise, written summary statement of the relief sought.
- (2) A full statement of the petitioner's prima facie case for relief.
 - (3) Appendices that list:
- (i) The scope of relief sought as required in §1.54(a);
- (ii) All supporting data upon which the petition intends to rely, including a market analysis; and

- (iii) Any supporting statements or affidavits.
- (f) Supplemental information. The Commission will consider further facts and arguments entered into the record by a petitioner only:
- (1) In response to facts and arguments introduced by commenters or opponents.
- (2) By permission of the Commission.

EFFECTIVE DATE NOTE: At 74 FR 39227, Aug. 6, 2009, §1.54 was added. This section contains information collection and recordkeeping requirements and will not become effective until approval has been given by the Office of Management and Budget.

§ 1.55 Public notice of petitions for forbearance.

- (a) Filing a petition for forbearance initiates the statutory time limit for consideration of the petition.
- (b) The Commission will issue a public notice when it receives a properly filed petition for forbearance. The notice will include:
- (1) A statement of the nature of the petition for forbearance.
- (2) The scope of the forbearance sought and a description of the subjects and issues involved.
- (3) The docket number assigned to the proceeding.
- (4) A statement of the time for filing oppositions or comments and replies thereto.

§ 1.56 Motions for summary denial of petitions for forbearance.

- (a) Opponents of a petition for forbearance may submit a motion for summary denial if it can be shown that the petition for forbearance, viewed in the light most favorable to the petitioner, cannot meet the statutory criteria for forbearance.
- (b) A motion for summary denial may not be filed later than the due date for comments and oppositions announced in the public notice.
- (c) Oppositions to motions for summary denial may not be filed later than the due date for reply comments announced in the public notice.
