

System Security Plan, which provides that the system will be maintained in a secure computer room with access restricted to authorized personnel only. Access to the building must be authorized and is limited. The U.S. Coast Guard will operate Homeport in consonance with Federal security regulations, policy, procedures, standards and guidance for implementing the Automated Information Systems Security Program. Only authorized Department of Homeland Security personnel, and authorized U.S. Government contractors conducting system maintenance, may access Homeport records.

Access to records is protected by the use of two-password security and the scope of access for each password is limited to the official need of each individual authorized access. USCG will ensure that users take precautions in accordance with OMB Circular A-130, Appendix III (regarding the Computer Security Act of 1987).

RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

USCG has a proposed record schedule pending with the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA). If approved, registration information collected by Homeport will be expunged from the system once an account is terminated. Data related to maritime personnel screening will be retained for two years. Response-associated information, such as personal data needed for search and rescue purposes, will be retained for 120 days following completion of response operations.

SYSTEM MANAGER AND ADDRESS:

Department of Homeland Security,
United States Coast Guard
Headquarters, Chief, Office of Information Resources (G-PRI), 2100
2nd Street, SW., Washington, DC
20593-0001.

NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES:

To determine if this system contains information on you, you may submit a written request that includes your name, mailing address, and, if applicable, your merchant mariner license or document number, to the System Manager. For ease of identification, you should also include the name and identifying number (documentation number, state registration number, International Maritime Organization (IMO) number, etc.) of any vessel with which you have been associated and the name and address of any facility (including platforms, bridges, deep water ports, marinas, terminals, and factories) with which you have been associated. You or your legal representative must sign the request. Send the request to the System Manager.

RECORDS ACCESS PROCEDURES:

Same as "Notification procedures" above.

CONTESTING RECORD PROCEDURES:

Same as "Notification procedures" and "Records Access Procedures," above.

RECORD SOURCE CATEGORIES:

Information entered into Homeport is gathered from registering users, the general public if completing an on-line form during marine casualty incidents or natural disasters, individuals who are proposed to have access to maritime facilities, government agencies, and U.S. Coast Guard personnel.

EXEMPTIONS CLAIMED FOR THE SYSTEM:

None.

Dated: April 13, 2006.

Maureen Cooney,

Acting Chief Privacy Officer.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The Department is submitting the proposed information collection to OMB for review, as required by the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Chapter 35, as amended).

This Notice is soliciting comments from members of the public and affected agencies concerning the proposed collection of information to: (1) Evaluate whether the proposed collection is necessary for the proper performance of the functions of the agency, including whether the information will have practical utility; (2) Evaluate the accuracy of the agency's estimate of the burden of the proposed collection of information; (3) Enhance the quality, utility, and clarity of the information to be collected; and (4) Minimize the burden of the collection of information on those who are to respond; including the use of appropriate automated collection techniques or other forms of information technology, e.g., permitting electronic submission of responses.

This Notice also lists the following information:

Title of Proposal: Revitalization Area Designation And Management.

OMB Control Number, if applicable: 2502-To Be Determined.

Description of the need for the information and proposed use: These information collections are needed to determine whether certain geographic areas qualify for designation as revitalization areas for purposes of offering HUD-owned single family assets for sale at discounts. HUD's Officer Next Door and Teacher Next Door Sales programs and the Asset Control Area program, each of which offers properties for sale at discounts, may operate only in designated revitalization areas. A geographic area must be described by census block group(s) and must meet one of the following three criteria:

1. Very Low Income Area: The median household income for the area is less than 60 percent of the median household income for:

(a) In the case of any area located within a metropolitan area, such metropolitan area; or

(b) In the case of any area not located within a metropolitan area, the State in which the area is located.

2. High Concentration of Eligible Assets: A high rate of default or foreclosure for single-family mortgages insured under the National Housing Act has resulted, or may result, in the area.

3. Low Homeownership Rate: The rate for homeownership of single-family homes in the area is substantially below the rate for homeownership in the metropolitan area or, in the case of any area not located within a metropolitan area, the state in which the area is located.

Agency form numbers, if applicable: None.

Estimation of the total numbers of hours needed to prepare the information collection including number of respondents, frequency of response, and hours of response: The estimated number of burden hours needed to prepare the information collection is 96 hours; the number of respondents is 12 generating approximately 12 annual responses; the frequency of response is on occasion; and the estimated time needed to prepare the response is approximately 8 hours per response.

Status of the proposed information collection: New filing for an existing program.

Authority: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, 44 U.S.C., Chapter 35, as amended.

Dated: April 24, 2006.

Frank L. Davis,
General Deputy Assistant Secretary for Housing-Deputy Federal Housing Commissioner.
