These figures are based on our regulatory impact analysis in support of the final rule on preventive controls for human food, which published in the Federal Register of September 17, 2015 (80 FR 55908). Using Agency data, we estimated the number of food facilities that we believe are subject to the regulations. We base our estimate of the time necessary for the individual reporting, recordkeeping, and third-party disclosure activities on our experience with similar information collections.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

I. Background

FDA is announcing the availability of a draft guidance for industry entitled “Development of a Shared System REMS.” This guidance describes some of the possible benefits of shared system REMS, and provides general principles and recommendations to assist industry with the development of these programs.

Section 505–l(i)(1)(B) of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FD&C Act) (21 U.S.C. 355–1(i)(1)(B)) requires that a holder of an abbreviated new drug application (ANDA) approved under section 505(j) use a “single, shared system” with the reference listed drug (RLD) for any REMS with elements to assure safe use (ETASU) unless FDA waives this requirement.

The requirement under section 505–1(i)(1)(B) regarding a “single, shared system” only applies to ANDAs. However, FDA recognizes that it may be in the interest of public health to have a shared system REMS in other cases because it may increase efficiencies for applicants and stakeholders. A shared system REMS can encompass multiple prescription drug products and can be developed and implemented jointly by two or more applicants. It can be a program shared by a drug that is the subject of an ANDA and the listed drug, as required in section 505–1(i)(1)(B) (described above). It can also involve multiple new drug applications, ANDAs, or biologics license applications, approved under section 505(b)(1), (b)(2), or (j) of the FD&C Act (21 U.S.C. 355(b)(1), (b)(2) or (j)) or section 351(a) or (k) of the PHS Act (42 U.S.C. 262(a) or (k)), respectively, that form a shared system voluntarily.

Elsewhere in this issue of the Federal Register, FDA is announcing the availability of a draft guidance entitled “Waivers of the Single, Shared System REMS Requirement.” Among other things, that guidance describes how FDA will consider granting a waiver of the requirement in section 505–1(i) of the FD&C Act that the applicant for an ANDA and its RLD use a single, shared system for REMS with ETASU.

This draft guidance is being issued consistent with FDA’s good guidance practices regulation (21 CFR 10.115). The draft guidance, when finalized, will represent the current thinking of FDA on “Development of a Shared System REMS.” It does not establish any rights for any person and is not binding on FDA or the public. You can use an alternative approach if it satisfies the requirements of the applicable statutes and regulations. This guidance is not subject to Executive Order 12866.

II. Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995

This draft guidance refers to collections of information that are subject to review by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (PRA) (44 U.S.C. 3501–3520). The preparation and submission of a drug master file (as described in 21 CFR 314.420) by applicants for their shared system REMS submissions has been approved under OMB control number 0910–0001. In accordance with the PRA, before publication of the final guidance document, FDA intends to solicit public comment and obtain OMB approval for any information collections recommended in this guidance that are new or that would represent material modifications to previously approved collections of information found in FDA regulations.

III. Electronic Access

Persons with access to the internet may obtain the draft guidance at either <http://www.fda.gov/Drugs/GuidanceComplianceRegulatoryInformation/Guidances/default.htm>, <https://www.fda.gov/BiologicsBloodVaccines/GuidanceComplianceRegulatoryInformation/Guidances/default.htm>, or <https://www.regulations.gov>.
