Exelon Corporation; Notice of Filing

June 23, 2006.

Take notice that on July 29, 2005, Exelon Corporation (Exelon), on behalf its subsidiary of PECO Energy Company (PECO), filed a compliance filing in response to the Commission's June 30, 2005 Order, confirming that Exelon will classify PECO's Vice President-Gas as performing Energy Affiliate activities and will structure his role so he does not receive non public transmission information, does not take part in portions of any meeting where non public transmission information is discussed, and does not perform transmission functions.

Any person desiring to intervene or to protest this filing must file in accordance with Rules 211 and 214 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.211, 385.214). Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a notice of intervention or motion to intervene, as appropriate. Such notices, motions, or protests must be filed on or before the comment date. Anyone filing a motion to intervene or protest must serve a copy of that document on the Applicant and all the parties in this proceeding.

The Commission encourages electronic submission of protests and interventions in lieu of paper using the "eFiling" link at <http://www.ferc.gov>. Persons unable to file electronically should submit an original and 14 copies of the protest or intervention to the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, NE., Washington, DC 20426.

This filing is accessible on-line at <http://www.ferc.gov>, using the "eLibrary" link and is available for review in the Commission's Public Reference Room in Washington, DC. There is an "eSubscription" link on the Web site that enables subscribers to receive e-mail notification when a document is added to a subscribed docket(s).
